SOUTHERN PINES 1948

FOREWORD

Fellow students,

These pages are an outline--in a small way--of your school life in 1947-48.

We hope you will fill in the gaps with personal memories and make this edition of Southern Pines your favorite book.

Your Staff

DEDICATION

This year the seniors and members of the annual staff wish to dedicate our annual to a man who is well-known and appreciated by the students of D. H. S. He has helped the school in various ways, but he has never been thanked publicly by the student body.

Due to his generosity, our school has an athletic field, a well equipped cafeteria, a sealed gym, a new campus fence and numerous other improvements that have done more than words can ever express to make our school a more enjoyable and pleasing place.

We wish, in behalf of the student body, to show our gratitude by dedicating our 1948 Southern Pines to MR. H. G. TEMPLE.

ADMINISTRATION

Copied from an original at The History Center. www.TheHistoryCenterOnline.com

The end of another great school year is fast approaching, and I am wondering what we have accomplished.

Many things learned in high school will soon be forgotten, but we hope you have learned the underlying principles of life, and that as you grow older, these principles will also grow.

In trying to teach you how to live, we hope that you will ever be conscious of:

"For when the One Great Scorer comes to mark against your name,
He writes--not that you won or lost--but how you played the game."

Juniors of 1948

With Rose Ellen Saxton as President, Blant Ferguson as Vice-president, Marion Edwards as Secretary, and Mary Sue George as Treasurer, these juniors have completed a successful year.

They have had the honor of having their candidate win the coveted title of Queen of the Halloween Carnival. Like most junior classes they have tried to do everything just a little better than the seniors, and in some things they have succeeded.

Next year, they will move up to the exalted rank of seniors, and we seniors of '48 wish them a happy and successful year.

Freshmen of 1948

With Bill Ferguson as President, Avery Jones as Vice-President, Wanda Torbert as Secretary, and Alfred Landrum as Reporter, the freshmen of '47-'48 have made their debut into high school.

They have become accustomed to the high school regulations, the constant changing from room to room with each class, and less subjects to contend with, and have taken them all in their stride.

They are looking forward to next year when they will be sophomores and can laugh at the perplexity of the next class of bewildered freshmen.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Henry Temple often remarked that, in his opinion, "gone" was the saddest word in the English language.

We know how very true were his words--because now he is gone.

Mr. Temple was loved as few men have ever been loved. He was loved because he was kind, because he was sympathetic and generous and possessed of so great a heart. He was loved because he loved those around him regardless of their station in life, regardless of their race, their color, or their creed.

