Burke Voters Say 'NO' To Consolidation Election Sat.

BY BETH DURHAM

Voters of the Burke Common School District said 'No' to an election effort Saturday aimed at consolidating Burke with the Diboll Independent School District.

At Burke the vote was 142 to 52 against consolidation. The Burke vote for consolidation coincided closely with the number of names registered previously on petitions.

Diboll voters called for consolidation to the tune of 81 to 6, an unusually large vote for a small town which would naturally welcome the additional 170 elementary students from Burke. Diboll now has an average daily attendance of 870 Addition of the Burke district might have protected this one time sawmill city from another consolidation bill, one which will come before the Texas legislature in January of 1957. The bill might stipulate that all schools not having an average daily attendance of 1,000 be consolidated with the next llargest high schooll. In such a case, elementary schools might be left in their original location.

Members of both the Burke and Diboll school boards had agreed earlier that classes in the first six grades would continue at Burke if the consolidation carried.

General opinion of voters in the Burke district could be that they want the school to stay as it is, but should a move to another district become compulsory, they would prefer coming to Diboll. This statement of feeling could not be taken to include the opinions of all residents of the Burke Community, however.

The pills were open from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. at the Community Center in Diboll and the Burke School building, at Burke

Orchids go to The Lufkin Daily News on their recent improvement in straight matter type face. The new 8 point type on the 8 point base is easy on the eyes and certainly a good investment as far as their readers are concerned.

The move wasn't absolutely necessary since the Daily News has always been neat in appearance, but such actions are common all over the country of the publishers trying to give their readers just a little more . . . and for the same price that has been in effect since the beginning.

Certainly the action is typical of the good leadership and the foresight that has always been a by-product of The Daily News staff and management.

People do like to have their pictures taken with snakes.

Saturday I was having a cup of coffee in my kitchen when the door opened and in slithered a six foot chicken snake.

It was 'slithered' in by DeWitt Wilkerson, who had killed the reptile (sic) while clearing land on the old Anthony Place, just south of town.

The chicken snake (several said he was a water rattler) measured 72½ inches and was about 2½ inches in diameter.

He was the biggest I've seen, and seriously, I thoroughly enjoy seeing and studying all the types of snakes predominant in this area.

BUT . . . No live ones, please!

Commencement Held For Temple School

Commencement exercises of the H. G. Temple High School were held May 17, 1956 at 7:30 p.m. Ruthie Lee Taylor was the Valedictorian and Earlene Phipps was Salutatorian, according to Principal Willie Massey.

Main address was made by Prof. A. G. Hilliard, principal of Scott High School, Tyler, Tex.

Diboll Man Kills Six Foot Chicken Snake

Dewitt Wilkerson, who lives about a mile from Diboll on FM 58, reported a six foot chicken snake to the News-Bulletin on Saturday.

Wilkerson said he killed the reptile while clearing fence rows on the old Anthony Place, about one-half mile South of Diboll and behind the Pinedale Addition.

The snake measured 72½ inches long, and was about 2½ inches in diameter. Lt was described by some to be a water rattler, although markings seem to prove it a common chicken snake.

Perennial Ingenue

Twenty-four year old actress Rosemary Prinz has again earned a leading role as an ingenue. The petite 96 pound, 5' 2" spritely charmer has been playing ingenue roles for 10 years. Her latest role as a teenager is the leading part in the new half hour CBS-TV daily series, AS THE WORLD TURNS, playing Penny Hughes. Rosemary who has portrayed young ladies on Broadway, TV and Radio is flattered rather than distraught over her new role in TV's first half hour series. "I hope I look 16 when I'm 60 she states. But then, what woman wouldn't.

Mikulka To Do Southern Pine Work

Particle Board That is the topic of study for James L. Love and Bohuslav E. Mikulka, wood utilization experts for the Southern Pine Lumber Company in Diboll, Texas.

James Love is president of Love Wood Products at Diboll, a Southern Pine Lumber Company affiliate which coordinates study and development of forest by-products.

Dr. Mikulka has advanced degrees from Hochschule Fuer Bodenkulter in Vienna and the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich. Wood waste utilization and sylvaculture have been his specialties.

Mikulka was brought to Love Wood Products a "Temple Industry", to guide technical studies.

A full report on flakeboard manufacture will be completed soon, according to Love, so that Southern Pine research in this field can be put to practical use in a plant programmed for '57.

In addition to being recognized as an international authority on forestry and wood utilization, Mikulka has a breath-taking story of escape from behind the iron curtain

Beginning during his student days in Prague where he was active in the Christian Democratic Party through his flight into the dark forests of Czechoslovakia into Austria and finally his arrival at sanctuary in the Western Zone of Vienna, Mikulka has a hair-raising story to tell.

