Friends Announce Intent To Push O. A. 'Jay' Boren For Constable

TO THE VOTERS OF JUSTICE PCT. NO. 5, ANGELINA CO., TEXAS:

We, being friends of A. O. Boren, who is generally known as Jay Boren are hereby placing before you the name of Jay Boren for nomination to the office of Constable of Justice Precinct No. 5, which includes the town of Diboll, at the Democratic Primary on July 28. Jay Boren did not announce as a candidate for this office, but we believe that by reason of training and experience he is so well qualified for this office that the voters of this Precinct should have an opportunity to elect him to this office. This matter has been discussed with Mr. Boren and he has stated that if the voters of this Precinct see fit to elect him to this office he would accept such nomination and would perform the duties of the office to the best of his ability.

Mr. Boren, who is generally known as Jay Boren, served as Constable of this Precinct for ten years, and rendered outstanding service as a peace officer in this Precinct. He did not choose to ask for re-election at the end of his last term of service, but has continued his services in the field of law enforcement. We earnestly solicit your vote and influence in behalf of Jay Boren, sincerely believing that his election as Constable of Precinct No. 5 would assure fair and impartial enforcement of our laws for the next two years. Since Mr. Boren did not announce for this office, his name will not be on the official ballot. In order to vote for Jay Boren for Constable of Precinct No. 5, the names of the other two candidates for this office must be scratched out, and the name of Jay Boren written on the ticket under the heading on the ballot of "Constable Precinct No. 5". In writing in the name of Mr. Boren, it can be written as: "A. O. Boren', or, "Jay Boren." If you are not sure how to vote for Mr. Boren at the election, and you desire to do so, please ask any of the election officials and they will advise you how to vote for Jay Boren for Constable.

Friends of,
O. A. (Jay) BOREN

TO THE RESCUE:

My good friend Marvin Baker came to the rescue several weeks ago when Little League officials were unable to find another tab keeper for the league. I generally try to keep the scorebook for each of the first games each week, but I am unable to stay for the second contest. Marvin has been doing a marvelous job with the book on the second games, and my thanks to him for substituting for me when I can't get to the games at all.

Marvin and his Mrs. have one little Baker playing with the Yankees. Three other little Bakers will be playing LL ball in a few years. One thing is sure. With Marvin keeping the scorebook, he'll always know how the boys come out.

BOGGY TALK—

Those attending the Temple-White fish fry at Boggy Slough Friday night seemed to have come away feeling generally 'elated' after hearing Southern Pine President, Arthur Temple, Jr. outline several projects he and his staff are working on.

Most of his topics are still o the planning board, but if we know A. T. very well, they will probably come to pass just about the way he described them Friday night.

CAN YOU VOTE???

Last week we carried another feature mat on PI that we hope will make all Dibollians (everyone, in face) more conscious of their duty of voting.

Don't waste that vote. When the Democratic primaries come around on July 28 get down to the polls and try to put your vote where it will do the most good.

Diboll has always, to my knowledge, had a reputation for being slightly indifferent as far as politics are concerned. And indifference will breed a bunch of elected officials whom all of us distrust and dislike.

An honest vote MUST be a good vote, for the person who exercises his voting privileges is surely upholding the very principles on which our democracy is founded.

Please don't let politics blind, befuddle, or bewilder you to such an extent that you build an indifferent attitude toward the polls in any election, large or small.

Atomic Power in New York Harbor

Slipping through the waters off the famous New York downtown skyline, the submarine USS Nautilus brings atomic power for the first time to the world's busiest port. The Nautilus has traveled nearly 40,000 miles without refueling since her first sea trial on January 17, 1955. More than 21,000 of the miles have been sailed submerged beneath the ocean's surface. She was built by General Dynamics Corporation at its Electric Boat Division in Groton, Conn., and is the world's first atomic-powered means of transport. Christened by Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Nautilus was launched on January 21, 1954 at Groton where her builders have already launched the second A-sub, the Seawolf, and are now working on three more of the same general type. The Nautilus, the Navy reports, has proven herself "far beyond expectations." She is the first practical demonstration of how atomic energy can be applied to the peaceful purpose of propulsion.

