REPLY TO August, 2, 1928

Mr. Ezra Moss
Lufkin, Texas

Dear Mr. Moos:

Yonr campaign, according to reports to the office to date is showing wonderfull progress.

I see no reason why we will not exceed our most sanguine expectations as it is possible for us to gross far more than you expected out of the campaign. Your cooperation in this matter by giving a better paper and getting the prizes paid for immediately will help wonderfully. The most important thing is getting your prizes paid for because we have had some inquiries at the office in regard to prizes ete. Some of the best people in Lufkin have written to the office wanting to know something about the contest and in one instance they mentioned something about the contest you had in Wood County. You know and I know that these conditions travel.

There is always some one in a town the size of Lufkin that has friends in some other town.

Again you realize that a new man in a new town, unless he is rich, must create confidence in a social and business way.

The campaign, in a measure, does far exceed in value the newspaper, and you know the prizes are more than twice the value of the plant. Under your lease, as some people wish to inform me, you have no investment other than a small monthly payment. Now I have advised them that you are thoroughly honest and reliable or we would not be doing business with you, that you are prominent there and that you will carry out every obligation and that you have no intention of going to New Mexico as per inquiry, or any where else so far as I know. I further advised them that repetition such as at Tyler would mean serious trouble.

The Federal Government is very strict on contests and upon announcement of a contest there are four points to be advised:

1. What you are going to do.
2. When. 3. Where.
4. How and live up to it.

If enough money is derived out of a contest to pay for the prizes and they are not paid for it is a felony carrying a $5,000 fine and from one to ten years in the Federal Penitentiary so I have been instructed, therefore they are fully protected and have no reason to worry.

This condition has come up from time to time on other contests and we are always able to adjust and create confidence in the publisher by the people. I assure you that we will do everything in our power to give you a great campaign because we would like to serve you from year to year and I am sure you have noticed that we have had as high as four people on your campaign at different intervals.

With my kindest personal regards, I am Most sincerely.

R. H. Coleman

The above letter was post marked, Jackson, Miss, August, 2-28.

Our readers will notice that Coleman calls Moss's attention to his Wood Co. Tex. contest, where he, Moss (presumably had had trouble and to deal Moss pulled off at Tyler, a repetititon of which would cause serious trouble, quoting him Federal penalties, etc. (We have been inforormed that Moss at Tyler, collected deposits on photo-and enlarging work, which was never made good: we have some of this campaign litrature, and letters from people dunning him, and one from a party signed "Nobb." working a contest on The Karnes Citation—who says, "the skindicate is running about normal again now."

"Well old timer give "EM ELL" up there and keep a stiff upper lip"

Another fact that proves that the Coleman Co. knew that Moss was a crook-pulling of a swindling game, was that about the close of the contest; Mixon, their man here said to Mr. Gus Coleman, advertising manager of The Lufkin News-

"My business is to sell cars, and I (Mixon) don't care if Moss never gets out another paper after this is over with."

☞ The Coleman Co. double column advertisement run on Wednesday, October, 17th-18h and on 19h as far as it concerns C. A. Ricks by The Lufkin News, is false and libleous. Tuesday preceding we let the Senior Editor, George E. Watford read the original from Coleman to Moss,(printed above in this article) telling him it was libleous: but that if they would run it onece with the Coleman adv., we'd make no objections, if not, hold them liable.

Of course, we were willing to pay for lino-composition—but not for space. He refused, "saying Coleman's was not lible and paid ad.

We told him the Sinclair matter was paid matter:paid for later.

E. J. Mantooh's reply

I see where Casper A. Ricks, for the purpose of advertising himself as a historian and by that to depreciate my standing as far as he can remember, has notified the public that I was once engaged in the whiskey business and made enough money to go to a law shool.

That is in a sense true.

(Edwin, politically, your assertion is right-other-wise-'tis wrong —R-)

When I was a boy I clerked for my uncle, Charles Kelty, who sold liquor by the quart. He finally closed out his business and I bought the whiskey he had on hand.

I put up a saloon, had a tenpin alley built and some race tracks for running horse races and commenced business with that combination. I opperated this business for a short time, probally two years, and learned very much more about whiskey, running a tenpin alley and horse racing than I knew when I commenced. However, I did not drink whiskey when a clerk for my uncle, nor when opperating the saloon, nor since that time, and concluded that this business would probally destroy me or depreciate my ability and responsibility to respond to those for whom I was then and might thereafter be responsible. I sold the business out and went to law school. When I returned from law school I found that my friends were running me for county attorney and not having an opponent I was duly elected.

About the first services I performed as prosecuting attorney and criminal lawyer was to prosecute Casper Ricks for disturbing religeous worship, and so far as I know he has never reformed, of which he is the best judge. After my services as county attorney ceased I engaged in the practice of both civil and criminal law and niece nobody except Casper A. Ricks has ever stated that my conduct as a crimilawer was such as to injure the morality and caracter of the youth of the country I prefer to let that question stand without further comment. E J. Mantooh

As I said in Oct. 15th. issue I then and now bear no malice and my comment is to show that about all lawyers will give what helps, and try to keep out what's againnst them.

