School Song

Our dear ole' Central High, honored be her name. She'll live forever with our hearts, her halls of fame: As years go swiftly by, sight fail and dim. Memories of our happy days, will always be a bright and shining gem . . .

Foreword

This is your book in which we have attempted to record those things which have been of interest to you these months -- those things which have meant the most to you this year at school. For our high school years are our happiest years, and it is the hope of the BULLDOG Staff that this book will serve to remind you of one of those years.

Superintendent's Message

To the Annual Staff and sponsors we wish to extend our congratulations for a job well done. We also wish to thank each student and group of students who have cooperated with the staff in making this issue of THE BULLDOG possible.

To our senior class, which is one of the finest and most cooperative groups that we have had at Central Consolidated, we wish every success and are confident that you shall succeed in whatever you undertake. Come back to see us often.

J. G. Hobson

Principal's Message

It has indeed been a great privilege and pleasure to work with you, the students and faculty of Central High School, for this school year 1954-55.

You, the youth of today, face a future that should challenge you to capitalize on all your opportunities and potentialities.

I have a deep confidence that the students of Central High will meet the challenge of the future wisely and unafraid if they will use the knowledge, traits of character, and social skills learned here.

I wish to express my appreciation to the Annual Staff, the sponsors, and to all others who have helped to make this a yearbook to be remembered in years to come.

Principal's Message

I consider it an honor in having the opportunity to congratulate all personalities who had a part in making this masterpiece possible.

Your knowing ability and diligent work has set an example for young admirers to follow; and may your future life works and deeds help brighten the path of life for those who seek success and happiness.

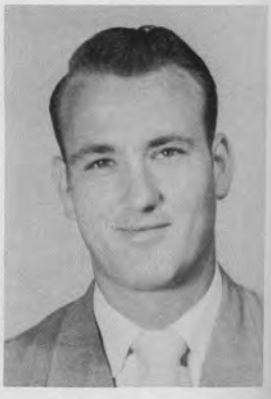

You have done a splendid job. Again may I say congratulations? Keep climbing. The Grammar School is behind you.

Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-five edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.