CLIFFORD C. CONNER AND DOUG WARNER take a minute from their work to explain details of the all-new C and W packing plant they are building on Farm Road 58, one mile east of Diboll. A 48x72 concrete slab, holding about 65 yards of concrete, was finished last week, and siding for the plant is now going up.

Conner and Warner said they hoped to have the building completed in another 30 days. N-B Photo

Cubs Trounce Yanks In LL; Two Games Tonight At 6:15

Alf Tidwell's Cubs again proved tough against Dan Fenleys league-leading Yankees last Thursday night at Little League Park —James Arnold shut out the Yanks, 8-0, in a brilliant one hit performance.

Arnold, Crawford, Camp, and Tidwell, Clark, and Stringer walloped Yankee starter Lawrence Capps for a half dozen singles, before Yank ace Tommie Fenley relieved in the fourth. The Cubs continued their hitting against Fenley, however, who just missed absorbing his first defeat in LL play.

In the second game, the cellar bound Dodgers took it on the chin from the second place Indians, 3-1. Murphy registered the win for Moody Smith's team. John Pouland was tagged with the loss.

INDIANS VS. YANKEES

The Indians, now tied for the second place with the Cubs, take on the Yanks tonight in the first game beginning at 6:15. The Dodgers go against the Cubs in the second tilt.

The official season will end on July 24. But there are four make-up games to be played in both the Pony and Little Leagues. Managers have agreed to play them out before the official season ends, according to League President Calvin Lawrence.

a Dog's Life

INTRODUCING THE LEASH

by Bob Bartos
Prominent Dog Authority

A favorite subject of cartoonists is the dog on leash, pulling its owner willy-nilly down the street or winding him up with the leash. You can avoid such not-so-funny situations by teaching your dog to heel, which simply means that the dog walks calmly by your side.

Place the dog on your left and hold the end of the leash in your right hand. Keep it slack, using the left hand to jerk the leash to keep the dog in position or to gain his attention. Command the dog's name and "Heel!" and walk briskly forward. If the dog lags behind or runs ahead, jerk the leash with the left hand, and bring him back into position; then repeat the command. Don't pull him; use sharp jerks on the leash. Make right angle turns to the left and right, keeping the dog in place and repeating the command with each turn.

Along with this lesson, teach the dog to sit whenever you stop. Command "Sit," while pulling up on the leash with the right hand and pushing down on his haunches with the left hand. Don't let him lie down.

When he has mastered the "Sit," his next lesson should be the "Stay." With the dog in a sitting position, drop the leash, extend the left hand, palm open, in front of the dog's face, command "Stay," and walk away. If the dog follows you, take the leash and again go through the heel-sit-stay routine.

"Down" is also taught with the dog in a sitting position. Hold the leash taut with the right hand, and push down with the left hand on the dog's shoulders while giving the command "Down."

Feeding Tips: Hard-working dogs require larger amounts of food than those which lead less active lives. A safe, dependable all-purpose dog food, such as Friskies, provides dogs with all necessary vitamins and minerals.

Dog of the Week: PEKINGESE

Toy classification. Size, medium; weight, extreme limit, 14 pounds. Coat, long with thick undercoat, straight and flat; profuse mane; feathered thighs, legs, tail and toes. Colors: red, fawn, black, sable, brindle, white, parti-colored, black and tan.

Men Who Make America Great

EDWARD HERMAN LITTLE

Chairman of the Board of the huge Colgate-Palmolive Company, now celebrating its 150th Anniversary, Little has been with the firm for over half a century.

In 1902, he joined Colgate & Company as a salesman in North and South Carolina.

In 1919, after serving in a series of increasingly important positions, Little's spectacular rise in the soap industry began when he was appointed New York District Manager, the Company's largest territory.

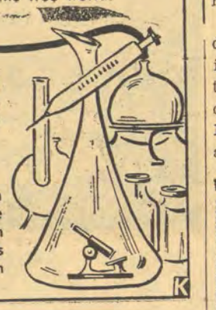

He was made head of foreign sales in 1926. His progressive policies built up foreign markets into what is today Colgate-Palmolive International, selling in over 100 foreign countries in the free world.

