Foreword

Here is your 1952 edition of the Bulldog. We hope that you will enjoy seeing the pictures of our life and activities here in Central Consolidated as much as we have enjoyed presenting them to you.

We wish to express our appreciation to the students and faculty members for the assistance they have given us in collecting the material for this yearbook.

Dedication

MRS. J. F. BURRIS

As we the seniors of Central High School bind together our efforts in order to bring you this annual, our hearts and gratitude go out to Mrs. J. F. Burris and Mr. Ernest Balch. We wish to dedicate this book to them as a small reward for their never ceasing assistance and guidance which we have received throughout our high school life.

May we try in our meager way to say, "THANKS A MILLION FOR YOUR EVER WATCHFUL EYE, AND MAY THE BEST ALWAYS BE FOR YOU AND YOUR FAMILIES.

Forever yours,
Seniors '51-'52

Superintendent's Message

Dear Friends:

It is obvious that considerable effort, time, labor, and skill have been required in the preparation of this annual. For this and their generous service, we sincerely express our appreciation to the annual staff and their faculty advisors, Mrs. Burris and Mr. Balch.

We know our school compares well with the best; therefore, a pictorial cross-section of all that makes it such at the present time, as contained herein, is a genuine source of pleasures and, to many of us, it will continue to be so as long as we live.

We have many reasons to be proud of our school. As your superintendent and as your friend, I am proud to congratulate each pupil and each faculty member for the fine quality of work now being done, and to extend to each of you my best wishes for your continued success in the future.

Principal's Message

High School days are important days in the lives of American boys and girls.

They are the days in which are obtained the tools and equipment for training the mind to make its own decisions in life.

They are the days in which are secured ideals of fair play, cooperation, mutual understanding, and appreciation of democratic attitudes.

They are the days in which are enjoyed many friendly associations and hours of carefree happiness.

May the pages of this book recall to you, pleasant memories of your high school days.

Sincerely,

Ernest Balch

The board of education, working diligently behind the scene, is responsible for our progress. Although they receive little credit these men work long and late establishing and putting into effect those policies which make a better school.

Parent-Teachers Association

Although it has only been organized this year the P. T. A. has already shown its worth. Its main purpose for its first year has been for its members to get acquainted with each other and to learn how the organization can benefit the school.

They have worked upon improving the enrollment in school. Members have visited in homes to explain how the school and students are hurt by continued absences. Room-mothers have been elected in each room to assist the room in their various functions. Another aim of the P. T. A. is to help to tie the home and the school together.

Senior Class Will

Dear ole' Central High;
To you we say goodby.
To the Junior Class we leave our joys, our hopes, our aims.
Kenneth leaves to Betty Grace his place in the Senior Class.
And hopes her memories of him will last.
Grace leaves to Jean Stanford her desk and locker;
And to Shirley she leaves her good times and laughter.
Carol leaves to Bruce his jokes and pranks;
And to Mary Ann he leaves his ability to be in the upper rank.
Joe Dell leaves to Betty Brookshire his many good times;
And to Elizabeth he leaves his laughing chimes.
Homer leaves to Bobby Allison his popularity roll;
And to Gaynell he leaves his place for her to hold.
Jimmie Costner leaves to Dana, his friendly place;
And to Billy Jack he leaves memories that can never be erased.
To Lynn Crain, Charles leaves his winning personality;
And to Charles Wells he leaves his Bookkeeping ability.
Jimmie Allison leaves to Darryl his friendliness and smile;
And he leaves to Faye everything worthwhile.
To James Martin, Junior leaves his fun in the hall;
And to George he leaves his ability to play basketball.
Geraldine leaves to Charles Metts her very own place;
And she wants him to remember her next year while in class.
Linnie B. To Wayne Nerren leaves her quiet, sweet, ways;
And hopes he is high-point man during basketball days.
To Ernest Ray and Cloyce, Mozelle leaves her skill;
And a place on the Bulldog Staff to fill.
And Juniors, who next year will fill our place;
We wish you the very best,
And may you always lead in the never-ending race.
To our sponsors we leave our work, and memories that last.
And hope thay will remember our graduation class.
And to you dear school we leave a part of our hearts.
With lots of pride;
To let you know we are glad we graduated from Central High.
