Plans Being Made By Coaches For '56 Football Season

Lumberjack coaches Johnny Waldie and Erwin DuBose refused to look back on their 1955 football season this week. Instead, they are making plans for what both think will be a much improved Lumberjack squad in 1956.

Losing six key men from this year's team, it would appear that the six came close to forming the nucleus of a Lumberjack outfit that succeeded in winning 3 of ten games. Ends Ken Burnett and Larry Weber, Guards Billy Carrier and Harold Dean, and backs John Lee and Billy Jones will follow the path of graduation this year.

The most important, as it were of the six is big Ken Burnett. The 6'3", 195 lb. end is one of the best ends Diboll has produced in a long time.

While on the receiving end of many passes from quarterback Royce Grimes, Burnett vies for ball-hawking honors with Gordon "Tip" Brashear and Robert "Tweet" Landrum, both former Jacks. Being both tall and heavy however, Burnett stands the best chance of becoming a college ballplayer. His defensive talents cannot be underrated. At Trinity two weeks ago, he blocked his fifth extra point kick of the season, a feat rarely seen in high school football.

GOOD MEN BACK

Carrier and Dean, both scrappy little guards, will be missed, but Waldie said that Charles Carr and Leo Clark should fill the vacancies well.

Both Bill Jones and John Lee have caried the mail in good fashion from their halfback posts this year. Both have been outstanding, at different times and in different games. Wiley Courtney and Royce Grimes will be left alone in the backfield. They will forage for themselves, helped by a host of up-coming Junior High backs, and an ineligible player this year, Gerald Taylor.

Taylor will be eligible next year. Backfield coach DuBose has high praise for the boy, and stipulated that he thinks Taylor will be his most powerful runner next season.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin McCall and son, Morris Drew, of Port Neches visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Talley McCall. They were accompanied by Mr. Nelson Massingill.

Texas Housewife Wins Car for Life

In a dramatic, overtime finish, Mrs. John Anderson, a Ft. Worth housewife, outscored two male opponents to win the first of four nationally-televised "Dodge for Life" contests Nov. 12. Wife of a carpenter, Mrs. Anderson, 37, correctly answered the 12th of a series of safety questions, and for her victory will receive a new car every year of her life. So excited when informed by Bert Parks (right), noted quizmaster, that she had won, she had to leave the victory dinner after the contest and return to her hotel to rest.

Little "D"

MRS. SAGE WARD shopping for TV set—JEAN BURNS an early shopper at Cash Drug — JOE DONALD SMITH confused over his own deer story — ED STRICKLAND discussing Chamber of Commerce activities — Groveton residents Bill Carlton and Lloyd Burr, Jr., guests in Diboll home — Jewel Brown trading verbal blows with Carl Ferguson — LARRY WEBBER showing off his deer kill — TED DePRIEST making room in the Village Food Market for Merchants meeting.

There were hundreds of careless drivers on the road Thanksgiving. Half a hundred of them tried their darndest to run over me. A proposed quick trip to Lufkin to pick up last weeks papers turned out to be a hazardous one, since it happened to be on Thanksgiving.

I thanked my lucky stars I had to go no further than Lufkin. The world is full of idiots, and when you stack an idiot and two hundred horses together, you get a sandwich that is about as digestible as a wad of active atoms

The time for pleading with motorists has long since become a farce. Tickets for anything above a parking ticket should call for a revocation of license for not less than a six month period.

Most of us take a lot for granted. And, now and then, our reviere is broken for a spell, only to return to the everyday drudgery which we all face with little or no enthusiasm.

The following bit from a Texas Press Association service bulletin is such a 'reviere breaker'. It tells a story many of us overlook. In just a few words here is what one subscriber wrote his newspaper:

"I have many fond memories of your newspaper and the people who have been connected with it. Not long ago, it occurred to me that in the files of your newspaper is the history of my life. Your newspaper has recorded the story of my birth, my childhood parties, my graduation from high school and later from college, my marriage, the arrival of my four children and the death of one of them—and, now, in more recent years your columns have been recording the arrival, one by one, of my grand children. Is it any wonder that your newspaper means so much in our home and that we look forward eagerly to receiving it each week?"

A weekly newspaper becomes an accepted thing much of the time. Many folks pay little attention to the fact that little Jane had a birthday party last Wednesday. But put all the little stories together, such as the reader did, and you get the everyday things of life, recorded, for the sake of history, as the rest of the world goes merrily along its way.