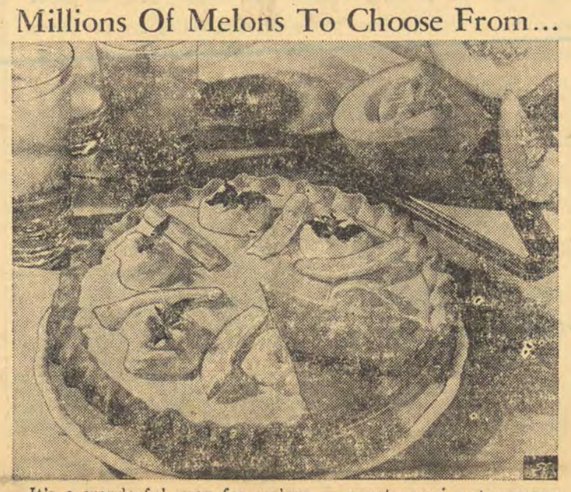

In 1938, Little became President, and in 1953 was appointed Chairman of the Board. For the past 18 years, he has been the firm's Chief Executive Officer.

Under his leadership, the organization has seen its greatest growth and, of even more importance to Little, revolutionary new products have been placed on the market contributing to America's emergence as the cleanest, healthiest country in the world.

Millions Of Melons To Choose From...

It's a wonderful year for melons — great green watermelons, pale yellow honeydews, knobby Persians. Most widely grown of all — and most universally favored — is the cantaloupe. Sliced and eaten "as is" with salt or sugar, lemon or lime, there's nothing better than a sweet, ripe cantaloupe. But next time you have one, be adventurous . . . use a few slices of the delectable fruit in a new way — to make a real conversation piece of a simple pie like this one. Make a cream filling easily and thriftily with vanilla pie filling mix and evaporated milk. Turn it into a baked pie shell, then garnish with slices of cantaloupe and mint-topped whipped cream, for an exotic and perfectly delicious dessert to be served in the grand manner.

Vanilla Fluff Pie

1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
1 cup evaporated milk
2 egg yolks
2/3 cup water
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 egg whites
3 tablespoons sugar
1 baked 8- or 9-inch pie shell
6 melon slices
whipped cream
mint

Combine pie filling mix and 1/4 cup of the milk in saucepan. Add 2 egg yolks and blend well. Add remaining milk and 2/3 cup water. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat, add vanilla, and beat with egg beater if necessary to make filling smooth. Set aside. Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add sugar, one tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Then continue beating until meringue will stand in peaks. Fold slightly cooled mixture very slowly into meringue. Pour into pie shell. Chill. Makes 6 servings. Garnish with six melon slices and six mounds of whipped cream. Add a sprig of mint to each mound if desired.

Mr. McElroy has been with the Texas Power and Light Co. since July, 1947, serving as an assistant engineer and power consultant trainee until 1950 when he was made commercial manager of the company's Waco district.

During the construction of the Sandow power plant for the Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works, Mr. McElroy was the Texas Power and Light representative in the East, and working with manufacturers of materials for the plant.

He returned to the Executive department in the Dallas office in October, 1953, remaining until his appointment as an industrial consultant in the Area Development division in January of the present year.

"Miss Frankfurt Of 1956"

FRANKFURT, GERMANY — Posed majestically on her silver and gold throne here is "Miss Frankfurt of 1956," Ursula Siebert, after she won the regional contest. A student in a Frankfurt cosmetics school, she is 18 years old. She will compete for the "Miss Germany" title this summer at Baden-Baden.

What Is Prosperity?

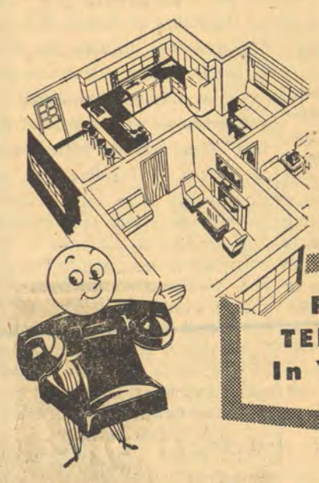

Our prosperity is more than an awesome statistic of gross national product, or of record high employment, or a fatter pay envelope. It is more than numbers of automobiles, TV sets telephones, or bathtubs per capita. It is more than a comfortable bank balance or a comfortable home. In the final analysis, American prosperity is—Freedom.

