Houston Texas
May 20, 1944.

Dear Mrs. Ramsey:

I got your Card The other Day Surely was glad to hear from you all. But I surely am sorry to hear about your Crops. That surely is awful about so much rain. And I guess it is still raining for it is here. A storm is on here now. I hope it doesn't get too bad.

We have been planning to come up there. But it seems like We can't ever get off. Loyd's brothers tires ain't any good and I hate to come on the bus.

If you don't mind, I am sending you the key to the house. When you get time. You can go down there and see about my things. See if the rats have got into those books in the back room. There has been a lot of people in there looking at the place. Tell Ellice He can look at Loyds tools and see if there has been any taken. I guess he knows just about what he had. They are in the dining room. If you don't mind, will you please take my shirts out of the Chest of drawers and spread them out on the bed. I am afraid if they stay folded up like that so long that they will rot at the creases.

I hate to ask so much of you all but I don't know when ever I will get to come and see about them. Loyd is in Madison Wisconsin now. Mona and I are going up there 2 weeks from to day. That will be the 3rd of June. It has been so long since we saw him till we can't hardly wait till school is out. A lot of people think we are foolish to spend every thing we have to go up there but after all, that is why I married him. Was because I loved him and wanted to be with him. I am going to stay with him as much as I can while he is still on this side for if he has to go across. I can't see him at all and I might not ever.

Well, I hope that is not too much trouble for you all. There is no hurry. You can just go down there when you have time. You can look the house back up and just keep the key for we caught it when we come. We have decided not to sell the place at all. I didn't much want to any way.

Write soon.

Your friends
