Eisenhower Issues Scout Message

President Eisenhower, in his Christmas message to the Boy Scouts of America as their Honorary President, said that "the program of service and recreation helps them grow into citizens of whom this nation can be proud."

The President's greetings to the nation's 3,996,867 Cubs, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and their leaders, made public by Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive follows:

TO THE BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA:

Since 1910, when their organization was founded, the Boy Scouts of America have stood for honesty and fair play, love of country and consideration of others. Their program of service and recreation helps them grow into citizens of whom this nation can be proud.

To each Boy Scout and Cub and to their leaders and den mothers, I extend warm greetings at the season of peace and good will. May you all have a New Year filled with happiness.

Diboll Beats Their Elimenating Team

By AMOUS LEWIS

The rampaging Diboll Lumberjacks put the Nacogdoches Tourney behind them last Tuesday night, as they bounced back to defeat the team that eliminated them from that tourney. They socked the Garrison Bulldogs to 59-57, in an up-to the minute thriller on Garrison's court.

The Jacks led 19-11 in the first quarter and 31-22 at the half. Diboll retained the lead all during the game, with Garrison failing to tie the count after rushing from a 12 point deficit.

CAPPS THIS TIME

Donald Capps topped Ken's total of 15 with a brilliant 18 point effort. Garrison's Newman put on a one man show by scoring 26 points.

B-TEAM WINS TOO

A Lewis boy by the name of Amos tipped in 16 markers to pave the way for the B'ers win over Garrison's B'ers, 42-31. — Larry Weber added 12 against Garrison's Morris with 11 and McDuffe 8.

REALLY MOVING

Our Jacks really got moving Thursday night against Garrison. The Bulldogs played in the Lumberjack Gym and the fired-up Jacks rolled to an easy 70-48 victory.

Ken Burnett resumed his position as scoring king by pumping in 27 points. Harold Burchfield's 13 seemed to come at more opportune times, however, and even his corner shots that missed were backed up and pushed in by his teammates.

Diboll lead by a single point, 35-34, at the half, but pulled away goinging into the third by way of Burchfield's corner shots.

The B team won their fifth straight on the same night, 40-29.

Notice that our old friend — Harry Wayne Hogue, wha married to Miss Dorothy Hammock last week. Congratulations, Harry. Miss Hammock is from Lufkin.

The pride of any community, especially a small town, is the local school band. Such is the case here as there is no one who is not proud of the Diboll High School Band.

Tutored by director Victor Roper, thi band has accomplished much since it was begun in the late 40's by Mr. Matthews. Superintendent W. F. Pate also deserves a lot of credit for giving the unit a lot of consideration and assistance.

Roper is the man, however, who has guided the band to fame in East Texas, and to a Region 12 Second Devision plaque last November.

Senator Lock Voted For Law To Curtail Texas Insurance Activities

Senator Ottis Lock says that he voted for the new law by which the insolvent US Guaranty and Trust Company was put out of business.

,'The controversy over House Bill 240 might leave the impression that the legislature failed to regulate the US Guaranty & Trust Company, but such is not the case," Senator Lock said.

"House Bill 39, which I supported, did pass and was used to put this company out of business," he continued.

"Putting a weak company out of business is bad but continued operation is worse, and the sooner the new laws are strictly enforced and all unsound companies are weeded out, the better it will be for the public,"—Lock said.

"The weeding out process will naturally cause considerable — commotion,—which I hope will not obscure the good job which the legislature did in strengthening the securities and insurance laws of Texas," he stated.

New Year Resolutions Made By Request

RITCHIE WELLS: To quit—trying to talk everybody to—death.

BOB COOK: To resolve to go a little easier on Sweeny's grocery bill.

RAYMOND WILLIS: To be a little tighter with the Southern Pine money.

(On more than one occasion during 1955 he didn't lose over three or four nights sleep over saving as much as fifty additional cents on a $15,000 purchase.

