TP&L to bolster electric service to Lufkin area

Texas Power & light company will bolster electric service to the Lufkin area in 1978, according to TP&L District Manager James Kerbo.

Kerbo says the company will construct a 345,000-volt transmission line from Mount Enterprise to the company's Nacogdoches its Stryker Creek plant or its Martin Lake generator facility via the existing Nacogdoches-Lufkin tranmission link.

These improvements are part of a record $326,800,-00 construction expenditure the company plans to make in 1978.

The expenditures will be necessary, Kerbo said, to meet the growing re-l quirements of TP&L customers and is part of the company's long-range planning to endure an adequate supply of electricity in the future. TP&L is now serving some 622,000 customers in 425 cities, towns and communities in 51 counties of Texas.

Kerbo said 79%of these construction expenditures it earmarked for new electricy generating plants and tranmission facilities. These new generating facilities, which make use of lignighte coal and nuclear fuel, are nessery because of the uncertianties of suppy and price od natrual gas unavailable in sufficientquantity for generating the electricity required by TP&L coustomers.

The TP&L manager noted the company foresaw the need to convert to alternate fuels and begun working toward this goal in the late 1940's leasing large lignite deposits for future use. The company began using lignigte for generating electricity in 1972. By 1977, 35% of the electricity supplied toTP&L customers was generated will reach 54% when two additional generating units are placed in service.

"Since 1972, when our first lignite unit went into service, our customers have had to pay much less in fuel costs than they would have if we had continued to use 100% gas and oil."

Kerbo said, "In the year ended Sept. 30, 1977, that savings amounted to $86.9 million, about $48.00 for the typical residential customer.

"The progress of our conversion program is such," Kerbo continued, "That in 1978, Texas Power and Light will become one of few electric utilities in the country to experience a declining fuel cost per kilowatt hour."

Long-range planning calls for 72 per-cent lignite generation 14% from nuclear units and the remainder from gas, oil and New Mexico coal by 1987.

TP&L and two affiliate companies constructed the Big Brown Steam Electric Station near Fairfeild, where two 575,000 kilowatt generating units went into operation in 1972.

In 1974 the three companies completed and placed in service a 575,000 kilowatt lignite unit in the Monticello Steam Electric Station near Mount Pleasant. A second 575,000-kilowatt unit went on line there in 1975. A third unit with a 750,000-kilowatt capacity is due for service at Monticello by May of 1978.

In March of 1977, the first 750,000-kilowatt lignite generating unit went into service at Martin Lake near Henderson. and a second unit is due to go on-line by May,1978.Martin Lake, the largest generating facility ever constructed by the company, will ultimately consist of four 750,00-kilowatt units, with the remaining units due for service in 1979 and 1983.

While the major portion of TP&L's construction expenditures will involve new generating facilities, the company will make substantial investments in building new or making improvements to existing transmission and distribution lines, substations, and switching stations throghout the system.

TFA sets membership record

Shed no tears for Stan Lindsey, chairman of the Texas Forestry Association Membership and Finance Committee.

By mid-December, TFA's membership stood at 2,883—a figure somewhat shy of the 3,000 mark that Lindsey had set as his 1977 goal.

But the 2,883 figure—even if it should grow no more—should suffice, since it:

1). Will stand as the all-time TFA record, at least for now.

2). Continues a three-year boom in memberships that has seen TFA grow from 1,840 members in 1974 to the current 2,883, an increase of 36 percent since '74.

3). Puts the new chairman, Harry Williams, within striking distance of the magic 3,000 mark and leaves the Williams committee a target at which to shoot.

The growth during the past year, which amounts to an additional 302 members and a 12 percent boost over 1976, also continues a momentum of growth which has seemed to sustain itself.

The pattern for the past three years shows jumps from 1,840 to 2,109, or 15 percent, from 1974 to 1975; from 2,109 to 2,581, or 22 percent, from 1975 to 1976; and from 2,581 to 2,883 and still counting, or at least 12 percent, from 1976 to 1977.

TFA leaders are hoping that the trend will continue during the term of service of the Williams committee and those of future committees.