CORRECTION

The News-Bulletin incorrectly stated last week that Mr. Gomer Jones of Texas A and M would be the principal speaker at the football banquet here on Dec. 9. Lions Club president Ralph McGill, pointed out that Mr. Jones is associated with the University of Oklahoma.

So, Mr. Elmer Smith of Texas A and M College will be the speaker at the banquet.

Pipe Line Here Is Razed By Fire

The Texas Pipe Line Company pump station, located about six miles east of here on Farm Road 58, was razed by fire Friday night.

Reports said the firewas caused by a pump failure last Friday afternoon.

No one was seriously hurt, although one man was shaken up by a blast just after the blaze started.

Local and Lufkin fire units answered the call, but little could be done because of lack of water. Chief D. C. McPherson of the Lufkin Fire Department said that a small tank nearby could have been used if the units had had ample suction hoses.

The pump station appeared to be a total shambles following the fire.

Miss Annette Burrows of Port Arthur, visited her mother, Mrs. Fronie Burrous, last week.

Santa Claus paid his first visit to Lufkin on November 29, at 3 p.m., when the annual Christmas Parade was held, Herman Taylor, merchants chairman announced.

Chairman Taylor said also that the committee had made arrangements for Santa Claus to visit Lufkin every shopping day starting December 1, and running until Christmas Eve, Dec. 24. Santa Claus will visit the downtown section of Lufkin from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. during this period of time.

Diboll Basketballers Take To Road

Diboll's Lumberjack basketball team went on the road for their first game of the 1955 season Tuesday night. They were to play Cushing there. District 19A composed of Diboll, Woodville, Corrican, Groveton, Trinity, and Hudson, will not get underway for several weeks.

Coach Bennie Franks has only five lettermen from last years team. They are Ken Burnett, Don Capps, Harold Burchfield, Jimmie Bobbitt, and Bobby Glover.

Coach Ulman McMullen had 34 boys out for his intial Junior High workouts. He is expected to fashion agood club for the big roster, after he makes a 'cut' in the team sometime this week.

Football coach Johnny Waldie is expected to coach the girl's basketball team this year.

BULLETIN

The Diboll News-Bulletin will publish an extra large Christmas edition this year. The issue will be out on the regular Thursday date, the 22.

It will contain many new and interesting feature stories, with as many local pictures as we can dig up.

Persons knowing of special interest stories they would like to see in print, with or without the pictures, should contact the editor at 2546 as soon as possible.

"Time To Start Your Christmas Mailing!" Postmaster Hines Says

"It's time to start those X-mas mailings", postmaster B. F. Hines warned today, launching his 1955 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign.

"On the calendar it's a month away but here in the Post Office it's Christmas today—and every day until December 25th", he said. Extra mail carriers and office help have been secured, the delivery trucks serviced the inkwells filled and in fact everything is ready for the mammoth flood of Christmas mail that is expected to smash all records.

The Post Office has already dispatched a tremendous quantity of gift packages for members of the Armed Forces overseas. Christmas cards for service personnel can still be delivered in time if th are sent by air mail before

The Diboll High School Band was awarded a Division II place with a total point rating of 94 in the Region 12 Marching Contest at Jasper on November 19, 1955.

Each band competes in a certain class assigned the school by the Interscholastic League of the University of Texas. The Diboll band marches in Class A.

Divisions are awarded according to ratings of 95 to 100 for Div. 1; 88 to 94 for Div. 11; 80-to 84 for Div. III; 74 to 79 for Div IV; and 68 to 73 for Div. V.

In conjunction with the Marching Contest, the Interscholastic League Twirling Contest is also held. The DHS band had 3 entries.

Betty Faye Brown and John Estes were awarded Division I honors and Betty Lee George was awarded a Div. II berth. A sprained wrist prevented Elaine Bunch from entering the contest.

HOWDY

I don't know of a better day to try to write a column than on Thanksgiving Day.

We can think of so many things for which to be thankful,I am reminded of a recent column of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale. A fellow told Dr. Peale that he couldn't think of a thing that he should be thankful for. Dr. Peale handed him a sheet of paper and told him to set down on one side all of the bad things that had happened to him, then turn the sheet over and write on the other side all of which he should be thankful.