THE FACTS

I think 'twas in 1878 while I was a member and clerk of The Lamberts Chapple Baptist Church that some young girls, I think now dead were being tried for singing some love songs, and a motion was made to exclue them; I arose and defen them, telling them that I often sung old time love songs to my babies and wife, and if they were excluded to exclude me-my wife also made a like assertion; a majority refused to exclude Old preacher Joiner, who led the exclusion faction came to where I sat with a large knife open in his hand, when I told him to stop his abuse, when some took him off. When tried your uncle Chaalie Kelty and several old and good church members were out only a few minuets when they returned a not guilty verdict

Your insinuation about reformation carries the impression that I was a caracter of bad reputation & is libleous. As a historian of court house and legal chicanery, I could and may later record it.

I'm anti, have never violated the pro-law! Have You?

RECEIVER IS ASKED FOR KU KLUX KLAN

Atlanta, Ga. Oct. 15. The Atlanta Constitution will say Tuesday that a receiver for the Ku Ku Klan is asked in a petition prerented Monday to Judge Samuel H. Sibley of the United States Circuit Court, who ordered the suit to be filed Tuesday.

The petition, filed C. T. Rice, who said he was a member of the klan, charges that Hiram W Evans imperial wizzard of the order, and other officials of the secret organization have exoended large sums of money in opposition to the candidacy of Gov Alfred E. Smith, Democratic Presidential nominee because of Smith's religeon

It it also alleged in the petition that Evans has diverted funds from the organization untill it has become insolvent despite the fact that it has collected more than $100,000,000 FROM its MEMBERS.

CARPETBAGGERS AND SCALLOWAGS OF 60'S

After Lee'ss surrender at Appotomac in April, 1865; while the veterans of the South were disfranchised northeners flocked to the south to fatten politica ly and financially by trying to put the negroes on a political and social plane of equality with their late masters. These were termed Carpet baggers. The SCALLOWAG was the southerner who joined and aided the carpet-baggers by joining the negro-spoiling-republicans.

The South and Democratic party are now cursed with many scallowags, who are aiding the republican-high-tariff-for-special-interestes-at the cost of the farmer, to defeat the democratic nominee for president; whose every political act has endeared him to the working women and men of N. Y.

They are useing the subterfuge he's wet. When a large number klux are boot-leg patrons, but will vote agaist Smith because he is a Catholic:-Showing that they, klux and mixed breed democrats prefer a plunder-bund-social-eqality-party of graft leader:—to a country of religeous freedom & honesty in office. All kno that the klux have put the catholic and negro on the same political exclusion plane and now the klux and democrat bolters have found their (political) social level. Liberty has no greater enemy than bigotry. There is nothing more blind than prejudice.

TAMMANY HALL

Houston, Tex. 10-20:—Tmomas Walt Gregory, Attorney General of the United States under in the Cabinet of President Wilson Saturday gave out the follow statement about Tammany Hall:

In view of the many irrreponsi- statements about the Tammany Society of New York City, I think that the following facts should be given to those who care to know the truth. For more than 100 years the Tammany Society which owns a club building in New York City with auditorium in it known as Tammany Hall (which is the reason why the organization is most frequently spoken of as "Tammany Hall") has constituted the democracy of the City of New York, and there is scarcely an an active democratic leader in that city who is not a member. Like most political organizations of a local natue, it has at times in its history fallen into bad hands, notably 60 years ago during the regime of Boss Tweed. At this time its officers with their places of birth and religeous affiliations are as follows John R. Voorhis, American born and Duten reform in religeon: father of council, Thomas Darlington, American born and a Presbyterian; secretary, Willis Holly, American born and a Presbyterian: treasurer, Wm. Clung to German Marks

When the will of a wealthy out-of-state man was filed with Assistant Attorney General Stubbs, of Maine, for assessment of taxes on financial interests of that state, an unusual clause was found in the will. That part of the document referred to 143,000,000,000,000 German marks which the man had bought during the war, and instructed the executor to retain the currency until it could be redeemed at a "reasonable price" rather than appraise it as practically worthless. The man bought the marks for about $6,000.

USE FELON'S GLANDS TO CURE MEN'S ILLS

Bar, Clergy and Medical Men Uphold Possibilities.

New York.—Time may not be far distant when the glands of murderers sentenced to the death chair in Sing Sing may be transplanted after the executions to patients in hospitals for the curing of certain ills.

Such is the consensus of representatives of the bench and bar, the clergy and the medical profession in Brooklyn, who were asked to comment on the case of "Buck" Kelly, San Francisco bandit with a record of at least three killings, who was hanged on May 11 in San Quentin prison.

Kelly's written consent having been obtained, vital glands were removed after the execution and transplanted to a patient in the University of California hospital who was suffering from toxic goiter.

Operation Successful.

