Who are we? Lumberjacks.

This year was a year fraught with the spirit of change. Customs were broken and old traditions were renewed. As the Lumberjack staff wracked our brains at the beginning of this year to select a theme, it took a bit of head scratching. But as pep rally after pep rally unfolded with renewed energy and zeal, it became obvious. This year was a departure from years past. We experienced more unity, more spirit, and more pride than I can recall in my previous years here at Diboll High. We were more than an assortment of people learning and growing under one roof. We were a student body. We were not individual athletes, but teams. And we are not merely a student body, a team, or a school.

We are Lumberjacks.

Based on a true story, the play follows Raja Englanderova's (Lexi) experience as a young girl living in the Jewish ghetto of Terezin during the Holocaust. During this time of despair, there was a small beacon of hope for all of the children trapped there. Her name is Irena Synkova (JoLynn), and she dedicated her life to being a teacher for the children. She encourages them to creatively express their feelings through drawings and poems.

Although the story is filled with loss and anguish, it also has love and hope.

Many dream, some try, but only a few achieve. You are an achiever. Follow your dreams for they will always lead you in the right direction. You have made us proud. Keep up the hard work and determination as you begin the next level of your journey. You have a bright future ahead of you. Continue to put God first in your life. Everything else will fall into place.May God continue to bless you and your abilities. "Love you this Big"

"I remember when you were my little girl, as much a part of me as my right arm; my every breath and step held you in mind. Then suddenly, one morning you were grown. I was not finished with you. But we must love our children enough to let them go. But in my heart, you'll always be my little girl." -Mom

{hanna lane herring}

Though farthest from ever I could wish, my firstborn daughter has been separate from me most of her young life. In so being, she unveils to me the most evident proof that God holds us in His merciful hands. Because He has been there in my stead, watching and protecting, I not only see an impression of His divinity in her, but also the best of my own small influence, multiplied by her great and humble character, entwined with a beauty that is all her own. My heart is full with all she has become, and bursts with the foresight of all that Hanna is to be. -Dad

It is hard to believe our little girl is graduating. We can not begin to tell you how very proud we are of you Briana. It seems like yesterday you were clicking across the kitchen floor in your little "church shoes". Now you are filling the shoes of a young adult. You can accomplish anything you set out to do. Never forget above all God has a path for those shoes to also follow. We love you and are so very proud of you Baby Girl.

We Love You, Our Daughter

Wasn't it yesterday that you were a baby in our arms. We looked at your precious face and wondered where life would take you. Today, we look at the person you've become...strong, kind, thoughtful, caring and optimistic...and we realize that the dreams we held in our hearts for you are alive in your beautiful spirit. We are so proud of you, and we love you with both our hearts.

A daughter is a blessing that's sent from up above,
She has a very special charm, and filled with so much love.
A daughter brings you happiness that is felt so deep inside,
As you watch her grow up each day, you're filled with heartfelt pride.
Each milestone she crosses, makes her more special than before, And every year that passes by, you love her even more!
No words can quite express the love and joy that you feel too, That comes from having a daughter, one that's just like YOU!

I can't believe how the time has flown;
I am so proud of the smart and beautiful young lady you are!
You will always be my baby girl, KK!
I love you so!

* A spacecraft launched by the European Space Agency 10 years ago successfully landed a robotic probe on the surface of a comet. The probe, named the Philae, immediately sent back pictures and was expected to monitor the comet for four to five months.

* SpaceShipTwo, one of the planes for Virgin Galactic's new space tourism company, crashed in the Mojave Desert during a test flight. One of the plane's two pilots was killed, and the company's test flight program was set back several months.

* After 20 seasons, New York Yankees shortstop Derek Jeter retired. The 14-time All Star finished his career as the Yankees' leader in hits and games played. His final total of 3,465 hits was the most ever by a shortstop.

* Lava from the Kilauea volcano on the big island of Hawaii destroyed a house in November, five months after the lava flow began. No one was injured. Residents had been on alert to evacuate since June, and were moving possessions out of their homes to protect them.

* The National Football League began working with NO MORE, a national anti-domestic violence awareness campaign, after some incidents involving players came to light. One of those involved Baltimore Ravens running back Ray Rice, who was suspended by the NFL.
