FOREWORD

Another school year passes; another senior class moves on. Behind them are left the teachers and their fellow students, but they take with them the memories of many happy days.

With the hope that this book will become a cherished possession of your high school days, we present to you The Lumberjack of 1957.

IN MEMORIAM

FREDDIE GOINS

'Twas an ill wind of March that crossed our school this year;
It brought heartaches and tears to those who were near.

The Sword of Time with one bold sweep
Reduced this loved one to an earthly heap.

There will be a vacant chair in our classroom now;
Next year's teams will play short-
handed somehow;

But there's consolation for grief which
is vain—
We all know that our loss was a Heavenly gain.

SENATOR MARTIN DIES CROWNS

DIBOLL DAY QUEEN, MISS BILLIE CLARK

Diboll Day, proclaimed a legal holiday by former Governor Allan Shivers, was celebrated with much enthusiasm and spirit of the occasion by residents of Diboll and many outlying communities on September 29, 1956.

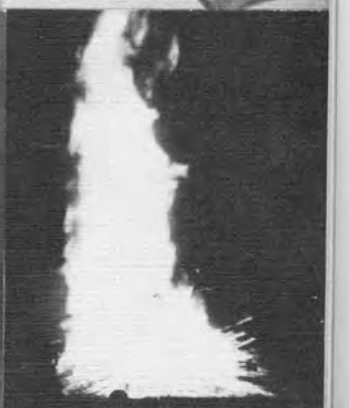

Highlights of the event were crowning of the Diboll Day Queen, a parade including several bands, a riding exhibition by Angelina County Mounted Quadrille, and a dance for the ex-students of Diboll High School.

The Diboll Junior High Little Jacks, coached by Donald Saxton, were very fine examples of future Lumberjacks. Each boy on the team played his best and his best was appreciated. Their sportsmanship and interest in the game will be welcomed very warmly when they graduate to the big team.
