FORWARD -

Another school year passes; another senior class moves on. Behind them are left the teachers and their fellow students, but they take with them the memories of many happy days.

That this year with its joys and sorrows shall not be forgotten, that our companionships and adventures shall not be without some tangible evidence, we have conceived and gathered together in words and pictures reminders of those who have played their part in our school: the faculty, students, friends, and organizations.

With the hope that this book will become a cherished possession of your high school days, we present to you the 1945 FANG.

To A Gallant Lady

Perhaps you haven't set the world afire,
Or stood before great potentates and kings;
But you have opened doors, and stirred desire
In questing youth to try the mind's bright wings.

You may not win applause for having wrought
Some wondrous thing with pen or brush or clay,
But countless boys and girls whom you have taught
Have taller grown because you passed this way.

The one small candle that you lit has shone
As steadfast as a mighty beacon light;
The fertile seeds of knowledge you have sown
Have borne abundant harvest--rich and white.

Dear Philip
Well Philip

To Mrs. Maude Newman, who has won the respect and admiration of the entire student body, the Annual Staff has the honor and privilege of dedicating this 1945 edition of The Fang.

Dear Philip

You are really a swell boy.
Good luck always.

SENIORS OF 1945

The Class of 1945, numbering some 130 students, has played an important role in Lufkin Senior High School this past year. They have taken part in many and various activities. This is proven by the fact that a number of the boys lettered two years in football and in basketball; seventeen were members of the Honor Society; the Editor of the Fang and five members of the staff were seniors as were the Editor of the Panther Growls and several members of the staff; quite a few were in the Follies of 45; and all but one of the Student Council officers for this year were seniors.

JUNIORS OF 1945

This year the Junior Class had 204 members. As usual our students participated in a large part of the school activities. Twelve of the boys lettered in football; eleven girls went out for basketball; nine students were members of the Honor Society; the second semester the vice president of the Student Council was a Junior. The Junior boys won the intramural basketball games. The Juniors played a major role in the Follies of 45.

The Junior Class has indeed had a happy year and are looking forward to another happy year as upper classmen.

THE SMOKESTACK

Day in, day out,
Smoke unfurls from it;
Below, if we could see,
Would be a burning pit.
The smoke from it
Sails to the skies;
Up there soft and fluffy
it lies.
A faithful call to the lumberjack
Is this old smokestack;
Big and proud it stands,
Around it so many rivited

W. R. Beaumier

TO THE PANTHERS OF 1944-1945:

It has been my distinct pleasure to follow you through the past season in football and basketball, as I have other Panther teams the last four years. As a fan I want to compliment you and your coaches on the fact that you always play to win, but always played clean and with credit to yourselves and to your school. It has often been said that the Panthers "do not know how to lose", and I believe this is the secret of your success. When the odds were against you in a game you merely fought a little harder, and when the final whistle blew you were still trying. Carry this same spirit into your community activities, and into the armed services of your country, as have the Panthers before you. With such spirit we CANNOT lose whether it be in war or in community progress.

Best of luck, now and always.