The operation, according to Dr. L. S. Schmitt, dean of the hospital, was a complete success and justified itself by having fulfilled its purpose and by its contribution to medical science.

Now that such an operation has been successfully performed and has caused widespread interest among physicians and prison authorities, there are indications that many similar experiments may be tried to cure other maladies.

And so far as public opinion is concerned, nothing but commendation has been heard for Kelly in granting permission for the experiment and praise for the physicians who carried it out successfully in the interest of suffering humanity.

From the medical standpoint, Dr. Frank D. Jennings, chairman of the press reference committee of the Kings County Medical society, sounded a note of caution.

"It is never safe," he said, "to generalize from a single case, and even if the facts of the Kelly case are as reported it is too early yet for any one to say definitely just what the ultimate result will be, even so far as this operation is concerned, although now it is proclaimed as a success.

"The transplanting of glands itself is nothing new, although offhand I do not recall at the moment any cases in which they were transplanted from a dead person. However, I believe it would be assuming too much to conclude from this one operation that similar experiments may cure other ills. In most cases it has been found that glands that have been transplanted soon shrivel and wither away."

Execution Caused Sensation.

However, this may be, the execution of Kelly caused sensation after sensation. The execution itself was dramatic enough, but it was as nothing compared to the hue and cry that was raised when it was learned that a hurried autopsy had been performed and Kelly's brain and heart had been removed.

The warden of San Quentin and members of the state board of prison directors demanded to know on what authority the autopsy had been performed. The investigation disclosed that, in addition to these organs, other glands had been removed.

This aroused the father, mother, brother and sisters of Kelly. But their protests ceased when it was disclosed that Kelly himself had given permission for the operation.

The public reaction had resulted from a widespread belief that the glands had been bought by some rich person. This public outburst died down when it was learned that there had been no profiteering and that Kelly had permitted the experiment for the benefit of a human derelict in direst poverty and too weak to undergo the surgeon's knife for the toxic goiter with which he was afflicted.

The question which presented itself to the medical men was whether the glands could be utilized several hours after the execution. It was necessary to take them from the penitentiary to the hospital, a good two hours' ride away. The success of the ingratting answered this question in the affirmative.

But after his goiter had been cured the patient left the hospital and the physicians have been unable to trace him for observation purposes. Their only hope now lies in the possibility that he may turn up some day unexpectedly of his own volition.

Cyclist Goes 77 Miles in Hour for New Record

Linas-Monthlery Autodrome, France.—Traveling faster than a bicycle and man ever did before, Leon Vanderstuyft, veteran Belgian rider, motorpaced by a big machine, covered 122.771 kilometers, or nearly 77 miles, in one hour. The former record was 120.958 kilometers made by Jean Brunier at the same autodrome on November 2, 1925.

No European express train at any stage of its journey reaches such a speed as Vanderstuyft made on his bicycle.

Dorothy's Mother Proves Claim

Children don't ordinarily take to medicines but here's one that all of them love. Perhaps it shouldn't be called a medicine at all. It's more like a rich, concentrated food. It's pure, wholesome, sweet to the taste and sweet in your child's little stomach. It builds up and strengthens weak, puny, underweight children, makes them eat heartily, brings the roses back to their cheeks, makes them playful, energetic, full of life. And no bilious, headachy, constipated, feverish, fretful baby or child ever failed to respond to the gentle influence of California Fig Syrup on their little bowels. It starts lazy bowels quick, cleans them out thoroughly, tones and strengthens them so they continue to act normally, of their own accord.

Millions of mothers know about California Fig Syrup from experience. A Western mother, Mrs. J. G. Moore, 119 Cliff Ave., San Antonio, Texas, says: "California Fig Syrup is certainly all that's claimed for it. I have proved that with my little Dorothy. She was a bottle baby and very delicate. Her bowels were weak. I started her on Fig Syrup when she was a few months old and it regulated her, quick. I have used it with her ever since for colds and every little set-back and her wonderful condition tells better than words how it helps."

Don't be imposed on. See that the Fig Syrup you buy bears the name, "California" so you'll get the genuine, famous for 50 years.

The Highroad

Barnard M. Baruch, discussing success, said at a luncheon in New York:

"Julius Rosenwald, the mail order king, imputes his success to luck. I would impute it to pluck, or whatever the quality is that makes a man fight on the harder, the more he is knocked down and kicked about."

Mr. Baruch paused a moment; then he said impressively:

"Failure is the highroad to success."

Electrical Contractor Gives Advice to Others

"I think Milks Emulsion should be advertised all over the world, so as to help all of the sick.

"In 1912 I had a great deal of trouble with my stomach and bowels. For several years I tried everything that I saw advertised, but I kept getting worse all the time. I got so bad that I was in bed for three months in 1916. While in Philadelphia in 1917 I happened to see one of your ads. I had tried everything that I thought was any good, but concluded to give Milks Emulsion a trial. It could not do any worse than the rest.