Congressman Wilson officially announces for re-election

Congressman Charles Wilson has announced his candidacy for re-election to the United States House of Representatives from the Second District of Texas.

In a short statement, the East Texas Congressman said that he intends to wage his usual vigorous campaign, based on his consistent support of Texas interests in national energy policy, a strong national defense, and most of all, his record of personal service to the more than 500,000 people of the Second District.

Congressman Wilson said a longer policy statement would be forthcoming as the primary date of May 6 draws near.

A people problem

Alan Miller's
T-WHEELER

By ALAN MILLER, Director, Public Information
Temple-Eastex Incorporated

I feel like a broken record sometimes, harping on federal regulations, and what they are doing to our individual decision-making, but about the time I think they have run out of things to regulate back there on the Potomac, out comes another press release.

The latest one from Secretary Califano of Health, Education and Welfare, really has me wondering.

Mr. Califano quit smoking four or five years ago, and as an any two-pack-a-day man can tell you, a reformed smoker is like a reformed drunk; everybody is going to know about it, and everybody should follow his example.

I had always thought that the most cleverly done commercials on television were the cigarette ads. The handsome cowboys, the cute jingles, and way back when they were among the first color television commercials on the tube.

Well, they're gone now, and we're stuck with feminine hygiene and squeezable toilet tissue.

But, back to Mr. Califano.

We are now going to be advertising blitzed with $23,000,000 worth of our taxes to remind us that cigarettes can send you to an early grave. The Surgeon General has been telling us that for ten years of more, but Califano is in the driver's seat now.

You may remember that before the Government decided cigarette advertising would no longer be allowed on television, the networks were forced to run an equal number of public service announcements telling us how bad cigarettes were.

And from all appearances, the cigarette manufacturers took all that in stride. They just converted their advertising dollars to the printed media, and the magazines and newspapers went to the bank with the money.

Mr. Califano wants no more smoking in public places, no smoking on airplanes, and there must be a few other no-nos I haven't caught up with yet.

The one part of his arguement that goes over the top of my head however, is why are we spending $23 million dollars in tax money to stop all of us from smoking, and then spending $93,000,000 in tax money to subsidize the tobacco farmers?

And before a delegation from Kentucky fords the Neches River on their way to East Texas, I'm not advocating we cut off the subsidy, I'm just trying to figure out why we are wasting millions of dollars to stop people from buying something the government is already paying for.

How would you like to be a Civics teacher explaining that to the students?

Perhaps, what we should do, is sue the Indians for the money -- the $23,000,000 we are spending to quit smoking, and the $93,000,000 we are spending to grow tobacco.

After all, wasn't it the Indians that hooked Sir Walter Raleigh?

I don't think it's going to make a pipefull of difference what Mr. Califano does.

The administration needs the votes the tobacco states deliver -- the radio and TV networks will be glad to get the money the Government spends to advertise "Don't Smoke", and everybody gets a piece of the apple.

Isn't that the essence of our democratic system? Something for everybody.

THANK YOU,

GREATER LUFKIN FORD

Humane Society works to stop suffering

It has been said so many times that is has almost become a cliche, but there is much truth in the expression, "The large number of homeless animals is not an animal problem, but a people problem."

The Humane Society of the United States estimates that there are 80 to 100 million cats and dogs in the nation, with 2,000 to 3,500 more being born every hour. The problem is increased by irresponsible pet dealers and owners and amateur breeders. According to Dan Emerson, Angelina County Animal Control Officer, a major step in curbing the animal overpopulation problem is educating the public. Until the public becomes more informed, however, the problem remains and it is the job of the Humane Society and Animal Control Officers to do their best to keep the situation under control.

The Angelina County Humane Society, which operates the Winnie Berry Animal Shelter near Ellen Trout Zoo, has a motto on its office wall which says, "Our purpose is not to save lives, but to prevent suffering." Horror stories about animals being kept for a certain number of days before being euthanized, healthy or not, which usually stem from the shelters in larger cities, do not hold true in the Angelina County shelter. Emerson points out that the only animals which are put to sleep at the Winnie Berry Shelter are those who are seriously sick or injured have a personality which will never allow them to become adoptable.

