FOREWORD

Donated by the Lumberjack Staff of 1964

Come through these gates with us, into the land of DHS
To view the scenes that you like best.
With art and skill, determination and will,
We have tried hard these pages to fill,
Deadlines to meet, pictures to sell;
We hope you think we've done our work well.
May memories linger, and may your thoughts be gay,
As through the '53 SOUTHERN PINES
you turn day by day.

ALMA MATER

One pledge we owe to Diboll High
Is the pledge of truth
And on through life to show her
That we can not fail
I'll give my all to my old
Alma Mater dear
Her praises sing and be glad
I played the game and won the fame for——
DIBOLL HIGH

President
Jeannette Broker

The seniors of 1953 have come a long way, and now they are at the end of their trail. Father Time has been good to them, and packed their years with happiness. Their last week of fun together was spent at Prade Ranch, a dude ranch near San Antonio.

Through their motto the seniors have shown their true feelings, "Knowledge comes, but Wisdom lingers".

Their song expresses their true love for one another, "That Old Gang of Mine". Their flower, the bronze chrysanthemum, is one of undying beauty.

Good luck to the seniors of '53, and may happiness always be yours.

HALLOWE'EN COURT

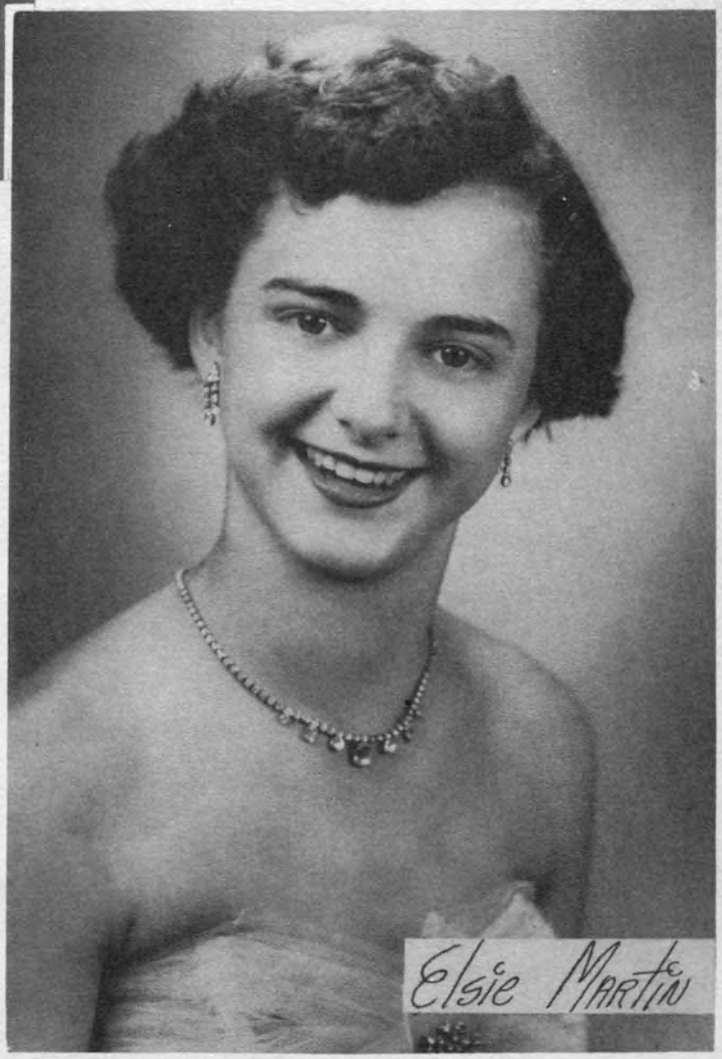

For the '52 Hallowe'en Carnival everything was carried out in style -- games and eats galore. Everyone was having a wonderful time, but the highlight of the evening was yet to come. At the appointed hour, the gym was filled with spectators for the coronation of the King and Queen. This year the Hallowe'en King and Queen were determined by popular vote. After all the votes were counted, Earl Burchfield and Virginia Lou Smith, representing the Senior Class, came out ahead to be crowned King and Queen.

'JACKETTES PLACE THIRD IN DISTRICT

The Diboll Lumberjacketts completed their third year of basketball with only four losses. Although they did not come out on top, they have improved their playing and skill very much. They owe their success to Coach Carrington and to their hard work.

They worked out after school hours, and have shown their ability to play top-notch ball.