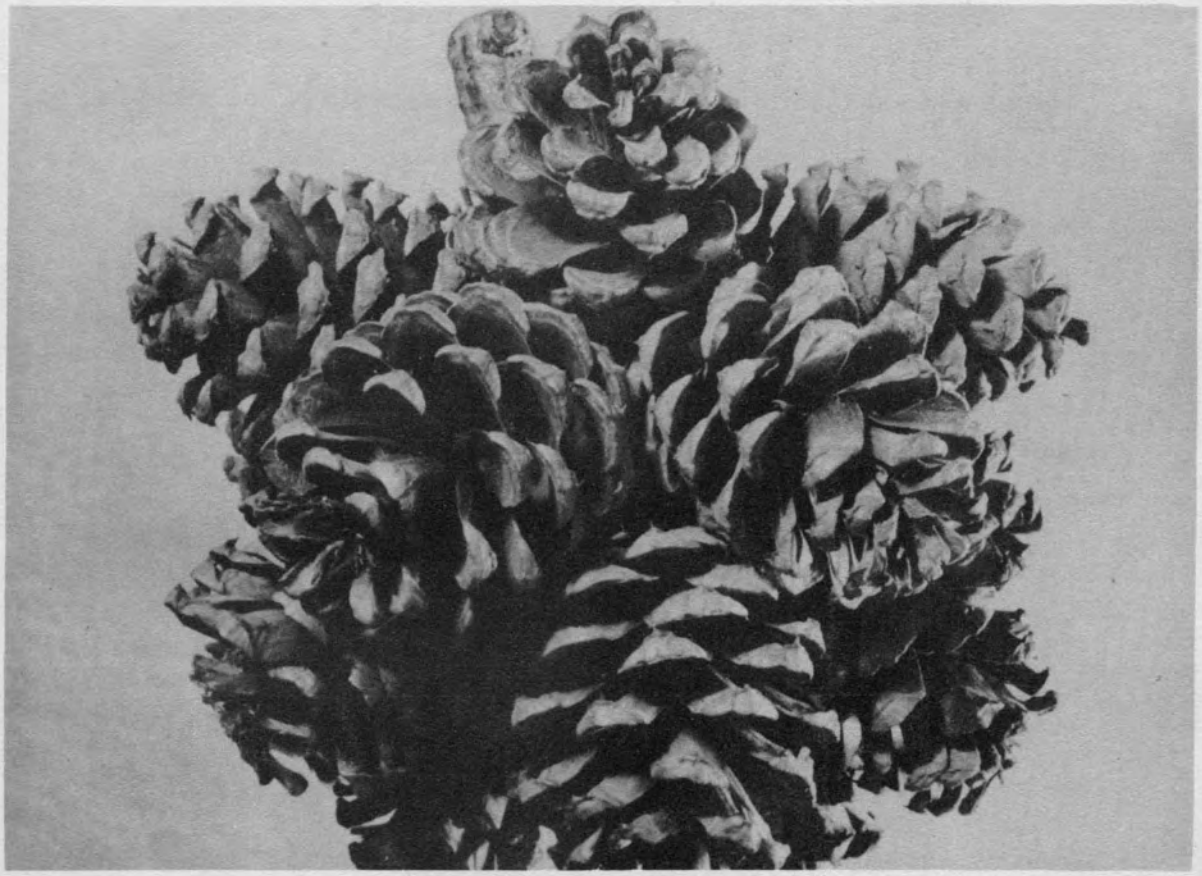

His death took from the lumber industry a fine executive; it took from Diboll it's best friend--and it took from the world one of its noblest gentlemen.

We will miss him from the depths of our hearts.

GIRL SHY
ALL SCHOOL PLAY

In spite of bad weather and other difficulties the all school play "Girl-Shy", was a success. The play was characterized by a young college boy (Franklin Horton) who was girl-shy, and a lovely young debutante who was after his heart.

The actors supplied the audience with a continuous round of laughs throughout the play.

PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU!

The Senior Class of '48, although small in number, put on one of the best plays ever produced in Diboll.

PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU! was given May 14, and played before a packed house. The applause after each act was terrific.

The story began when Keats Perry (Lamar Lewis), the history professor in college, was selected to be the new Dean of the college.

He found out though, that there was a catch to the proposition; he had to have a wife. Now, Professor Perry cared less than nothing for these modern girls; so he turned the Board's offer down flat.

But he got into an argument with one of his senior history students, Vickey Randolph (Bobbie Johnson), and wanted to expel her; but to be able to expel her, he would have to be Dean.

He decided to become Dean and gave to John Appleby (Franklin Horton), the job of finding him a wife.

Grandpa Perry (Alvin Morgan), decided it was time he took a hand; so he wrote three girls, Priscella Morley (Mary Thompson), Tootsie Bean (Joyce Windsor), and Valerie Whitman (Marcelle Havard), a poem and told each of them that Keats wrote it especially to her.

Imagine Keats' surprise when he found himself engaged to all three girls at once. It turned out that Tootsie Bean had a big brother, Butcher Boy Bean (Carl Ferguson), who was after his scalp.

Boggins (R. L. Pitts), the butler, fell for Miss Bean and Professor Perry fell in love with Vickey, and during this time Priscella caught John.

Grandma Perry (Evelyn Walker), resumed her knitting and everything was smooth sailing.