HERB WHITE: To quit talking business all the time and to start discussing - - hunting - - buiness - - fishing - - - business and bu —bunnies

SIDNEY PARKER. To lay off once in a while. A man just can not be in top form all the time who won't take a day off occasionally for a short rest.

BERNICE HINES: To be more careful about shooting people's PET bobcats. There is plenty of WILD game to take a pop at hereabouts.

C. A. JORDAN: To be a little more conservative with the T. S. E.'s money. After all, if you throw enough of it away it may eventually play out and leave the outfit broke.

BEN ANTHONY: To quit being so nervous. A man dashing around at top speed all the time might blow a fuze. Slow down before it's too late.

R. D. McVICAR: To quit spending all his loose change on popcorn.

KENNETH NELSON. To quit being so grouchy all the time—Cheer up.

CLYDE THOMPSON: To quit sitting around half asleep all the time. Get a move on. You can't get anything done strolling leisurely around at a snail's pace.

Little "D"

The Lord took from our midst last week one of the best neighbors and humanitarians ever to live in Diboll.

Lee Estes' social work and his many other acts of kindness — were carried out in his own woy. Those who can perform such work without casting the spotlight upon themselves are few and far between.

His many friends realize that —the First Methodist Church— held only several of the hundred who came in reverent silence to pay their last respects.

Mr. Estes leaves behind his widow and one son, John, a freshman at Diboll High School — living tributes to a fine gentleman and neighbor.

Shepperd - Chetham Meet At Kerrville

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd and recently appointed Assistant Attorney General Wiley Cheatham of Cuero conferred Thursday in a Kerrville hospital with Pulitzer Prize winner Kenneth Towery, editor of the Cuero Record, on the progress of statewide criminal and civil cases in the broad Texas veterans land investigation.

Recent developments in the many varied cases being tried throughout the state prompted the conference as Shepperd and Cheatham, former DeWitt Co. Attorney, pushed for early prosecution of key cases. Towery was awarded a Pulitzer Prize for his work in exposing the first fraululent land sales in the veterans land program which eventually led to the conviction of Basrom Giles, former land hommissioner, in both criminal and civil trials.

"Because of the peculiar — knowledge — possessed by Towery as the result of his close and accurate reporting of all veterans land cases for his newspaper," Shepperd commented,— "we feel his counsel is extremely valuable toward their successful prosecution."

Cheatham, the man who had sparked the investigations in— the Texas Veterans Land Program, and—recently appointed district attorney for the 24th judicial district, reiterated his resentment of the recent impications that Governor Shivers had not cooperated with him and the others in conducting his investigation.

Final Services Held Last Wed. In Methodist Church For Lee Estes

Final services were held last Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in Diboll Methodist Church for Lee Estes, business and social leader who passed away earlf on Tuesday morning. He was 54.

The Rev. J. D. Weaver and Rev. Lloyd Moorman officiated, and interment was in Garden of Memories.

Mr. Estes' death terminated his life-long work in Diboll. He moved here from Red Water,— where he was born on November 21, 1901.

Operated Station

He operated the Diboll Motor Company for more than twenty-five years before assuming operation of the Western Auto Associate Store here. The old Diboll Motor Company, located in the central section of town opposite the theatre, was later moved to its new and present location on Highway 59. It is now operated under another name by Benny Rector.

When Tap Holland moved his hardware store from The Village, Mr. Estes introduced Western Auto to the people of Diboll. And although he made many new friends while operating, he had many years before entrenched himself as a 'sturdy social leader' and everybody's friend in this and adjoining towns.

Mr. Estes was a member of the First Methodist Church, — where, he had been active as a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Board of Stewards.

$100 Bills Given In Booster Contest

Diboll Booster Club was the center of attraction in The Village last Friday afternoon at 5:30 as they held the drawing for the five $100 bills.