"To my surprise it regulated my bowels and I found I did not suffer any more after eating and had no pain at all. I continued the use of Milks Emulsion for six months, until I was in fine health and have been for the past eight years. When I think of the way I suffered night and day for six years, I feel that every person with stomach and bowel trouble should know about Milks Emulsion." Yours truly, S. B. Touches that Add Style to Dresses
By MAE MARTIN

It's amazing to see how faded, out-of-style dresses can be transformed by a few buttons, a little braid and the quick magic of home dyeing or tinting. You don't need any experience to tint or dye successfully if you are sure to use true, fadeless Diamond Dyes. Tinting with them is easy as bluing, and dyeing takes just a little more time to "set" the colors. They never give things that re-dyed look which comes from using inferior dyes. Insist on Diamond Dyes and save disappointment. Over 20 million packages used a year.

My new 64-page illustrated book, "Color Craft," gives hundreds of money-saving hints for renewing clothes and draperies. It's Free. Write for it, now, to Mae Martin, Dept. G-143, Diamond Dyes, Burlington Vermont.

FORTUNE IN PEARLS STOLEN FROM TOMBS

Burial Places of Imperial Manchus Desecrated.

Peking.—At least 65 pounds of large pearls of the finest luster were looted from the imperial Manchu tombs at Tung Ling, according to a report which the Peking Chamber of Commerce has made to the local military authorities.

Of this total there are now 173 fine pearls in possession of Peking curio and jewel merchants, and these are to be given to the Chamber of Commerce president at once for safe keeping until the Nanking government decides what is to be done with them. They may be returned to the desecrated tombs or they may be sold for the benefit of the colony of 50,000 Manchus who live around the tombs and who now are destitute.

The lowest estimate of the value of the loot from the tomb is $17,000,000, and from this minimum the estimates run clear up to $50,000,000.

As yet no trace has been found of the two "jade melons" which were buried in the coffin of the famous Empress Dowager of Boxer days, Tsu Hsi. These "jade melons" were globular pieces of the finest apple-green jade, each about the size of an average cantaloupe. They were both richly encrusted with inlaid diamonds and emeralds of great size, and they rank among the most valuable pieces of jewelry in the world.

Already myth and superstition are playing their part in the tales told about the violation of the Manchu tombs by former northern troops who, at the time of the outrage, had "gone over" to the Nationalists.

An Imperial Looter.

Many of the "old style" residents of Peking, the Chinese of classical culture, assert that while death should be meted out to the looters of the tomb of the Empress Dowager, no punishment should be inflicted upon those who were concerned only in the looting of the tomb of the Emperor Chien Lung.

Chien Lung, who was the Louis XIV of China and who enjoyed the longest and most illustrious reign of any Chinese emperor, is said to have looted the tombs of the Mings, who preceded the Manchus as imperial rulers. The looting of Chien Lung's tomb is, therefore, declared to be merely "heavenly justice" manifesting itself after the lapse of more than a century and a half.

History affords no proof of the charge that Chien Lung violated the Ming tombs, nor does the present condition of these magnificent mausolea support the story of his guilt, but for many decades it has been rumored that many of Chien Lung's treasures and jewels were secretly taken from the tombs of the dynasty which preceded his own.

The common people of Peking now tell, with bated breath, how a mysterious sign of heavenly displeasure saved from violation the tomb of Kang Hsi, the emperor who ruled for nearly 60 years from the middle of the Seventeenth century to the early years of the Eighteenth.

Carried "Credentials."

The tale goes that after looting the tomb of the Empress Dowager and that of Chien Lung the thieves started to open the tomb of Kang Hsi and were startled when a spring of muddy water, "the color of imperial yellow," gushed forth. Within a few minutes the thieves found themselves ankle deep in this mysterious flood, and then they fled in terror.

Mr. Liu Jen-jui, the man appointed by Nanking to make an investigation of the looted mausolea, reports that the tombs underwent a second looting by a man named Sung Yuming.

This person Sung, soon after the news of the looting got abroad, appeared at the Tung Ling tombs carrying what looked like a letter of appointment and credentials qualifying him as "custodian for the Nanking government of the Tung Ling tombs."

Sung's credentials were not questioned at first, and he hastened to remove from the tombs 242 bronze idols and ten fine picture scrolls from the brush of Emperor Chein Lung himself.

Most of the bronze idols have been found by the Peking police, but the invaluable scrolls have disappeared, as has the much-sought Sung Yuming.

Bogus Generals Collect Tribute From Chinese

Peking.—Bogus army commanders have been causing the authorities trouble of late in several parts of China. In one or two instances a sort of district civil war was on the verge of breaking out when the regular army officers heard of the fraud.

The "general" and his staff, while the recruiting progresses, try to convince the people that they are about to be attacked and that they must put up money for their own defense. Some of these self-styled generals carry forged documents of appointment as commanders in chief, and have been operating in such numbers that Gen. Chang Yin-Wu emergency commandant of the Peking district, has organized a special department to deal with them.

