OFFICERS OF ELECTION AND OATH TO BE TAKEN.

R. S. ART. 3089. All the precinct primary elections of a party shall be conducted by a presiding judge, to be appointed by a chairman of the county executive committee of the party, with the assistance and approval of at least a majority of the members of the county executive committee. Such presiding judge shall select an associate judge and two clerks to assist in conducting the election; two supervisors may be chosen by any one-fourth of the party candidates, who, with the judges and clerks, shall take the oath required of such officers in general elections. Two additional cerks may be appointed, but only when, in the opinion of the presiding judge, there will be more than one hundred votes polled at the primary election in the precinct. No one shall serve as judge, clerk or supervisor at a primary election unless he has paid his poll tax.

ART. 2991. Before opening the polls the presiding judge of election shall, in an audible voice, take the following oath or affirmation, which shall be uttered slowly and distinctly, and each of the other judges and clerks shall repeat the same after him.

"I solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will not in any manner request or seek to persuade or induce any voter to vote for or against any particular candidate or candidates, or for or against any proposition to be voted on; that I will not keep or make any memoranda or entry of anything occurring within the booths or polling places, as the case may be, or disclose how any one who I am permitted to assist in voting has voted, except I be called on to testify in a judicial proceeding; and that I will faithfully perform this day my duty as officer of the election, and guard, as far as I am able, the purity of the ballot box. So help me God."
