The unjust Steward.

St Luke the 16 chapter.

And he said also unto his disciples.
There was a certain rich man, which had a steward: and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said unto him. How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward. Then the steward said with in himself, What shall I do for my Lord taketh away from me the stewardship. I cannot dig. To beg I am ashamed I am resolved what to do. that when I am put out of the stewardship they may receive me into their houses. So I love my Lord with all my soul and my strength and mind and

So he called every one of his Lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first how much owest thou unto my Lord?
6
And he said an hundred measures of oil. and he said unto him Take thy bill and sit down quickly and write fifty 7
Then said he to another, &
And how much owest?
And he said, an hundred measures and he said unto him A of wheat.
Take thy bill. and write fourscore.

And the Lord commanded the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children

There was a certain rich man
with was clothed in purple and fine linen and fare sumptuously every day.
and there was a certain beggar named Lazarus which was laid at his gate full of sores and desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table. moreover the dogs came and licked his sore and it came to pass that the beggar died and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosom and the rich man died and was buried; and in hell he lift up his eyes being in torments and seeth Lazarus afar off in 9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness: that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. 10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another's, who shall give you that which is your own? 13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

In my fathers house are many mansions if it were not so I would not have told you so ~~I go~~ I go to prepare a place for you and if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself and where I am there ye may be also and whether I go ye know and the way ye know
And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name that will I do that the father may be glorified in the Son

The Pilgrims wants.

1

I want a sweet sense of Thy pardoning love.
That my manifold sins are forgiven.
That Christ, as my Advocate, pleadeth above.
That my name is recorded in heaven.

2

I want every moment to feel That Thy spirit resides in my heart That his power is present to cleanse And meetness of life to impart

3

I want — oh! I want to attain some likeness to Savior to Thee That longed for resemblance
