Dear Mr. Scott:

I have requested representative of J. W. Bateson Company, Inc., of Dallas, who has been awarded contract for building Memorial Hospital, to give you the opportunity of routing any carload material for use in constructing this hospital, wherein you (for the railroad) would benefit from standpoint of revenue.

The contractor will shortly send me a statement indicating originating points of carload materials and I will in turn pass this on to you.

Kind regards,

D. W. Thompson, for

Gentlemen:

Re: MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

At a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors of Memorial Hospital, held at Keltys, Texas, November 11, 1947, at 10 a. m., a resolution was unanimously adopted providing payment by all members between now and December 31, 1947, of an amount to equal a total of $100 per employee based on the number of employees as of October 21, 1947, the date contract was awarded J. W. Bateson Company, Inc., of Dallas, for construction of Hospital.

Those of you who have already paid $50 per employee should make another payment of $50 between now and December 31, 1947, bringing your total payment to $100 per employee.

Very truly yours,

D. W. Thompson, Sec'y