Active Cigar Butt

When a lighted cigar butt was tossed out of an eight-story window in a Pittsburgh building it first struck an awning over a sixth-floor window. From there it bounced to a fifth floor awning, thence to a second-floor awning and to the ground, leaving enough ashes to set fire to each one of the three drapings.

To become familiar with danger makes danger more agreeable, but does not lengthen the chances of death.

WHAT A DOCTOR KNOWS ABOUT CONSTIPATION

There IS a way of overcoming the tendency to constipation. And here is how you can PROVE it.

The next time your bowels need any assistance, don't take the first laxative that comes to mind. Take one the druggist can assure you is made with CASCARA. Just as effective as using force, and it's good for the system. Indeed, it helps make good blood. For cascara is nothing but the bark of a tree. The Indians chew this bark, and live to an old age without a day's sickness.

What happens when you cascarize the bowels? They will usually function well for SEVERAL DAYS. One more dose—no larger, and perhaps smaller than the first—and the bowels function of their own accord for a still longer time. Until you don't feel the need of any aid of any sort for weeks-on-end.

So, the only habit you get from cascara is that of natural and normal regularity. How different from things one must usually repeat on the morrow! Cascara is the ideal laxative; and the familiar little candy Cascaret is doubtless its ideal form. Children beg for these tasty tablets, and many men and women wouldn't think of taking ANYTHING else for the purpose. And EVERY drugstore has them.

When your Children Cry for It

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctors' word for that! It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.

Chapel Burial Place of Headsman's Victims

The Royal chapel of St. Peter-and-Vincula, in the Tower, in London, was consecrated early in the Twelfth century though but little of the original fabric remains. The chapel is interesting as being the burial place of those persons eminent enough to have been accorded the "privilege" of being executed within the Tower walls. Here, says Stow: "There lyeth before the high altar two dukes between two queens, to wit, the duke of Somerset and the duke of Northumberland between Queen Anne (Boleyn) and Queen Katherine (Howard)—all four beheaded."

Here also are buried Lady Jane Grey and Lord Guilford Dudley, the duke of Mommouth, and the Scottish lords Kilmarnock, Balmerino, and Lovat, beheaded for their share in the rebellion of 1745.

54,624,976 IN U. S. ADHERE TO CHURCH

Census in 1926 Shows Gain in Membership.

Washington.—There were 213 religious bodies and denominations in the United States during 1926, with 54,624,976 members, organized in 231,983 churches, parishes and congregations.

The census bureau has just reported these statistics and compared them with its finding ten years ago—for 1916—of 200 religious denominations, with 41,926,854 members and 226,718 local organizations.

While the number of religious denominations increased during the decade, the report showed that 19 religious bodies recorded in 1916 had passed out of existence or become absorbed with other denominations, while 32 new denominations had been created or arose from divisions in existing denominations.

For 1926, expenditures reported by all religious bodies amounted to $814,371,529, while the value of church buildings and other property was $3,842,577,133. In 1916 the reported church expenditures amounted to $328,809,999 and church property was valued at $1,676,600,582.

By far the largest single religious body reporting was that of the Roman Catholic church, credited with 18,605,000 members in 1926, compared with 15,721,815 in 1916. The largest single Protestant denomination and third largest denomination was the Methodist Episcopal church with 4,087,357 members in 1926 and 3,717,785 in 1916. The second largest was the Jewish congregations, which reported 4,087,357 members in 1926, a very large gain over the membership of 357,135 reported by Jewish congregations in 1916. The fourth largest religious body was that of Southern Baptists, which had 3,524,378 members in 1926 and 2,708,870 in 1916. And the Negro Baptists came fifth with 3,196,623 in 1926 and 2,938,579 in 1916.

Among other large denominations with memberships for 1926 and 1916 were: Northern Baptists, 1,289,966 and 1,244,705; Congregational church, 881,696 and 809,236; Disciples of Christ, 1,377,595 and 1,226,028; United Lutheran Church in America, 1,214,340 and 763,596; Evangelical Lutheran Synodical Conference of America, 1,292,620; Methodist Episcopal church, South, 2,487,694 and 2,114,479; Presbyterian church in the United States of America, 1,894,030 and 1,625,817, and Protestant Episcopal church, 1,859,026 and 1,092,821.

45 States Building 28,538 Miles of Road

Washington.—Forty-five state highway departments will construct 28,538 miles of good roads during 1928, the American Road Builders' association stated. Both states and counties are now in the midst of the most elaborate road construction program in history, it is stated.

Three states have not reported their programs. They are Connecticut, Virginia and West Virginia. It is thought that these three states will add at least 1,000 miles to the year's state highway program.

Expenditures during the year will total approximately $1,307,821,000 in the 46 states reporting their estimated appropriations for both county and state work. Connecticut and West Virginia did not report. The total expenditures during 1927 for all states was $1,123,607,055, or $184,216,661 less than will be expended in 46 states during 1928.

The association pointed out that the cost of good roads this year will be less than eight-tenths of one cent for each mile traveled by motor vehicles and that a good road saves from two to three cents per mile in cost of vehicle operation.