On the adverse side he put down a few debts he couldn't collect, bills he owed, the name of some fellow who had done him a wrong and a few other things that did not matter much. Then, he turned the page over, thought for a while, then told Dr. Peale he simply could not think of a thing he could be thankful for.

The doctor asked him if he could see. Yes, his eysight was perfect. Lots of people are blind. Did he have the use of both hands and both legs? Yes, they were perfect. Lots of people have to ride in wheel chairs, walk on crutches or artificial legs, and many of them can't even feed themselves.

Finally the fellow got the idea and started writing. Before long he had all of one side filled, the blank space he had left on the other side and was asking for more paper. So it is with all of us. We, and especially those of us who live in America, have so much to be thankful for, we should be ashamed to ever grumble about anything.

A few columns back, I mentioned that when I got to the point that I couldn't distinguish a clump of leaves from a squirrel, I quit hunting and sold my gun. Well, I know of a certain guy in Diboll that can't see well enough to tell a spike buck at fifty feet, and he is just about the age now that I was when I quit hunting.

How about it, Dick Goins, ready to sell your gun now? Dick asked me to tell all of his friends that he thought his future home would be cell number 983, in case they wanted to visit him.

Dick also said that among lots of other things he had to be so thankful for he is thankful that there was only one spike buck and not two or three.

They might have had to bury him under the jail.

Woodville Drops Bi-District Game

The Woodville Eagles lost their bi-district game with Crosby Friday night, 32-7.

Woodville was by far the best team in 19-A and that made it look bad for Trinity, Corrigan, Groveton, and Diboll, all of which were beaten resoundingly by the Woodville team.

The Eagles weren't even in the game after the first quarter.

ALTO SHAKES JOAQUIN

Alto's Yellowjackets moved into the Regional playoffs by way of a 19-6 victory over Joaquin. The Yellowjackets will now face Crosby on a neutral field tomorrow night.

Even though Woodville showed larger scores over San Augustine, Groveton, and Trinity than did Alto, most observers believe that Alto will hold Crosby to a better game. That is pure speculation, however, and Crosby will probably advance to the State playoffs after what should be about a two touchdown victory tomorrow night over Alto.

Ninth Graders To Be Eligible Next Year

Next year the Jr. High team will consist of boys in the seventh and eighth grades, and the ninth grade boys will be eligible for the varsity.

This will send such promising men as Calven Lawrence, Morris Smith, Red Oaks, and a host of others into competition for varsity slots.

"We expect at least 35 boys out for next year," Waldie said. "DuBose and I both expect to field a much better club. We have a good start, especially with our T formation we're fortunate to have good linemen back, also our quarterback, Grimes. He should be tops next season. In fact, we should be tops—we'll have to be in order to make a showing in the new district."

Rev. Weaver Gives Thanksgiving Talk

Special Thanksgiving Services were held at the Methodist Church last Wednesday evening. The Rev. J. D. Weaver delivered the message.

Immediately following the service a 'surprise pounding' was presented the minister and his family. The social hour was enjoyed by all members.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lynn of San Antonio spent the weekend with Mrs. E. H. Kelley.

Rat Tales...

Deer hunting is booming about Diboll. It seems there are quite a few hunters who are knocking deer down, but not killing them. At least that's the way most of the stories are being told.

One of the best tales is on Joe Donald Smith. Harold Turner says he saw Joe kill his 11 point buck, his first.

Turner said Joe found this old grand-pa deer bogged down in a mudhole. Joe fired on the buck from 30 yards (says Turner). He missed but the old boy couldn't move, so Joe moved up to 15 yds. and tried a shot. Missing again, Joe disgustedly walked up to the deer and let him have it.

There was a blind deer up in the upper end of the pasture. All the squirrel hunters have been feeding him since the first of October. He had gotten to be quite a pet.

It is said that one Hillory Pouland brought him home, and bragging about getting him with the first shot from his new rifle.

For shame, Hillory.

Clifford Anthony met five deer face to face, just around a bend in the road. He shot five times and hasn't touched a hair yet.

Nolan Hall can't get his story straight. He has me so confused, I don't know what to think.

One thing is sure: If I go hunting, no one will know it unless I make a kill. I've had too much fun with all the hunters.