President Johnny Waldie and vice-president Rat Johnson handled the drawing. Not one of the winners were present at the drawing. The bills were delivered later.

Slow sales of $1 tickets were boosted considerably, as club members sold the tickets from 3 p.m. until drawing time. Proceeds went toward construction of a field house for the school athletics.

Lucky winners of the $100 — were Elwyn Jones, who won two, Robert Rector, R. A. Stewart, and Jack Caraway.

Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Ramsey, Jr. were Christmas visitors.

Diboll Story Given By Mr. Cummings

The Story of Diboll, brief, interesting, and one of many that have seen print during the past few years about this ever-expannding East Texas town, was published in the Dec. 13 state edition of The Houston Chronicle.

Compiled and written by Jim Cummings of the Chronicle's E. Texas Bureau, the article dealt with the close association of Diboll and the Temple Indusdries.

The News-Bulletin, on behalf of the people of Diboll, congratulates, and sincerely appreciates, a well written story by Jim Cummings.

Mr. Cummings, while he is— with the Chronicle's East Texas Bureau,—will make his home in Lufkin.

We would like to know who visited your home during the holidays. Won't you drop us a postcard today?

Southern Pine Lumber Co. plant employees continueh to enjoy their week's vacation.

Only maintenance and repair work is going on at the South's leading mill.

Diboll seems unusually quiet since the mills generally rumble for 20 hours each day.

Plant employees will resume at 7 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 2.

HEARING BAD?

If so, you will be happy to know how we have improved the hearing and relieved those miserable head noises, caused by catarrh of the head, for thousands of people (many past 70) who have used our simple Elmo Palliative Home Treatment in the past 16 years. This may be the answer to your prayer. NOTHING TO WEAR.

Here are SOME of the symptoms that may likely be causing your catarrhal deafness and head noises: Head feels stopped up from mucus. Dropping of mucus in throat. Hawking and spitting. Mucus in nose or throat everyday. Hearing worse with a cold. Hear — but don't understand words. Hear better on clear days. Worse on rainy days. Head noises like crickets, bells, whistles, clicking, escaping steam or many other sounds.

If your condition is caused by catarrh of the head, you, too, may likely enjoy such wonderful relief as many others have reported. WRITE TODAY FOR PROOF AND 30 DAY TRIAL OFFER.

An EDITORIAL

(It is only fitting that at the year's end we take a look at the past to see just what has been accomplished —both fitting and natural. It is also natural that in discussing the town of Diboll, Southern Pine Lumber Co., and other of the Temple Industries must be discussed. The two are synonomous—alike and inseparable. I have written countles—stories—about both. So has the Lufkin Daily News, The Houston Post, Houston Chronicle, Dallas Morning News, Gulf Coast Lumberman and The Southern Lumberman. So did Jake Durham, director of Public Relations for Southern Pine in the late 40's and early 50's. In his last article for the BUzzz-SAW, "Exit Of An Editor," here in part is the deft manner in which Jake combined employees and Company feeling.—Editor)

"This is my last day on the payroll of Southern Pine Lumber Company anyway, so I can speak my piece without polishing any apples or having any motive other than to tell it like it is. Which is simply that in Arthur Temple Jr., you have a young manager of this operation who is a builder at heart; a manager perfectly willing to take a financial chance if, by taking that chance the probabiities are that the employees of the company will have better working conditions, better living conditions, and a more job security than they could ever possibly find else. And with his unusual executive ability, he isn't going to be wrong often.

"But regardless of his talents, his drive, and his desire to make this the most attractive place in the industry to work, and Diboll the most attractive town in East Texas in which to live, he must have able field captains, co-captains and a team willing to pull together all of the time for the common good. He must have, in those who work for him in whatever capacity, TEAM—SPIRIT.

"I think he has it now. But, like a football team that plays an inspired game one Saturday and then loses eight in a row because the boys "let down" —the team spirit can be lost if a complacent attitude is takken about it.