Automatic Gear Shift Success in Britain

London.—The Daily Mail says that a "motoring development of first-rate importance," in the form of an automatic gear-shifting device, has been adopted by one of the leading British manufacturers after successful tests over 50,000 miles.

By this device a driver moves a pointer on a quadrant on his steering wheel to the desired speed designation, steps on a pedal and the gear changes "automatically, smoothly and silently."

New Alibi

New York.—Herman Seyerowitz says his horse thinks red is green and green is red. That's the excuse he gave in court for passing a traffic signal. His sentence was suspended on condition that he blindfold the horse.

Organist Composes Air for His Own Burial

Hereford, England.—A song which he had himself prepared for his funeral was sung when Dr. F. E. Gladstone was buried in Belmont abbey, near here.

Four monks whom Doctor Gladstone had specially trained chanted "In Paradisum," a composition which he had prepared for this occasion at the interment service. A cousin of the great Victorian statesman, Doctor Gladstone had been organist at the Llandaff, Chichester, and Norwich cathedrals.

POULTRY

HOUSE PULLETS EARLY IN FALL

The mistake is often made of allowing the pullets to remain upon the growing range too long. If the birds are healthy and all other conditions are correct, there is no reason why they should not be removed to the laying houses just as soon as they reach maturity.

Flocks hatched in March or earlier are ready for the permanent quarters after midsummer. If we leave them on the range too long, they will start laying, and the result is that a later removal to the laying house will stop production or slow it up. One of the surest ways to bring on a premature molt is the removal of pullets, already laying, to new quarters.

We naturally expect pullets, which start production in the summer, to have a late molt, but it is a serious matter when this molt comes on two months before we ought to expect it. I believe we should hatch the pullets at a time that will bring them to maturity at just the time we want them to start laying, says a writer in the Indiana Farmers' Guide. At any rate, the mature birds should not be left on the range after they are ready to start laying. Leghorns, and other egg breeds, should be ready for housing at five months of age, while the large breeds need another month to reach maturity.

It is a good plan to start feeding the egg mash at about the time the birds reach maturity. We should not feed too heavily of egg-making mash until they are mature. It is a mistake to force early production at the expense of size. Immature pullets lay small eggs and that is not a desirable condition.

Clean up the houses and be ready for the pullets just as early as you begin to find eggs about the range. House them at this time and you will find it will make a good deal of difference in the production of the flock during the fall and winter.

Supply Needed Minerals to Aid Egg Production

It has been estimated that the shell of an average egg is 8 per cent of the egg, and that a hen with a yearly production of 160 eggs requires 1.6 pounds of minerals to cover her egg production, besides what she needs in the line of mineral matter for the upkeep of her own body. It is the lack of this mineral matter that causes a hen to start the egg-eating, or the feather-picking habits. Both of these vices are due to a large extent, to a deficiency in the ration of some element that the fowls are craving.

Keeping oyster shell before the hens continually helps to supply minerals to a considerable extent. Fresh bones run through a bone grinder supply much needed elements. In some towns bones may be obtained from the local butcher shops.

In Ohio a good formula for supplying the mineral matter to the hens' ration has been worked out. This consists of 60 per cent finely ground bone meal, 20 per cent finely ground limestone and 20 per cent salt. This is thoroughly mixed, and 4 per cent is added to the mash in place of meat scraps. If less than 10 per cent of meat scraps is used both the mineral ration and the meat scraps may be included in the mash.

Poultry Items

Sweet or sour milk seems to give equally good results in chick feeding.

Colds and roup are preventable diseases. If we remove the causes the diseases will not occur.

* * *

Watch for the pullets that lay early, and mark them. They make the high producers—the ones to get next spring's hatching eggs from.

* * *

A chicken may now be hatched by electricity, raised and grown with an electric brooder and electric light, and finally cooked for your table by the same energy.

The vitality and vigor of the stock must be conserved. If one breeds from weak and diseased stock there will be constant trouble with colds and roup.

* * *

Leghorn pullets should not begin to lay until they are from five to six months old. General purpose breeds take about a month longer.

* * *

Carbolineum, creosote, or crude carbolic acid make the best spray material to use in poultry houses to keep down red mites.

* * *

Although it may seem that the birds are foraging an adequate food supply during the summer, their ration is often incomplete, and is very frequent-short in protein. Feeds rich in this material are not always grown on the farm, and is a direct result of the deficiency.

* * *

Geese are the best grazers of all poultry. A large part of their diet after the first four weeks is composed of green feed. For this reason they cannot be raised successfully unless feed of this kind is furnished.

IMPORTANT TO MOTHERS OF UNDERWEIGHT CHILDREN

"Two Tablespoons of Karo in a Glass of Milk doubles its Food Value"!

THIS statement is made by one of America's greatest child specialists.

"Karo", says this physician, "is not only a delicious sweet, but the ideal food for the underweight child. Karo can be added to the diet without spoiling the appetite for other foods—and it improves the taste of milk."