Orders

The man who does not know how to receive orders is not fit to issue them to others. But the individual who knows how to execute the orders given him is preparing the way to issue orders, and better still—to have them obeyed.

New Office Slated To Open August 1st

H. C. White, Sr. of Templet-White Co., Inc, said here Monday he expected to have his office force operating from the new 30,000 office building here by August 1, 1956.

Mr. White said that the new officers would be outfited with new furniture, and a new style heating-cooling system. The new building contains 2800 feet of floor space.

Cage Bird Population Zooms, Census Shows

ROCHESTER, N.Y.—Nearly a quarter of all U.S. homes have at least one fine feathered friend in residence.

This fact came to light in the 1956 nationwide pet census conducted by French's Pet Bird Institute here. Their latest beak-counting revealed that more than 19 million pet birds live in some 11 million homes—an increase of nearly 300 per cent in the past five years.

Main reason for the increase is the zooming popularity of parakeets. These colorful little talking birds have multiplied from a mere 1.3 million five years ago to more than 14 million today—an increase of 1,000 per cent.

Canaries, whose number have remained fairly constant in the past four years, appear to be staging a comeback. The census shows an increase of 12 per cent, to five million birds, in the past year.

Although cats and dogs, perennially favorite American pets, still lead the pet parade by a comfortable margin (28 million cats and 27 million dogs), they increased in numbers only slightly during the past year. If the current trend continues, cage birds may some day eclipse them as household favorites.

Why are parakeets so popular? Probably because they are colorful, amusing, friendly, talkative, and easy to care for. Because of their size, they fit in with the trend to smaller homes and apartments. Also, they are particular favorites with the older generation, a constantly growing group, and with the postwar crop of youngsters now reaching the pet age.

Tips on Touring

By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Good grooming while on the road is a must for all women motorists. You'll look better and feel better, and that'll make you a safer driver.

It's easy to be well groomed, no matter how far you get from home. In my coast-to-coast touring as Women's Travel Director of Shell Oil Company, I've picked up lots of good-grooming travel tips. Here are some you may find useful:

For a quick travel facial when soap and water isn't available, use astringent pads. They're cooling and revitalizing and will remove old tired make-up in a jiffy.

Hand lotion pillows, encased in individual envelopes, can be carried in your purse. They provide just the right amount of lotion for a quick application after washing. And they eliminate the necessity of carrying a bottle of lotion.

Carry some soap sheets in your handbag. They'll be welcome should you find a restroom that's run out of soap.

For nightly laundering of lingerie and hosiery, pack soap pellets or concentrated detergents in capsule form. They take up hardly any space and come in handy many times.

After you've combed or brushed your hair, keep it in place with hair sprays or lacquer pads. The latter are disposable when exhausted.

Stick colognes can serve as excellent pick-me-ups. For best revitalizing results, rub the cologne on the back of the neck and the temples.

During summer car trips, keep make-up as light as possible. If you can get away with it, don't use a make-up base. Forget about face powder while you're driving.

To avoid eye strain, pause in the afternoon to bathe your eyes with eye wash. Carry a little in one of those squeezable plastic bottles.

Look and feel your best to have the best time on your trip.

Always begin somewhere. You can't build a reputation what you are going to do.

FLAGS of TRIUMPH

To remind Americans of our ancestors' battle for the liberties we enjoy today, Procter & Gamble presents some famous flags and their history.

OLIVER PERRY FLAG
At the Naval battle of Lake Erie on September 10th, 1813, Oliver Hazard Perry, the Commander, was called on to surrender. His answer was to repeat the dying words of Captain James Lawrence: "Don't give up the ship." Perry won the battle.

INUTEMAN FLAG
Used by the Culpepper County Minutemen of Virginia. The rattlesnake was used as a symbol of eternal vigilance. Rattlesnakes never attack but, once aroused, never surrender. In use 1775.

