Friday Afternoon.

Jan 2, 1941

Dear Home folks:

Just recieved your letter yesterday and the peanuts and shirt today. I was glad to learn that you all were O.K, I hope this will find you all well, as for me my Cold is much better now, if I Can just keep from Taking any more bad Cold.

I sure do thank you very much for the peanuts and shirt, but I guess I will send the shirt back to you as they have stoped us from wareing white shirts, so I wont need the white shirts up here.

Guess you all are having some real Cold weather now as we are having the Coldest weather we have had. I think the tempeture got down to about zero, but we haven't had any rain. I hope you all can have some dry weather now.

I got a letter from Lillie & Everette yesterday, she said she was taking shots from the Dr now and would have to take them about three weeks her nerves are in bad shape.

I would have like to seen Emett Ramsey, was he by his self, and how long did he stay? guess they came to see his wife's folks.

Mama: how much did you have to pay on those tax for Jan 1. st? how much are you suppose to pay on that at the bank in Jan? I am sending the money I owe you and a little to go on those tax. I would send more but I like to keep enough money to come home on if something were to happen and you were to call me to come.

Say did you ever find that picture I look for in my trunk? it may be in the Cedar Chest. I would like for you to send me my straight razor if you can find it, I think it is in the trunk somewhere. oh yes I got a nice box of stationary from Dorthy and Toby after I got back up here.

Well I will have spent four (4) month's in the Army tomorrow Jan 3. Guess I will start drawing $30. thirty dollars a month, that will help out some. Ellis have you gathered the rest of the corn? hope you have. Dennerd I Guess you are getting ready to go back to school. Emma D. have you had asthma anymore? hope not. You all take care of yourselves (over) and soon. Love, Lenard.

Saturday morn.

P.S. as I did not get this in the mail yesterday, we got a two or three inch snow here last night. I sure was suprised to see every thing so white with snow this morning sure hope it doesn't snow down there but guess you will get rain instead. you all write me as soon as you get this.

Lenard.
