FOREWORD

The high school years are those of new experiences of success and defeat. The few outstanding triumphs as well as the numerous small ones are prefaced by many quiet studious moments. This annual is a pictorial record of these events at Dunbar High in 1963-64.

This book was compiled with the pleasure of the students in mind: pride for their parents, memories for themselves, and incentive and enjoyment for their posterity.

Dunbar we love you your buildings, your administrators, and your "go-fight-win" spirit, therefore We'll fight, fight, fight for victory in athletic contest, in scholastic competition, and in social accomplishments, because We love our colors
our majestic, dignified colors
Our purple and our gold.
Dunbar High, we see you through our lives we live for you.
Winter months and bitter cold have proved our love so true.
Dunbar, we love you your principles, your dreams, your ability to help make dreams realities, therefore We'll sing your praises far and wide through unity in home life, through growth in religious life, through participation in community life, because Dunbar, we love you,
now and always
Our dear ole Dunbar High.

Principal

A high school's function is to prepare its students for their future lives. It is the aim of the faculty to develop not only intellectual ability, but also moral strength.

To promote the development of wholesome individuals Dunbar High School provides regular curriculum, cultural and recreational activities. It is our aim to develop in the student genuine and superior traits rather than artificial and mediocre ones. Guidance of each individual summons the knowledge and know how of myself, cooperation on the part of both parents and teachers, and most of all courage from God.

It is impossible for me to represent this school fairly and justly without feeling and sharing the desires and dreams of each of these students. In my capacity as principal, it is my lifelong ambition to be a friend to each of these students. If I help but fifty of these hundreds of students I am a success, but if I fail to help one when he needs me most I fail not only as a principal but as a human being.

CEDAR GROVE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The principal and teacher are proud of their modern building for instruction. They recognize, however, that the real test of a school is not solely its building and physical facilities. Contributions to human values, especially moral distinctions, are worthy purposes which direct the Cedar Grove Elementary School, principal and faculty.

Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Dunlap standing on the front steps of Long Chapel C.M.E. Church. The pastor states, "The public is invited to worship with us at any time."

Rev. Dunlap has come to Long Chapel with a record of 35 years of dedicated service as pastor. He has been at the present church five months and the church is progressing nicely. The church is spiritually alive, the finance is fairly good and eleven members have been added. Present prospect indicates a successful and glorious year's work.

NEW ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. U. L. Sanders, Pastor
New Zion Baptist Church

Mrs. U. L. Sanders

The New Zion Baptist Church was organized in 1912 by Rev. P. C. Cash. Some of its first members were Austin Johnson, L. Freeman, John Henry, Mmes. Malinda Garrett, Viola Arrant, and Bertha Barrett. The first building was a wooden structure.