"But just what is "team" spirit as applied to employees of an industry? It is enthusiasm; it's that feeling of 'belonging' — of being an integral part of the operation regardless of how small or seemingly un-important your job appears to be (remember—if your work was not important there would be no point in having you or anybody else do it.); it is that feeling of pride in being an employee of a progressive top-flight lumber manufacturing concern; it is that something inside you that says "I'm working for the best outfit in the business, with the best fellow-employees in the world. — We're going places—Together!"

The company can't expand and prosper without the active cooperation and job interest of its employees—and the employees can't prosper if the company is not able to make a profit, to expand, and do a better manufacturing job than its competitors.

It's as simple as that.

During the past 42 issues of this paper I have watched, and written about, what was going on with reference to a lot of things. (I've watched, but not written about, a lot of other things which, though very interesting and exciting from a news angle, weren't exactly safe to put in print).

I have also visited some other East Texas Lumber Towns and Lumber Plants, as many of you have, during this same period of time. And what impressed me most was the fact that, though a lot of people take the growth and modernization of Diboll as something more or less in the natural course of events, no other lumber town or lumber—plant—I have been in is enjoying the same progressive program of expansion, modernization and 'face lifting' that we have had here.

"In other words, if we all look around a little bit we'll see that Diboll is ALREADY way ahead of practically every lumber city in the south. And the first quarter isn't even over yet. There are big things planned for the immediate future—big things—for the Town—The Plant—and for you as individual members nf the team.

You are members of a great team. Keep the spirit of the team high and the future will bring you countless blessings in prosperity, happiness, and opportunities for greater achievement."

(This article, in part above,—was written with great sincerity of conviction by Jake Durham. It will always be applicable to employees of Southern Pine Lumber Company.)

DEADLY WEEK-ENDS

Pleasure time is no time for accidents and sudden death, but unfortunately that is when the grim specter works overtime.

On the average week-end about 290 persons are killed and more than 13,600 injured. In a year's time, week-end and holiday casualties climb to the numbing total of 15,000 dead, 750,000 injured, or about 41 percent of all lives lost annually in traffic accidents.

With a week-end or holiday coming up, families and vacation parties swarm the roads to places of recreation, traffic is congested, driving strain increased—and then the fatal count begins.

Millions of good, bad and indifferent drivers speeding, cutting in, weaving, ignoring the rules of courtesy, challenging traffic controls, provide the lethal ingredients for crashing and killing. Add to this the potion of the drinking driver and the mixture is deadly.

When you plan week-end driving be doubly cautious. Try to avoid peak hours of travel and congested routes. Start early, return before or after the rush. Watch your driving, keep your temper, don't contest the right-of-way—and watch the other driver!

Slow down—take a little longer and bring your family home alive.

SLOW DOWN—LIVES ARE IN YOUR HANDS!

is drawing the wrath of Texans.

The TV news commentator's financial advice to "Put your Trust In U. S. Trust" led many Texans to invest life savings in the U. S. Trust and Guaranty Co.

So says Garland Smith, chairmand of the Texas Insurance Board, who along with Atty.-Gen. J. B. Shepperd and Judge Charles O. Betts clamped the padlock on the firm's 14 Texas offices.

"I think Drew Pearson was responsible to a great extent—Mr. Pearson sitting in Washington, the Capitol at his back,—telling people 'You can put your trust in U. S. Trust'. We've talked to these people. They think the U. S. Government was behind it—that it was safe." said Smith.

According to Judge Betts, the firms operations appear to have been "born in iniquity and sin and fraud, and would seem to have been conducted that way from the beginning."

A Texas legislator warned Mr. Pearson more than six months ago that there were questions about his extravagent claims.—Pearson flew to Waco and talked to the head of U. S. Trust. He decided that everything was fine and continued his TV chant 'You can put your trust in U. S.—Trust'.