Karo has a high energy value—there are 120 calories per ounce in it—almost twice the energy value of eggs and lean beef, weight for weight.

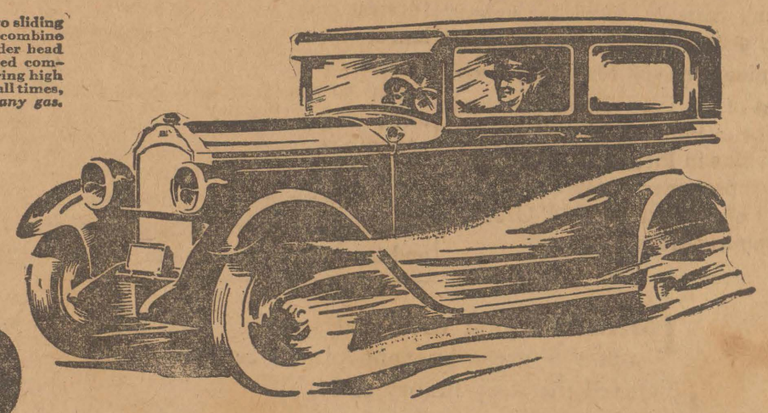

Further—Karo is easily digested—giving children muscular energy immediately.

Serve the kiddies plenty of Karo in milk, on cereals, on sliced bread—and watch their weight improve.

Economy—compare Karo, pound for pound, with the price of other staple foods. Isn't Karo economical?

OFFICIAL BIGOTRY

G. O. P. Committee Backs Mrs. Willebrandt's Appeals to Religious Hatred.

Despite the indignant protests of numerous Republican newspapers throughout the country, the Republican National Committee has officially sanctioned the campaign of bigotry and villification being waged by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant Attorney General.

Although several United States Senators have demanded her removal from office, and the Republican press, fearing an "American reaction" to her un-American appeal to religious intolerance, continues to insist that she be "muzzled," Herbert Hoover indicates by his silence that he approves the action of his campaign managers.

DMIRAL COONTZ, METHODIST AND MASON, TO AID SMITH

HANNIBAL, Mo.—Admiral Robert . Coontz, retired, former Commander in Chief of the United States fleet has returned to his home here after summer in Europe, to work actively as speaker in his district in behalf of Governor Smith. The admiral is a Methodist and a Mason.

W.C.T.U. Executive, A Republican and Baptist, for Smith

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Not all Southern Drys are so naively credulous that they allow themselves to be duped by the furtive libels conceived by the instigators of the "whispering campaign."

Among influential prohibitionists who are working actively for the election of Governor Smith is Mrs. Mabel Jones West of this city, a member of the State Executive Committee of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Declaring in a public statement that "Smith is a better prohibitionist than Hoover," Mrs. West has appealed to all Alabama women "not to be deceived by paid Republican propaganda."

Mrs. West is an active worker in the Baptist church. Until this year she has been a Republican.

RALEIGH, N. C.—A vigorous campaign for the election of Gov. Smith is being made throughout North Carolina by Governor A. W. McLean. Attacking religious intolerance, he said:

"I am ready to defend the right of Governor Smith and every other man or woman, whether Catholic or Protestant, to worship God in his own way.

"I am for Gov. Smith because I believe he is in every way qualified to fill the office of President."

CHURCH DECRIES BIGOTRY

The Rev. Dr. Hugh K. Walker, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, is censored in an editorial in this week's Presbyterian, national church paper, for his call upon Presbyterians to support Hoover. His church position gives him no right to give political advice, the editorial states.

What Borah Told the Senate About Hoover

Panic stricken over the imminent loss of all the States which have had the opportunity to see and hear Governor Smith, the Republican National Committee has cancelled Senator Borah's scheduled Eastern speeches so that he can devote his whole time in a desperate effort to stem the Smith tide in the West.

Since the campaign speeches of this high-powered Republican spellbinder are purely "political," he, of course, will not divulge his own personal feelings and opinions. Those who hear him, however, might be interested in the Senator's real estimate of Herbert Hoover, as gleaned from his own utterances in the Senate.

In a scathing arraignment of the former Food Administrator after the war, Senator Borah said:

"Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one individual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people."

Declaring that Hoover had permitted disgraceful profiteering by the meat packers, and charging him with "violation of the most fundamental principles of our Constitution," Senator Borah exclaimed:

> CONGRESSMAN CHARLES BRAND, Republican of Ohio, asserted in the Senate on March 13, 1928:
> "Mr. Hoover has been the supreme opponent of agricultural prosperity for the past ten years. . . . If Mr. Hoover is elected President of the United States . . . . agriculture is doomed to eight more years of misery."

"No one with such a perverted sense of decency ought to be entrusted with unlimited power to spend $100,000,000."

The water power interests (as well as the meat packers) are in favor of giving Mr. Hoover as much authority as possible. But if what Senator Borah told the Senate is true, how can he ask thinking voters to place Mr. Hoover in a position to control, directly or indirectly, all the vast resources of the United States Government?

