Monday night.
Sept 14, 1914.

Dear Home folks:

Just a line as I told you I would write before I moved, Guess we will leave tomorrow, (Tuesday) hope this will find you all well, I don't feel very good with this old bad Cold. I went to Dallas again last Saturday eve. Came back up here Sun night. Lillie and them were O.K. except bad Colds, but I think Emma wrote you all while I was there. I will send you my new address as soon as I get up there. I hope Emma makes good at the telephone Company. Are you all still having a lot of rain? hope not. I have just got one card from Dorthey since I was down there. Did you all get the package? hope so. Guess my Cow has a Calf by now. Have you all got to pick any Cotton yet? how is Dorthey and family? OK I hope. Say Ellis have you worked the Colt any yet? Answer soon

Love, Lenard.