Now his gesture of hiring a lawyer, to help salvage what is left of the firm's funds, doesn't alter the fact that Texans who took his advice and sank their savings in the firm stand to get back as little as 15c out of every dollar invested. Many of the depositors and policy holders are bitterly criticizing Pearson.

PROBE LEADERS CONFER. Three key figures in the Texas veterans land investigations confer in a Kerrville hospital on the many statewide criminal and civil cases now in various stages of prosecution.

Outstanding Texans To Be Honored

Grand Prairie—On the night of Jan. 21, the Five Outstanding Young Texans of 1955 will be honored at a banquet in Snyder. For the past 16 years the Texas Jaycees have sponsored the selection of five outstanding young men in the state of Texas as a part of their program celebrating another year of service, E. A. Stumpf, president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced today.

The five men to receive the coveted awards for the year are: Bill Allcorn, 32, an attorney of Brownwood, Texas; William (Bill) Bellamy, 35, a newspaper executive from San Antonio; Dan Eddy, 34, a public relations executive for the Salvation Army; JimLindsey, 29, an attorney from Texarkana and also the Speaker of the House of Represpresentatives of the State of Texas; and Dr. William S. Mc Birnie, 35, a San Antonio minister.

A panel of distinguished judges met at the state headquarters of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce in Grand Prairie on December 10th to select the Texans from numerous entries received from throughout the state. The panel included:

Dr. E. H. Hereford, president, Arlington State College, Arlington, Texas; Mr. Charles P. McGaha, president of the City National Bank in Wichita Falls,—Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Austin; Mr. C. T. McLaughlin, oil operator from Snyder, and Major General Kearie L. Berry, adujutant general of the state of Texas, Camp MaBry; Dr. Henry A. Holle, state health commissioner, Austin and Mr. Ben H. Wooten, president of the First National Bank at Dallas. Mr. Wooten will report for the judges at the January banquet in Snyder.

Frank Pace, former secretary of the Army, will make the principal address at the event to honor the recipients.

The five Outstanding Young Texans Award is restricted to young men between the ages of 21 to 36. It is interesting to note that the average age of these young men is 33.

New Generation To Get More Help

Austin.—The 1956 version of the New Year's baby will get more breaks at birth, statistically speaking, than his brother got fifteen years ago, State Health Department statisticians say.

Among other things, his chances of having the advantages of a hospital birth under competent medical care are more than double the chances his brother had in 1940.

Safe Driving Tips For New Year Are Offered By Experts

DETROIT—"Steer yourself on the road to safety in 1956".

That is the advice of Danny Eames, chief test driver for the Dodge Co., who suggests that motorists adopt New Year's resolutions governing their "behind the wheel" conduct.

Said Eames, "People joke about New Year's resolutions. Every year countless resolutions are made to give up candy, tobacco, or correct bad habits by resolutions with no serious intentions behind them."

"However," he continued, 'safety is a serious business. If each driver would resolve to observe traffic rules every day of the year, the highway accident toll would be greatly reduced in the year 1956."

Here are ten resolutions Eames recommends for motoring safety during the New Year.

1. Observe all traffic regulations. Tey're designed for your protection.
2. Keep a safe distance behind the car ahead, particularly at higher speeds.
3. Stay in your own lane on hills, curves and in "no passing" zones.
4. Dim your lights to oncoming traffic, when driving at night.
5. Give the right of way to a pedestrain.
6. Always be on the alert for children.
7. Know the proper hand or direction signals and use them.
8. Watch where you're going, and keep an eye on other cars near you.
9. Regulate speed toroad conditions as well as to posted speed limits.
10. Give the other fellow more than his share of the road.

Cattle Rustlers In Tex To Be TV Review

Cattle rustlers nave been active in Texas ever since cattle arrived in the state. But present-day rustlers don't have as much chance of escaping as old-timers—That's because cattlemen use scientific methods to track them down.

