Dear Mama, Ellis, Dennard & Leonard,

How are you all and the crop, hog and tomatoes? And Mama has not let them take you to the army yet has she Ellis? Sure enough I don't think they will take you because after all they are raving about raising more food and all that. But after today you don't know what to expect. This morning they started blowing the sirens about a quarter of three and kept it up for about 15 minutes. Everything was pretty quiet at the telephone office though. And just a few of the stores were closed. Looks like they made a pretty good start.

Haven't seen Lillie since you were here Leonard but I sent the camera back by Everett. Guess you all will be seeing them next week sometime.

Haven't had a Chance to have those films reprinted but I will just the first Chance.

Ellis I would have sent your but of 22 shells only I Forgot to and they Cost 50 cents a box so I will get one more box or two more maybe.

Guess all of your Kids will be home next week if nothing happens mama except me. I am broke and with this invasion on will will Probably be busier than ever.

Tell Dorothy I think she owes me a letter and ask her what the thinks of the pictures and does she want the negatives when I get the reprints made for you all?

Guess I will hit the hay so answer soon all of you.

Love,
Emma Dean