"The United States offers the freedom to think and do," says Mikulka. "To me Southern Pine Lumber Company is an example of what free men working together toward an ideal can achieve. I want to stay here."

900 HELPERS—It takes $1,250 to get your name on the ballot for Governor of Texas. And Democratic candidate Ralph Yarborough (right), shown paying his fee in cash to George Sandlin, Secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, almost didn't make it. He paid on the last day, telling Austin reporters that three days earlier he didn't have the money. He said some 900 supporters contributed for the fee, in $1, $5 and $10 bills. Yarborough said if present trends continue he will win in the first primary July 28. Among his first official acts, he said, will be a recommendation for raising Texas' "shamefully low" old age assistance payments.

Students Meet With Boosters To Plan Teen Town Program

Diboll's teen agers have decided to do something for themselves in the way of providing wholesome recreation for the summer months.

Last week high school teen agers met with the Booster Club in an effort to decide future plans following their 'municipal' election held last week.

The election was held under the direction of Ervin DuBose, teacher at DHS. Poll tax receipts were issued at ten cents per person and were a pre-requisite for voting privileges. Voting was by secret ballot and when the votes were counted the following officers had been elected for one-year terms: Mayor—Gene aker; Assistant Mayor—Carroll Black; Senior Advisors—Larry Weber and Dolores Camp; Secretary—Evie Nell Bell; Treasurer—Carolyn Kelly; Reporter—Barbara Camp.

Membership is open to all persons in Diboll between the ages of 13 and 19 years. Junior High school students who are only 12 years of age will be special guests until they become teen agers. Teen Town membership cards will be sold for $1 each and be for the fiscal year ending August 31. Funds raised will be used for purchase of the equipment, for dances and other programs and to underwrite cost of Teen Town.

The old scout house has been remodeled and equipped with furniture suitable to making a Recreation Center. Volley ball and the like courts may be constructed on the grounds adjoining the Center.

Coach Ervin DuBose said that members will provide for themselves. They ask only for the 'sponsorship and cooperation', according to DuBose.

Organization of Teen Town had full cooperation of School officials here.

Senior Play Attended By Many Here

Approximately 200 persons were on hand Friday night to witness the annual seior play,—"Timmie's Double Date."

Adults and children alike enjoyed the performance Friday night that was presented to the Students of elementary and the high school that afternoon.

Mrs. McKewn, also an English instructor, directed the 3 act play. She arranged for a very good performance, at intermission between the second and third acts — Five football players represented various twirling champions from Texas. They were dressed in feminine attire and actually received the most profuse applause of the night.

Another senior, Harold Dean, sang, "Too Young" during intermission. He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruby Ann Ashworth, who also portrayed Timmie O'Brien and Shannon Smith in the play. Miss Ashworth is one of the most accomplished pianists DHS has graduated in quite some time.

"Timmie's Double Date" started slow but gained momentum during the second and third act. Actually the suspense and the climax of the play were well planned and executed and moved at a pace well suited to any high school group.

New Lake To Give Good Fishing

Austin—Three years from the time it was stocked in May, of 1953, a lake created by Aluminum Comany of America for industrial purposes has been converted into a fishermans dream, according to reports to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fisd Commission.

He said a principal attraction is a traffic restriction which bars promiscuous motor boating and gives the angler "some semblance of privacy".

The lake, which is in Milam Co. near Rockdale, was made originally as a cooling urit for ALCOA's huge plant which produces aluminum with electric power generated through use of local lignite.

Since the water was not contaminated through this particular industrial process, company officials called on the commission for fish management counsel. The lake was so successfully stocked that black bass limits now are common. There also are good catches of channel catfish and bluegills.

The company, under the Commission arrangement, agreed to make the lake available to the general public subject, however, to strict regulations designed to aid the angler as well as to safeguard the Milam County recreation spot. Motors are limited to ten horsepower. Racing is banned.

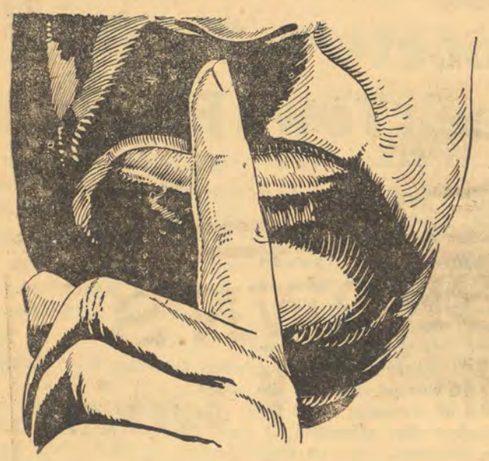

Air Filter Plant To Catch Particles

Austin—A high volume air sampler installed on the roof of the State Department of Health here will show any increase in radioactive "fallout" resulting from nuclear bomb tests now being conducted in the Pacific.

