In Loving Memory

Mrs. Elva Sowers

Elva Sowers was born on October 15, 1955 and died on January 10, 1999 in an automobile accident. Mrs. Sowers had been married to Diboll High School Principal Terrance Sowers for 11 years. She was currently employed by Diboll I.S.D. as a computer technician. She was a member of the International Champion Rich-Tone chorus of Sweet Adelines International and active in many community and school events. She will be truly missed.

Mock Trial is an event that consists of lawyers and jurors. Basically it is a group of people that are conducting a trial. The only difference between this and a real trial is that the school presents a case from both sides. (the prosecution and the defense) Our group went to district and did well in the competition. Mrs. Cordell and Mrs. Ingram sponsored the trial.

Homecoming

Unlike any other, Homecoming 1998 was one to remember. This extraordinary event was a special one. For the first time in Diboll history the Senior Queen candidates were escorted around the track in a red Chrysler Sebring, while the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior duchesses were escorted in a red Mitsubishi Eclipse. After a trip around the track the moment came for the revealing and crowning of the Homecoming Queen of 1998. The reigning Homecoming Queen of 1997 was Misty Jones who crowned the new Queen. Casey Yates was chosen as Queen and escorted on the field by her father. On Homecoming night the football team celebrated a victory. Diboll won over Splendora 52 to 12. Pictured left is Senior Casey Yates and bottom left is Diboll High School graduate Misty Jones.

Diboll Day '98

Taking home the Diboll Day crown was Lisa McClain for group 3. Diboll Day queen candidates raised over $430,000 dollars. Other candidates were Tamara Harrell, Stacey Martz, and Cassi Lenderman. Diboll Day is a biennial event held on even numbered years as a community wide fund raiser benefiting numerous organizations in and around Diboll. People from all around come to share in the tradition of Diboll Day. Many fund raisers as well as contests go on such as luncheons, bingo, craft fairs, tug-o-war, dunking booths, and many other games.

Millennium review

The test of the ages

Few generations have the opportunity to witness the passing of one millennium and the beginning of another. Before racing forward into the 21st century, take a moment to reflect back on the people, places, and events of the past 1,000 years.

One pledge we owe to Diboll High
is the pledge of truth.
And on through life
to show her
that we cannot fail.
I'll give my all to my old Alma Mater dear.
Her praises sing
And be glad I played
the game,
And won the fame
for Diboll High.
