Nineveh
Dec. 1st or
Miss Esther
my only one
an top side a erth
I was sure glad to here from you
so as I thaught my little Darling had gone back on me
I was nearly gone
crazy I dident no
I might not. You may think I am
a joking but I am not. I mean.

what I say well Darling. I dont no
what to tell you
hardly, for Papa is very sick & I dont
no whether he will git better so. I can come it may be
to weeks or more
I dont want to leave him so sick.
it Brakes my heart when I think this will
be the last sweet
letter I ever will get to write to
the girl I do love

so dear. to the deep
ob my heart; D Dear.
Father Ef fie D. sez
Jou let mr
Wilson read ever
letter I have written to Jou. has he or mat I had more confidence in my little Darlin
than that. Ef Jou
did do the like.

they, will all out
there this fall, & Father & will
come sometime
before the first
of January, if Jon will let me
off that will give me more
time. & You to.
say how do You
want me to come
on the train or
in a wagon, or
in a buggy or
how. if Edgar comes I may & can get

could use a wagon,
so we can bring
it back with us
for we dont want
it left out there
for them to work.
& wride da we?
Uncle Jaspers bald
is still here & they are going to marry
about next Monday
Hattie & Callie
& Elo-in-to there
just now & asked
her how would
it suit her for us
to do that way
& she just

Jan will am't
this letter but I have got confidence enough in Jan to believe Jan will ans I for Esther if I
new this was the last letter I would ever write
to Jan I believe I
would drop dead.
Setting in this
chair I am Jood By not for ever but for a short while I hope to see Jan again Jood