The air sampler, capable of sampling more than 1500 cubic feet of air every day, is designed to trap air-borne radioactive particles on a thin filter pay.

When read daily, increases in radioactivity occuring on any giday are apparent.

The instrument was installed two weeks ago as part of a coast to coast network of 39 monitoring stations. It was provided by the U. S. Public Health Service and tde Atomic Energy Commission to get quick first hand records of radioactive fallout reaching the United States from the Eniwetok Proving Grounds where test firings began on last Friday.

Texas Prison System In Need Of Guards

AUSTIN, Tex.—May 16 (Spl)—O. B. Ellis, general manager of the Texas Prison System, has asked the Texas Press Association for help in locating 40 urgently needed guards.

"Mounted guards for the Texas Prison System are desperately needed," said Ellis. "At this time of the year, when prisoners should be in the field at their work, we only have 609 guards available. Our regular staff totals 649.

"The Texas Press can render a wonderful service to the State by publicizing our needs — and our problem is serious," Ellis emphasized. "No previous guard experience is necessary as we train our own men. Therefore we will be happy to interview all physically sound men who are interested in joining our staff."

Men with good names and who want to work are especiallly desired. Preferred age is 40. But men from 21 to 55 are acceptable Room, board, laundry and uniforms are furnished, along with a $2,700 annual salary.

"There is not a unit in the Texas Prison System that is not short of guards at the present time," said Ellis.

Safety Department Gives Reports

Austin—The Texas Department of Public Safety today released its rural traffic accident summary report covering the 12 months of last year.

In a book, entitled "It's A . . . Fact", the State Safety Department gives a breakdown of the rural Texas traffic accident picture for 1955 in almost every conceivable category from the number of accidents by days of the week to the violations which are among the principle caustive factors leading to accidents.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the DPS, pointed out that a new all-time high in the number of fatalities — both rural and urban — was recorded during 1955. The 2,548 persons who died in traffic mishaps was one more than the previous high set in 1951.

The booklet indicates that an additional 108,298 persons were injured in traffic accidents last year and the economic loss from an estimated total of 220,992 of these mishaps was a staggering $149,401,250.

ATTORNEY GENERAL JOHN BEN SHEPPERD (top, center) met recently with six key prosecutors of Veterans' Land trials to coordinate a statewide trial schedule. Left to right: Francis Richter of Hondo, James Kazen of Laredo, J. R. Owen of Georgetown, Shepperd, First Asst. District Attorney John Allen of Austin, Wiley Cheatham of Cuero and Raymond Thornton of Belton.

Attorney General Shepperd praised the prosecutors highly for "their hard work on these cases" and declared "this meeting should better prepare the state for the many approaching trials." The prosecutors commended the cooperation of the Attorney General's Office.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Much of your success as a driver depends on your attitudes. Emotional instability or maladjustment of any kind can seriously affect your driving ability, according to studies by Drs. Leon Brody and Herbert J. Stack of the Center for Safety Education, New York University

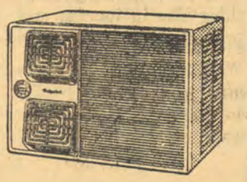

For more than 20 years, American psychologists have been studying the driver's habits — what causes him to court accidents, pay heavy fines, disregard simple courtesy for a fellow driver. They have come to the conclusion that the difference between a good and bad driver is not necessarily knowledge or skill but psychological traits called attitudes.

Attitudes have to do with the application of knowledge and skill. For example, how many times have you seen an impatient driver try to pass another on a curve? He probably knows very well why such an action is dangerous or unlawful. Yet, his attitude at the time makes him risk his life, violate the law.

Poor attitudes are manifested in many different ways. Scientific studies show that drivers with bad records are apt to be aggressive or intolerant of others. They tend to resent authority and are inclined to have an exaggerated opinion of their importance and abilities. Many times they act impetuously and lack responsibility. Such attitudes are known to be caused by some basic fault in the individual's personality or by maladjustment as a result of unhappiness at the home, at work or in his relations with other people.

On the other hand, good attitudes on the road are generally shown by persons who are more than just safe drivers. Studies show that they are probably both good workers and citizens. Such good attitudes, however, may temporarily disappear. A so-called model driver may suddenly become preoccupied with a personal problem and forget his usual road habits. The studies also show that if a driver with good attitudes is subjected to continuing mental or emotional strain, he is apt to become a chronic violator.

Quincy, Mass, Patriot Ledger: "George Washington explained why men owe some of their time to their country. He said, '- - - every citizen who enjoys protection of a free government owes not only a proportion of his property but even his personal services to the defense of it.' When George Washington spoke, the dangers were small compared to the terrible risks of the Mid-Twentieth Century."

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS from The Bible

And He said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. — (Luke 8,48.)