> SENATOR PETER NORBECK, Republican, of South Dakota, said in the Senate on April 20, 1928:
> "I have been here for seven years while Mr. Hoover has been Secretary of Commerce, and he is the one man who has never raised his voice against agricultural inequality . . . He should never be elected President."

> SENATOR GERALD P. NYE, Republican, of North Dakota, said on June 11, 1928:
> "This man Hoover, whom some are trying to drive down our throats, believes that agriculture is improving: if agriculture is improving, it is dying from improvement."

> SENATOR CHARLES CURTIS, Republican candidate for Vice President, referring to Herbert Hoover, on June 11, 1928, declared:
> "The convention cannot afford to nominate as the head of the ticket, any one for whom the party will be on the defensive from the day he is named until the polls close on election day."

SMITH SEEN AS TRUE CHAMPION OF TEMPERANCE

Sheppard and Barkley, Authors of 18th Amendment, Among His Campaign Speakers.

"HE WILL ENFORCE LAW AND END CORRUPTION"

Noted Drys Throughout Country Repudiate "Hoover and Hypocrisy"— Many Working Actively for Governor's Election.

Exposing the irresponsibility and hypocrisy of attacks upon Governor Smith ostensibly because of his stand on prohibition, hundreds of the country's most notable Drys are openly avowing their support of the Democratic candidate.

These sincere men and women, many of whom have been actively identified for many years with the prohibition cause, are convinced that the Governor's election is the only hope of ending the carnival of crime, corruption and debauchery which has characterized the Republican mal-enforcement of the Volstead law.

Senator Morris Sheppard

Most impressive of the declarations of loyalty to Governor Smith, so far as prohibition is concerned, is that of Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, one of the authors of the Eighteenth Amendment. An able, honest and life-long Dry, he is regarded as one of the foremost advocates of prohibition in America.

As a campaign speaker in behalf of Governor Smith's candidacy, Senator Sheppard is expressing in no half-hearted manner his belief that a vote against Hoover is a vote against lawlessness and intemperance.

Senator Alben W. Barkley

The other co-author of the Eighteenth Amendment, Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, has also volunteered to assist actively in the Smith campaign. He is chairman of the Governor's campaign committee in Kentucky, and a member of the National Advisory Committee. Senator Barkley has long been engaged as a prohibition speaker.

Another noted Dry who has taken the stump for Smith is Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who has described himself as being "for prohibition before some of these preachers knew the meaning of the word."

Pointing out Governor Smith's record of achievement, his reputation for flawless honesty and courage, these leaders remind their followers that he has promised to "execute to the very limit the pledge of our platform 'to make an honest endeavor to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment.'"

Senator Carter Glass

They recall that he also said: "The corruption of enforcement activities which caused a former Republican Prohibition Administrator to state that three-fourths of the dry agents were political ward heelers named by politicians without regard to Civil Service laws, and that Prohibition is the 'new political pork barrel,' I will ruthlessly stamp out. Such conditions will not and cannot exist under any Administration presided over by me."

They are confident that the promise will be kept if Smith is elected. And modification, should Congress decide upon such a course is certainly preferable, they say, to a continuance of Republican nullification.

Josephus Daniels

Among other prominent figures noted for their prohibition activities, who have declared for Gov. Smith, are Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy; Gov. Dan Moody of Texas; Magnus Johnson, former Progressive Senator from Minnesota; Senator Walter F. George of Georgia; Henry C. Stuart, former Governor of Virginia; Judge W. B. Swaney of Tennessee, and Senator Cole Blease of South Carolina.

Well-known women prominently identified with the Dry cause, who are now supporting Governor Smith, include Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross, former Governor of Wyoming; Emily Newell Blair, former Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee; Mrs. John Harlan Amen, daughter of President Cleveland; Mrs. Harry Harvey Thomas, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs, and Mrs. B. S. Saunders, former president of the League of Women Voters in Mississippi.

IMAGINE your tired body, resting each night upon a great buoyant pillow and you have pictured the sleep luxury of Sealys.

Millions of long, snowy fibres of cotton, marvelously interwoven by the Sealy air-weave process, go into the making of this famous mattress.

Come to our mattress department and see the Sealy. Select from many handsome patterns the ticking that will suit your taste. You will find all bed sizes in this special showing. The price is the minimum for a lifetime of sleep comfort—begin it now.

For deep restful Sleep

The Sealy mattress

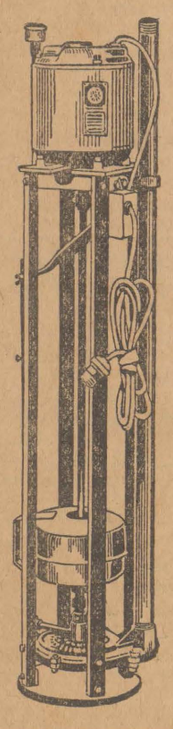

From snowy cotton fields to you—a great, buoyant mattress of lasting resiliency.