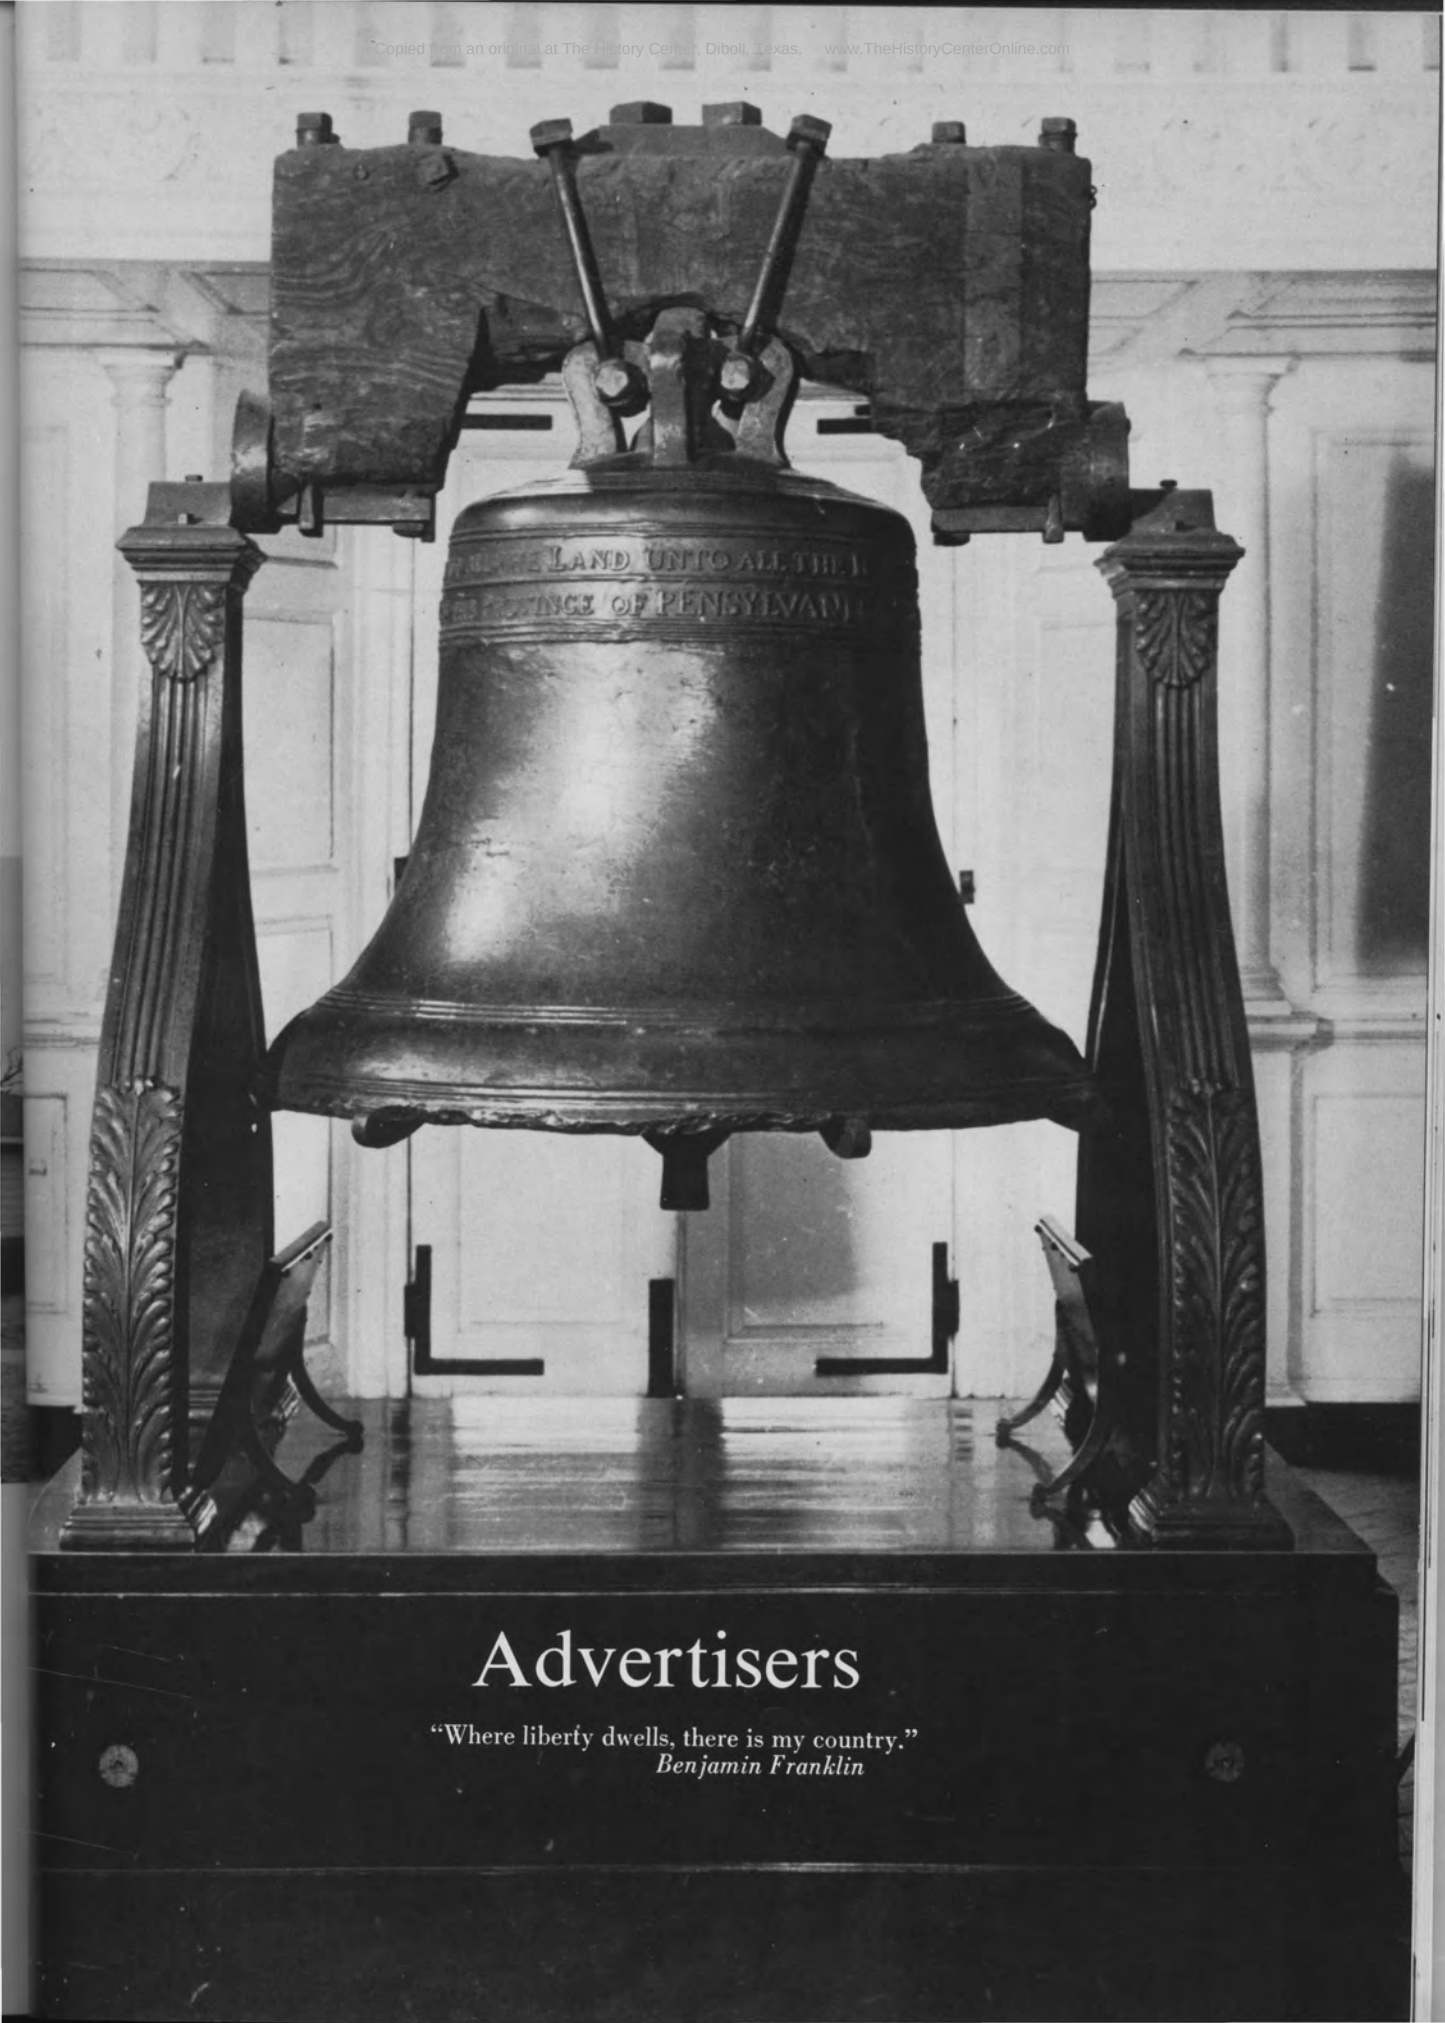

The present pastor is Rev. U. L. Sanders, who has served here for 10 years. He is a graduate of Butler College, Tyler, Texas and holds a Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas. He served as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Mary Allen College, Crockett, for three years. Two of these years he headed the Department of Religion.

The present church building was erected in 1947 under the administration of Rev. J. J. Finley. Under the present administration the church has been remodeled, parking facilities improved and additional property purchased.

This church has grown from a membership of less than 50 to approximately 500. New Zion has as its educational objective, Butler College of Tyler, Texas, a two year Junior College.

The church stands out as a bulwark in Christian religion, divinity and social service.