Next week, The Humble Co.'s TV program, Texas in Review, will feature films showing methods the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association uses to track down rustlers.

Another interesting feature will be films of activities at the border patrol training school at El Paso.

Monday, Jan. 2—Texas in Review can be seen on KRBC-TV, Abilene, 8:00 p.m.; KGNC-TV, Amarillo, 8:30 p.m.; KFDM-TV Beaumont, 6:30 p.m.; KRLD-TV Dallas, 7:30 p.m.; KPRC-TV, in Houston, 10 p.m.; KTRE-TV In Lufkin.

Awards Given For Lighting Decorations

Mrs. Burl Griffin was awarded $15 Friday for having the best exterior lighting decoration in Diboll.

Second prize of $10 was awarded to Rev. and Mrs. Don Turner, and third prize of $5 went to the Chandlers and Mrs. Jimmie Ferguson.

First place prize was actually 'earned' by Mrs. Griffin's family who combined to make the Yule decoration a success.

Out of town judges were the young college ladies from three of Texas leadin Univerisities.

Diboll merchants who contributed to bring Santa Claus to town, also made the Yule Lighting Contest possible.

Gym Well Heated Mr. Ramsey Says

Diboll High School Principal Robert Ramsey told the News-Bulletin last week he felt that more fans would turn out for the Lumberjack home games if they knew of the new heating system incorporated at the gym.

New circulating fans at either end of the gym now afford, in a matter of minutes, comfortable warmth for basketball spectators. "And when they are turned on early in the afternoon," Mr. Ramsey said, "things are a little too hot by gametime."

The Jacks first three home games have been watched by a large number of Dibollians, but Mr. Ramsey wanted those who fear the cold to rest assured of a comfortable bleacher spot at Lumberjack Gym.

Here comes tomorrow's paper

From Tree Farms all over the United States come continuing crops of timber to meet America's growing needs for paper products. While supplying wood for today's needs, these Tree Farms are also growing crops of trees for tomorrow's magazines, grocery bags, school books, newspapers, paper boxes and hundreds of other products essential to the American way of life.

NO COMMENT

Washington—Getting competent businessmen to leave their jobs with industry and come to Washington to work for the Government requires real persuasive powers and usually an appeal to patriotism.

It really is one of the most difficult tasks confronting every Administration to come to power. This is true of the Eisenhower Administration. (sic. What to draw from?)

So charges by anti-business critics that businessmen leap at the opportunity to get government jobs just don't ring true. (sic—They know they have it sewed up—and those who do not leap are those for whom the cash register is not ringing).

It is alleged, of course, by the critics that the businessmen use their Wahington connections to obtain inside information which is transmitted secretly back to their companies so that they can profit from information not available to their competitors.

(sic—This is pure hypothetical reasoning—)

The facts, of course, are quite different. Aside from their reluctance to come to Washington in the first place, you will find that businessmen are just as moral—just as law abiding—just as patriotic as any other group of people. (sic—If thats referring to the catageory in mention, we should all quit, quietly).

(We don't know who 'sic' is but we ain't taking sides either)

Its The Law . . . In Texas

The season for returning the Christmas gifts to stores for exchange is now upon us. Most business establihments are as cooperative as possible about the annual American pastime, but before getting into any arguments with a reluctant clerk or manager, better take a look at the legal situation involved. You may find that persuasion is in order more than demands or adjustment.

Department stores are under no legal obligation to take back a purchase and refund your money or deliver other goods in exchange just because you have changed your mind. Most stores do make refunds and exchanges, but that is because it is their policy to do so—not because they are required to.

However, a promise to refund or exchange merchandise made by the store or the salesman—should be honored. Similarly, if a store misrepresents the quality of certain goods or if the goods are defective, you are justified in expecting a satisfactory adjustment. But you have no more legal right to expect a store to refund or exchange because you change your mind about a purchase than the store has to ask you to give back the goods that were sold to you because it didn't want to sell them after all.