IBERTY TREE FLAG
Adopted by Massachusetts in 1776 to commemorate the tree under which the Sons of Liberty met just before the Boston Tea Party. British General Gage ordered the tree cut down.

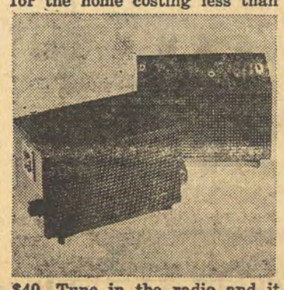

ORT MOULTRIE FLAG
This flag flew above Fort Moultrie (then Fort Sullivan) in Charleston Harbor during the battle of June 28th, 1776. It was struck down and a Sgt. William Jasper replaced it under a rain of bullets, crying, "Don't let us fight without a flag."

ENNINGTON FLAG
This flag was carried at the Battle of Bennington, August 16th, 1777. Here the British forces under Burgoyne were turned back by Ethan Allen's Green Mountain Boys.

ONTINENTAL FLAG
Carried at the Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17th, 1775. It was at this battle that the Continentals first showed their mettle.

Listen For Baby—Pay For Your Picnic

Inventors are always coming up with new ways to make living easier and more fun, and pictured here are two recent examples. Below is the new Sylvania "Phone-Radio," a two-unit radio and intercommunications system for the home costing less than $40. Tune in the radio and it plays through both units; flip a switch and they become an intercom system so you can listen for baby, talk back and forth between house and barn or from room to room. From the same company is the "Prospector," pictured below, a portable radio with built-in Geiger counter, compass and sundial. Just think—next time you're on a picnic, you can look for uranium too . . . and find your way home if you get lost!

Life is ten per cent what you make it and ninety per cent how you take it. .

Men who hang around waiting for something to turn up, should begin with their own sleeves.

See . . . I told you we had our own SUPER-MARKET!

You Save on the cost of Food, too!

You save by buying foods in quantity, and at in-season low prices.

"Yeah, but you didn't say it was an electric home food freezer." "It's practically the same thing! Mom used to drive to the store every day, nearly. Now she goes only once a week . . . even just once a month lots of times. An' she still has everything right here in the house to cook any kind of meal she wants."

"My Mom has one, too . . . and she even cooks several meals beforehand . . . sort of like havin' a cook every other day . . . as well as a supermarket."

'Silk Stockings' To Be State Fair Feature

Dallas—If "Ninotchka" was the motion picture in which Garbo "laughed", its musical version "Silk Stockings" is slated to keep State Fair Musicals' audiences laughing from July 9 til July 22. "Silk Stockings" is the third of the seasons' State Fair Musicals productions.

The recent Broadway hit returns Allan Jones to the State Fair Auditorium stage for the first time since his record stay in the State Fair's "Guys and Dolls". As the Soviet Delegate to Paris will be lovely Jan Sherwood whose classic blond beauty is not unlike that of the famous Garbo.

The hit of the Broadway cast was Gretchen Wyler who repeats her roleatthe State Fair Musicals.

"Silk Stockings" concerns a delegation from the Soviet Union who come to frown on the gay city of Paris. One of the delegates is a lovely blond whose beauty is hidden under an austure uniform. A handsome Embassy attache and all of the luxuries design to appeal to the feminine heart cause the Communist downfall.

"Silk Stockings" is the 25th show to be blessed by lyrics and music by Cole Porter. Abe Burrows wrote the book.

56 Signers Make Good Showing

The 56 stout-hearted (they faced hanging for insurrection against the British) patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence didn't just go to their homes after that bold act and forget about it. They then fought for the convictions they had subscribed to — and after the shooting was over, they worked for them—to make them work.

Two of the signers became a president — Jefferson and Adams — and one, Elbridge Gerry, became Vice President, Several became Governors, others state legislators.

CLEAN UP—PAINT UP

A man worries about what the future has in store but a woman worries about what the stores have in the future.

If you were to lay all the sausage casings produced in the U. S. annually end to end, they would form a tube 940,000 miles long—no baloney.