At any given time, the shelter houses 30 to 50 homeless animals which, on the most part, are loving pets that are simply waiting for a home. As long as the shelter can take care of the animal it will be kept indefinitely.

Caring for the animals runs into a great deal of money for food, medicine and similar requirements. The City of Lufkin and Angelina County help with the costs, but the majority of the funds come from the membership fees from members of the Humane Society and contributions. In the past, members have even held garage sales to help cover the cost of caring for the animals.

Membership in the Angelina County Humane Society costs $4 for a single membership and $6 for a family memberhsip. Contributions are also accepted. This money is used, among other things to keep the shelter clean and disease free, to provide veterinary medical care for sick or injured animals, to help find homes for animals, to provide low cost spaying and neutering animals and to help combat the problem of overpopulation.

The hope of the Humane Society is to alleviate, and hopefully eliminate, the pain and suffering inflicted on helpless animals, both wild and domestic, through care, concern, cooperation and action. # Letter to the Editor

Dear Ms. White:

On behalf of the Angelina County Unit of The American Cancer Society, I wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the magnificent articles which you published in the Lufkin Home Banner regarding our "On-Stage" fund raising event.

This was tremendous publicity for our production and I am sure it contributed much to its success. As I had told you earlier, our overhead had been covered by contributions and our total ticket sales was in the amount of $1,125.50 which all went directly to the Cancer Society.

Again, thank you for the beforehand coverage and for the article last week regarding the area churches which participated. We appreciate this very much.

Sincerely,
Phillis Walton, President
Angelina County Unit
American Cancer Society.

Demand and supply of fed beef on increase

There should be plenty of fed beef on hand to satisfy consumers during the year ahead, and consumer demand should also be up.

"This points to a somewhat better year for cattle producers," says Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The amount of fed beef will generally be larger than in 1977, at least through the first half of the year, although the amount of "other" beef from cows and non-fed steers and heifers will be down from a year ago.

"Demand should also be boosted in 1978 due to increases in Social Security payments, proposed tax reductions, changes in the Food Stamp Program, a substantial gain in minimum wages, and continued growth in the general economic activity of the country," contends Uvacek.

"Fed cattle prices may weaken a bit during the first calendar quarter but should gather strength by the middle of the second quarter," believes the specialist. "Lowest prices could come by late March and highest prices in June or July. Feeder cattle should follow about this same price pattern. Plenty of rain this spring could cause producers to temporarily overprice feeder types."

Choice fed slaughter steers in Amarillo should average about $41-$43 per hundred weight during the first quarter, then push upward to about the $43-$45 level for the April-June period. Heavier feeders will be priced close to feds from January to March, but price premiums are almost certain by the second quarter.

"The picture is improving, therefore, for most cattlemen although we still have a long way to go," contends Uvacek.

Senior citizens enjoy benefits, travel in Autumn Club

Retired persons who are looking for a way to improve their social lives, an inexpensive way to travel or would like to keep informed through a variety of programs have an organization in Lufkin that provides these services, designed specifically for them.

The Autumn Club, sponsored by Home Savings and Loan, provides its members with notary service, free travelers checks investment counseling as well as other services. In addition, there are monthly meetings, which feature speakers on subjects of interest to senior citizens, and trips. In the past, club members have traveled to a Houston Oiler football game, twice attended a Houston dinner theatre and made a trip to the Folklife Festival in Austin in addition to other activities.

Upcoming trips which are being offered to Autumn Club members include visits to Paris, Holland, the Bahamas and the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn. On the agenda for February is a slide presentation of the King Tut exhibit.

Approximately 340 persons between ages of 58 and 90 years gathered in Lufkin Civic Center Dec. 13 for the Autumn Club's Christmas celebration. The celebration featured a dinner, singing and gift exchanges among other things. A total of 62 door prizes, donated by area merchants, were given away.

One of the senior citizens who was present at the celebration was heard to say as she was leaving the affair, "I believe that this has been the best Christmas season I've had in 20 years. I don't go to many parties because I'm never invited. "This attitude, according to Nancy Mewbourn Club organizer, is all too reflective of the way senior citizens are often ignored or forgotten.