We are ready for donations for the fieldhouse. For every $1 donated you get a chance on five $100 bills. See one of the Boost-

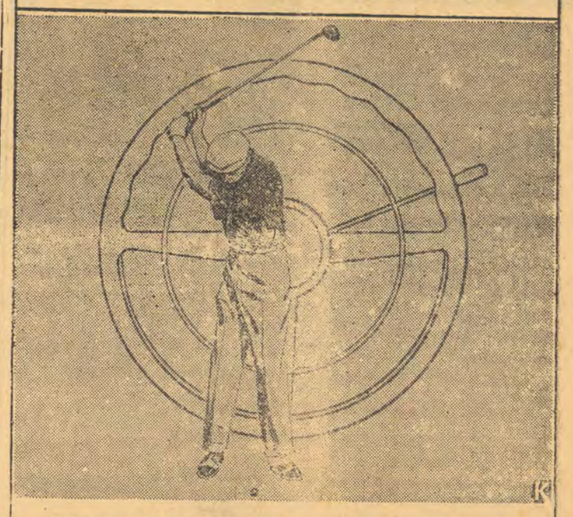
Drive Like a Professional



Driving a golf ball and driving a car have a lot in common. Both require skill, control and practice. Take the smooth swing and perfect timing necessary to make a professional golfer. They're the same for good driving.

The "pro" on the road drives his car smoothly. He blends with the flow of traffic without jerky stops and starts. Because of perfect timing he never has to dart from lane to lane. He glides his car, anticipating his next move long in advance. Through constant practice he improves his driving skill.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Dog's Life

A dog's life isn't what it used to be. Neither is a cat's.

Household pets these days are having the time of their evolutionary lives. At last count there were more than 20 million dogs in the United States — and science and industry are catering to their needs.

Today's dogs eat nutritionally-balanced rations and play with scientifically-designed toys. Photographers specialize in puppy portraits and canine beauty experts can primp up a backyard scavenger to look like a prize-winning prima donna.

Dogs and cats are social climbers too. Today they're welcomed in many places where they formerly were forbidden to set paw. One directory lists over 4,000 hotels and motels that make special provisions for dogs, so you don't have to leave Fido home when you take a trip any more.

A few precautions are in order if you plan to motor with a dog. In one of his stories, James Thurber describes a show-dog that suffered from "a kind of Freudian car sickness" on his way to every performance. Dogs do suffer from motion sickness just as we do. The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals suggests that several short rides can help get the dog used to the car's motion.

To prevent Fido from getting carsick you can buy Bonamine — the long-lasting motion sickness tablets — at any drug store. It will ward off an unpleasant experience. Don't overfeed a dog in hot climates, and be sure he gets plenty of water. Exercise is important, so on long trips let the dog out of the car whenever you stop.

A dog often likes to ride with his head out the window. Don't let him. It could lead to a serious eye injury or other accident.

With a little care and attention, your pet doesn't have to be confined to the doghouse vicinity any more. He can travel as far and wide as you do.

Meal Freezing Time

Here is a way to cut down on cooking hours during the next weeks when there is so much holiday preparation and entertaining to do. Take a day out to prepare quantities of your family's favorite casserole dishes, stews and desserts, freeze them, and forget them until a half hour before meal times. Then, there will be a lot more time for Christmas shopping, decorating and entertaining.

As well as time saving, home freezing is economical too because you buy in quantity. Also with a view to saving money, you will find freezer packaging materials such as Vapocans, square, waxed-board containers with re-usable plastic lids in your store. To freeze, follow your recipe, quick-cool and pour into these square, waxed-board containers in pint, pint-and-a-half or quart sizes depending on re-

Eighty-three years ago the nation's first "long-distance" natural gas pipeline was built from Newton Well to Titusville in the state of Pennsylvania. The line was 5½ miles long and was finished in 1872.

Plain And Fancy To Be Fair Attraction

Dallas, Texas.—The Amish people of Pennsylvania, who inspired the gay musical comedy,—"Plain and Fancy", will never see themselves portrayed on the stage, for going to shows is against their religion. However Cotton Bowl Week visitors to Dallas will be able to see the hit musical from Dec. 26 through a matinee performance on Jan. 1.

Mail order ticket sale for the State Fair Auditorium holiday treat will open Dec. 4. The box office is 1315 Elm St. Dallas.

"Plain and Fancy" stars motion picture star Alexis Smith and her husband, television star Craig Stevens. It will have eight Cotton Bowl Week performances. There will be nightly shows Dec. 26 through Dec. 31 with matinees on Dec. 31 and Jan. 1.

SHEER DELIGHT!

