PORTRAIT FROM THE PAST — In the early 1890's a school was located on the Arrington land near the present Diboll Municipal Golf Course Pro Shop. The school was called Accident and the teacher was I.D. Fairchild. Identified are (bottom row) Lee Massingill, Maud Arrington Kellow, Paralee Warner Stevens and Emmitt Massingill. Middle row: Debbie Massingill Perkins, William Warner, Jenny Warner, teacher I.D. Fairchild, Willie Warner Wilmoth and Tobe Smith. Top row: Holly Warner, Nancy Prewitt Weeks, Minnie Arrington Green, Hobby Stovall, Doc Warner, Louisa Smith Warner, Ann Warner and Laura Massingill Warner. Anyone who has pictures of early Diboll can donate them to the Temple Archives at Temple Memorial Library, or allow the library to copy them. If you have such photographs, contact Brenda Russell at the library.