The Autumn Club is open to any person who is fully retired and has a minimum $5 savings account at Home Savings.

Book Review

by Emily Kistler & Judy Semlinger

"God's Images, The Bible: A New Vision" is the combined vision of the poet James Dickey and artist Marvin Hayes, who have each made a contemporary journey into the heart of our Judeo-Christian tradition--the Holy Bible--and have emerged with a powerful new testimony to its truth and majesty.

Hayes has chosen as his medium of expression that most delicate and intricate of fine art forms, the etching. Working with small, almost infinitely small gradations, he has painstakingly cross-stitched in copper a magnificent suite of 53 scenes and personages from the Old and New Testaments.

Responding as poet to Hayes's artistic visions, Dickey has created a series of deeply personal commentaries. The result of this collaboration is both an artistic and religious experience: poet and artist have newly resurrected the men and women of the Bible and have brought them forth, alive and living in our own time.

Certainly niether Dickey nor Hayes (who, by the way, studied art at Texas A&M) wishes to supersede or in any way substitute his interpretation of the Bible for yours. The authors would like to think, however, that their Biblical visions, their images of God's images, may serve to enrich and add new dimension to your life.

For many years, Paul Harvey's listerners and readers have been intrigued by the unusual heartbeats -- sometimes startling, but true -- which he calls "The Rest of the Story." Paul Aurandt has written a book entitled "Paul Harvey's The Rest of the Story".

The author has captured Harvey's dramatic style in exploring the by ways of history in often amusing revelations. Paul Aurandt is making his publishing debut, but is a concert pianist and composer. He holds a master's degree in music from Chicago Musical College, and in his epilogue you will find the rest of the story."

Not since "The Eagle Has Landed" and "The Day of the Jackal" has these been a novel with the tension, excitement and sheer narrative power of "KG 200" -- a novel that uncovers one of the most extraordinary untold dramas of World War II.

"KG 200", by J.D. Gilman and John Clive, was the best-hedden fighting force of the war. It was a top-secret squadron of the German Air Force, its individual units unkown even to one another and the squadron itself totally unknown to the rest of the German was machine. Even today, despite the authors' research in nine countries and interviews with former military personnel actively involved in "KG 200", a cloud of silence still hangs over the operation and its objectives. For this reason, the story must be told as fiction, but all incidents in the novel actually did take place.

This top secret unit of the German Air Force fought its own war with captured or rebuilt Allied planes. An RAF squadron leader and an American Army Air Force officer are assigned to track it down in a mission that takes them into occupied Norway and into the skies over London for a last desperate battle.

RSVP volunteers outline 1978 objectives

Both Diboll and Lufkin RSVP volunteers met recently to receive reports from their officers and to establish their objectives for 1978. The business session in Diboll was chaired by President Estelle Sunderland and the business meeting in Lufkin by Vice President Elmarie Cook in the absence of President Barbary Hutson.

The Diboll group made plans to present the Childrens' Hospital Service League with a check for $130.13, which amount represents one-third their net profits for the preceding six months. They also voted to present another check to be applied toward the revolving fund for the purchase of orthopedic appliances for senior citizens by the Wilson McKewen Treatment Center. Members discussed the Diboll Days booth and float, the possibility of taking a one day trip in the spring, and made preparations to host the senior Volunteers of Crockett, who will be visiting the Diboll Swingers Rhythm Band on Jan. 20 when the band holds a practice session at Fair Acres.

Angelina County Juvenile Probation Office Mason Bryant met with the Lufkin volunteers on Jan. 10 to discuss the volunteers' concern over the fact that the RSVP office has been burglarized twice by juveniles. Mr. Bryant stressed to the volunteers the responsibility of the community in general and of the children's parents in particular in seeing that the high juvenile crime rate is decreased. He said that 61 per cent of all crimes committed in Lufkin are juvenile crimes and that 38 per cent of the juveniles committing crimes are repeat offenders.