You don't have to handwash sheer nylon stockings anymore. You can now launder your most delicate garments in the same automatic washer that you do the family wash. They will be safer, and come out cleaner, too. No more worries about fingernail snags either.

Snag-Proof Washing ...

A new 2-speed 2-cycle automatic washer, recently introduced by Whirlpool Corporation, does the trick. Completely independent of the regular cycle, a one-third lower speed, short-time delicate fabrics cycle is fully automatic. Washing time is selective from one to four minutes. A one-minute low-speed deep agitated rinse and four power spray rinses remove every trace of soap; a slowed-down spin-dry cycle removes excess water.

...By Fingertip Control

For washing sturdier, dirtier items, the separate regular cycle of the 1956 Imperial automatic offers selective washing time of one to 14 minut, at normal speed, six power-spray rinses and a two-minute agitated deep rinse. Water temperature with fabrics guide is selective HOT, MED., or WARM. Water level is also selective — HIGH for a full nine pound load, MED. for a seven pound load and LOW for a five pound load. Completely flexible, the fingertip control may be set anywhere in-between or for even smaller loads.

The addition of the 2,000 mile pipeline bringing natural gas to Washington, Oregon and Utah will bring the total mileage of the nation's natural gas system to about 420,000 miles.

It is estimated that today almost 35 million homes use utility gas or bottled gas for cooking and other residential uses.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burchfield and Sheila of Houston, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Dean and family over Thanksgiving Holidays.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Attending the National Safety Congress each October, in Chicago, is one of the highlights of my "traveling year". During the Congress I have the honor to present the Carol Lane Awards for Traffic Safety to the six top winners in behalf of the National Safety Council and the Shell Oil Company. I present the awards to three individual women and three women's or parents' groups who have made significant contributions to traffic safety. It's a thrill to help recognize work done by winners like these:

The top individual award went to Mrs. P. W. Hodges of Tucson, Arizona, for helping groups throughout the state focus attention on traffic safety. As a result of her efforts, safety "work-shops" were established, local safety programs quadrupled, and the Arizona Safety Belles were originated.

First award in the group classification was won by the Women's Division of the Greater Minneapolis Safety Council. Their "No-Accidents" traffic award program, recognizing careful teen-age motorists was an outstanding program for high-school students.

Mrs. Glen Rabb, principal of the W. J. Wheeler Elementary School, Commerce, Texas, received the second place award for individuals, because of the extensive traffic safety program she conducted in the school and the community. The Parent-Teacher Council of Provo, Utah, placed second among the groups for its executed "Safety on Streets" bicycle safety program.

For organizing the women's groups in Maryland into an effective force for traffic safety, Mrs. John S. Gardiner, Baltimore, received the third place individual award. The Black Mountain woman's Club, Black Mountain, North Carolina, won third group award for its continuous community-wide traffic safety program.

All the 1955 entries showed the outstanding work American women are doing for Traffic Safety . .

For all the greatness of His mercy to us, His love for us, God requires so very little of us—and yet some of us find that little so difficult, find it so hard, even while doing justly, to be merciful to those less fortunate, to be humble in our proud self-assurance.

Texas 4-H'er Wins Trip To Chicago

William Kolter, 18, of Wichita Falls, is among 24 of 4-H members in the Nation to attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, as a Sectional winner in the 4-H Achievement program. This award, one of the highest honors a 4-H Club member can obtain, is provided by the Ford Motor Company.

His selection as a sectional winner in the program was based on project accomplishment as well as club and community achievements.

William Kolter

William completed 65 projects during his nine years of club work. He raised 575 chickens, cultivated 3½ acres of garden, improved 135 acres of rangeland, and practiced soil conservation on 90 acres. For the past three years, he has been a tractor maintenance Junior Leader. In 1954 he was a state tractor winner, and a delegate to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

William received numerous county, district and state awards on his 4-H projects and activities. Other projects he carried are field crops, in which he raised 180 acres of grain, beef, safety, electric, and home beautification.

He is president of the Friberg 4-H Club of Wichita county, led by Mrs. George Emmert and Mrs. W. Martin.

Achievement awards also include twelve $300 scholarships for national winners chosen from among the sectional winners. As state winner, William received a set of two miniature statues.

This program is conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

It was not until 1860 that gas was utilized to any great extent for cooking, and gas ranges were regarded as an innovation at the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1873.
