The following notes were taken from Mrs. Courtney's genealogy of the King & Queen Co Hill family;

Col. Humphry Hill, the son of Thomas Hill and Edith Bell, (his wife) of London, England, was born in 1706 and educated at Blue Coat School, connected with Christ Church Hospital. He emigrated to America in 1722 and lived first at Tappahannock, then called Hobbe's Hold, in Essex Co, Va. He afterwards settled a place which he called Hillsborough on the Mattaponi River in King & Queen Co. Va. There he was a successful merchant, dealing much in tobacco, which he shipped in his own vessels. He married Frances Baylor daughter of Col. Robert Baylor and his wife (who was Hannah Gregory whose father, Richard Gregory married Mary or Ann Whiting. This Richard Gregory was an Englishman.

The children of Col. Humphry Hill and Frances Baylor were as follows:

(1) Edward Hill married Frances Baylor (his mother's niece).
(2) Ann Hill married Isaac Dabney.
(3) Frances Hill married Baylor Walker; children, Humphry, Sackey and Fannie.
(4) MARY HILL married JOSEPH TEMPLE, see other corner of sheet.
(5) Baylor Hill married Mary Brooke.
(6) John Hill (of Mayfair) married Mary Elliott.
(7) Robert Hill married Hannah Garlick.
(8) William Hill married Betsy Baylor.
(9) Elizabeth Hill married Samuel Garlick.
(10) Humphry Hill.

The following is copied from THE BALTIMORE SUN under their Geneology Notes of April 1st 1906.

Joseph Temple, a relative of Sir William Temple, settled in King William Co Va. He was a wealthy merchant. Joseph Temple married Ann, daughter of Benjamin Arnal. They resided at Presquisle, their estate in King William Co. where he died. Joseph Temple was a member of the Comite of Safety for King William Co. in 1774, and also a member of the Order of the Cincinnati. The children of Joseph and Ann Arnal Temple were: (1) Joseph, (2) Liston, (3) William, (4) Benjamin, (5) Samuel (6) Hannah (7) Sallie, (8) Mollie, (9) Martha, (10) Nancy.

(1) Joseph Temple, oldest son of Joseph and Ann Arnal Temple, married Molly, daughter of Col. Humphrey Hill. Dr. Moseley, of Baltimore, has several pieces of silver with the Temple coat of Arms, which he inherited.

(2) Liston Temple, married Agnes, the daughter of Dr Elliot.

(3) William Temple married Miss Cownes of Cownes. He left the United States and went to England and was never heard from.

(4) Benjamin Temple son of Joseph and Ann Temple, married Mollie Brooke Baylor, daughter of Mollie Brooke and Robert Baylor. They had several children and numerous descendants. Benjamin Temple son of Benjamin, served in the Revolution of 1776. He was made captain of Virginia Dragoons June 15, 1776; lieutenant-colonel of Continental dragoons March 31, 1777, and served to the close of the war. He equiped his regiment at his own expense, and when, years afterwards, tried to recover indemnity, they found he had presented it to the United States Government.

(5) Samuel Temple, son of Joseph and Ann Temple, married Fannie Redd of Caroline County, Virginia.

(6) Hannah, daughter of Joseph and Ann Temple married Owen Gwathmey of Burlington, King Wm Co Va.

(7) Sallie, daughter of Joseph and Ann Temple, married John Tunstall, son of Col. Tunstall of King & Queen Co.

(8) Mollie, daughter of Joseph and Ann Temple married Col. Thomas Elliot son of Benjamin Elliot.

(9) Martha, daughter of Joseph and Ann Temple, married Benjamin Elliot, son of Benjamin.

(10) Nancy or Ann, daughter of Joseph and Ann Temple, married William Fleet, born October 19, 1726, the first of that family to settle in King & Queen Co.

Col Robert Temple of Ampthill, Chesterfield Co Va, son of Col Benjamin of the Revolution, married Elizabeth Skyren daughter of Rev William Henry Skyrén and his wife Lucy Moore.

In 1774 Rev. Skyren married Lucy, continued below

JOSEPH TEMPLE
SETTLED PRESQUISLE KING WM CO VA
MARRIED
ANN ARNOLD
DAUGHTER OF BENJAMIN ARNOLD

Joseph Temple lived at Chatham Hill in King & Queen Co across Mattaponi River from Presquisle within partish of Mary Hill

Mr Willie Temple of Texarkana, Ark (mentioned within this circle) has in his possession a snuff box which he inherited and on which is carved the Temple court of arms, as shown above, and the name William Temple 1719.

Temple

This circle was constructed from one made by Rev. Jos. W. Shackford about 1875.

J. Hemley Mackey Aug 1918

yoningest daughter of General Bernard Moore and his wife Kate Spotswood eldest daughter of Gov Alexander Spotswood. Years afterwards Rev. Mr Skyren moved to Hampton where after officiating for six years he died, universally beloved and lamented. His tomb is still to be seen. He was an elegant gentleman and an accomplished scholar, all is remarkable for his eloquence and piety. A relial witness says that when Mr Skyren preached in the old Acquinton Church King Wm county the church was always so crowded, that the people used to bring seats with them and fill up the isle after the pews were filled. His sons never married, so the name became extinct in Virginia with the death of Col John Spotswood Skyren.

The children of Col Robert Temple of Ampthill and his wife Elizabeth Skyren were: (1) Mollie Brooke Temple who married Thomas R Crouch of Richmond Va (2) Benjamin Temple, who married Lucy Lillie Robinson, daughter of William Robinson and Elizabeth Lilly, daughter of Thomas Lilly. William Robinson was a grandson of Col. Christopher Robinson of Hewie, Middlesex Co. (3) Ann Catherine Temple, second wife of Col James Hugh Henry of King & Queen Co Va. (4) Henry Temple, married Caroline Gillian of Southampton Co Va. (5) Elizabeth Skyren Temple married William F Taylor of Manchester Va. (6) Lucy Moore Temple died unmarried. (7) Charlott Carter Temple died unmarried. (8) Maria Bernard Temple married Thomas Robideau Wolfe of Clarke Co Va. (9) Robertine Temple married Robert A Grinnan of Orange Co Va.

The children of Ann Catherine, who married Col. James Hugh Henry were: (1) a daughter, (2) Robert Temple Henry (3) Spottswood (4) Edward Moore Henry, married Indiana Virginia Kilby; their children were: (a) James Hugh Henry (b) Annie Kilby Henry. (c) Edward Moore Henry jr (5) Benjamin Temple Henry (6) Pattrick Wise Henry, married Elizabeth Ruth of Texas; their children were, Brook Temple Henry and Mary Catharine Henry.

In this issue of The Sun is shown a photograph of the Temple hunting cup which was presented by Charles II of England to Sir William Temple for his adherance to him. When the Temple Homestead in King William Co. was destroyed by fire many years ago, all the silverware was lost, but this cup was saved by having been used that night to give a dose of medicine to a negro slave and left in his quarters. Motto. Cujus nos umbra tuetur Arbor honoretur