When we have faith in God, our Heavenly Father, even as little as a grain of mustard, nothing is impossible to us. We can overcome doubt and fear, illness and despair—our faith can make us whole, and we will know peace.

State Convention Slated For Dallas

AUSTIN—There is very little suspense left in connection with the State Democratic convention to be held in Dallas next week.

That U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson is the new party head was conclusively evidenced after [illegible] party conventions. Named at [illegible] 1,149 delegates favorable [illegible]nson and only 66 definitely committed to his rival, Gov. Allan Shivers.

Only remaining question is how far the Johnsonites will go in sweeping out Shivers backers. Almost all members of the State Executive Committee are staunch Shivers supporters.

Ordinarily, new committee members would not be elected until the September conventions. But two factors reflect on the stability of their positions.

First, state law merely says the committee member shall hold office "until his successor is elected." Second, in a 1944 contest between party factions the Supreme Court held one convention could set aside the action of a previous convention.

At stakei is Ben Ramsey's job as National Committeeman. And perhaps that of Mrs. Hilda Weinert of Seguin, Democratic National Committeewoman.

Also in doubt about how they will be treated on May 22 are members of the Dallas County delegation, one of the groups to go for Shivers. In this case, a rump convention named delegates favorable to Johnson.

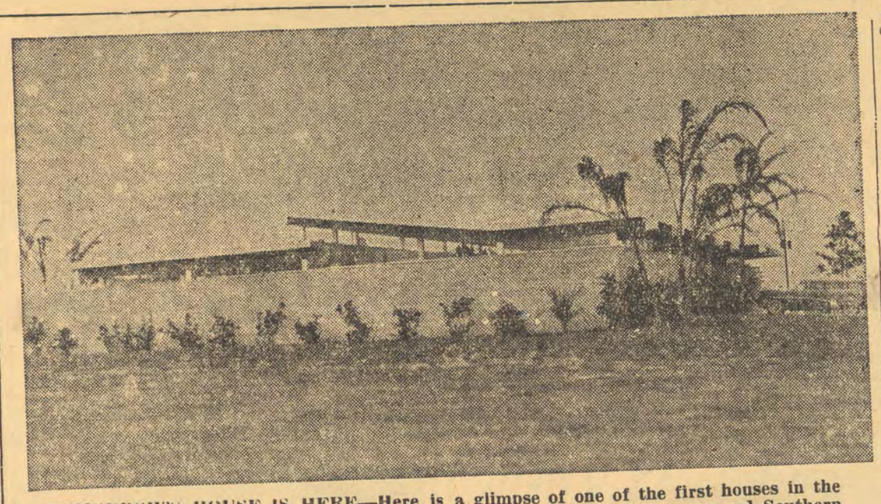

Speakers for Cotton Congress Announced

The complete line-up of the speakers for the 17 annual American Cotton Congress was announced today by Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, Congress chairman. The Congress is to be held in Lubbock, Texas, May 31--June 2.

Highlighting the Congress' program will be addresses by Lamar Fleming, Jr., Houston, chairman of the board of directors of Anderson, Clayton and Co. and Marvin L. McLain, Washington, assistant secretary of agriculture. Mr. McLain is the USDA man in charge of the price support program and CCC stocks.

Featured topics at the Congress will be cotton's current problems of price and quality with special emphasis on South Plains production and marketing.

During the Congress visitors will be taken on bus tours of the cotton producind areas and will also tour Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

TOMORROW'S HOUSE IS HERE—Here is a glimpse of one of the first houses in the United States to be built of "shop-grown" timbers. Eight of the long curved Southern Pine beams visible at the wing-like roofline serve as the major structural element and also provide the interior decoration . . . Beams of this type, which are fabricated with glued two-inch thicknesses of Southern Pine lumber, provide immense interior areas, structural simplicity and pronounced economies.

Fraud Charged In Stock Dealings

Two Austin companies are defending themselves in district court here against charges of fradulent stock selling.

A temporary restraining order is sought by the State against American Guaranty Underwriters, Inc., and the Karisch Company, Inc.

Calvin C. Huffman, American Guaranty president, denied the charges. His company was issued 25,000 shares of Karisch stock to cover a $9,500 loan, he said.

"No stock of the Karisch Co., was sold to the public," said Mr. Huffman. "Nor have any of the officers named received any commissions."

In its allegations the state accused American Guaranty of collecting "gross and exhorbitant commissions" on stock sales.

Election Law Under Possible Change

A movement to insure reporters the right to cover precinct conventions may be spearheaded by the Texas Press Association.

Under the Texas Election Code only a qualified voter in the precinct may "vote, Be Present At, or participate in, the business of such a convention."

TPA President Russell W. Bryant has suggested deletion of the words "be present at" from the law. He indicated the matter would probably be considered at the TPA convention in Amarillo next month.