Following Mr. Bryant's presentation, volunteers discussed the causes of juvenile crime, including excessive viewing of television violence, some children's dislike of school, and lack of responsibility on the part of parents of juveniles. Mr. Bryant pointed out that parents can and have served jail time for failure to supervise their children properly and that they can be fined $10 per day per child when their children are not in school. He stressed the necessity for parents to monitor their children's T.V. watching habits and said that parents absolutely should not allow their children to watch violent programs.

Volunteers discussed ways in which they might make contact with children in their neighborhoods in order to show the children that they are interested and concerned. They also made plans to consider a new philanthropic project, perhaps one benefitting juveniles, at the business meeting scheduled for Feb. 7 in the RSVP office. Before adjourning they decided to invite Mrs. Emma Irick to address them at their Jan. 24 luncheon at the Senior Citizens' Center on the occasion of her 90th birthday.

Bethel Church opens day care center

Bethel Church of the Nazarene has recently opened a Day Care Center which, according to Director Jackie Yates, combines a learning experience with an atmosphere of Christian love and understanding.

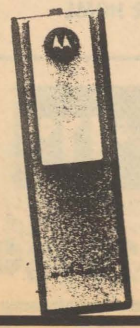

For a charge of $5 a day, the child is provided with snacks and a meal in addition to lessons which include both art and music each day.

The Day Care Center is open five days a week from 7 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. Several of the children, however, attend the Center just for a few hours in the mornings to take advantage of the learning experience. The Center is licensed for 27 children and presently has a staff of five "qualified and very creative teachers", according to Mrs. Yates.

Mrs. Yates adds that one of the most important lessons that is taught to the children that attend the Bethel Church of the Nazarene Day Care Center is to share and be considerate of others' feelings.

Jaycees to sponsor Miss Lufkin pageant in February

The Lufkin Jaycees will again sponsor the Miss Lufkin Pageant in February, Mike Allbritton, President, announced Monday.

Winner of the pageant will enter the Miss Texas Pageant to select the state Queen who will compete for the crown of Miss American in the national competition at Atlantic City, New Jersey in September.

"We are again serving as the sponsors of the pageant this year because we believe it provides a valuable contribution to the community and to the young ladies who will enter the competition," Allbritton said, in announcing the plans of his organization.

"We believe it serves the community well because it focuses attention on the high calibre of young ladies who are residents of our area and we believe it serves youth well because it provides the opportunity for the young ladies who compete to gain added poise through public appearances and to gain added maturity through participation in a community program such as the Miss Lufkin Pageant," Allbritton added.

"Most importantly, it will provide the opportunity for the girl who is the winner to continue to seek scholarship awards at the Miss Texas Pageant, which will aid her in obtaining an education at the college of her choice," the President said.

In announcing that this organization plans continuation of the Miss Lufkin Pageant sponsorship, Allbritton said it will be held at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 11th at the Lufkin Civic Center.

He also announced that committees to plan the program have been formed and that organizations in the area are being requested to sponsor contestants for the pageant.

"This will be a community endeavor and we in the Lufkin Jaycees are sure all in the community will participate to insure its success," Albritton commented in making the announcement.

Panthers down Longview; clinche first half district crown

When Lufkin downed the Longview Lobos last week they clinched the first half crown in district 14 4-A, not bad for the unknowns.

When the district race started no mention was made of the Lufkin Panthers, being undefeated at the halfway mark will certainly change that.

Last week's victory over Longview was a close and competitive game but the outcome was never really in doubt. From the onset the pace was set by the Panthers. At the end of the half the score was close but the tempo was Lufkin's.

The second half started with the Panthers asserting themselves and they slowly took control of the game. The big gun for the pack was Chris Wortham, who contributed 34 points and 13 rebounds in the win. He was followed in the scoring column by Ken Johnson with 15, Andre Hall with 13 and Danny Harsfield with 11.

Another big contribution to the Panther win was made by reserve guard Ronnie Blake. Blake was involved in many heady plays on both offense and defense and overall he covered the court like a blanket.

This victory was another of many team efforts by the pack and so far they proved it's the way they can win. Whenever the game seems to swing over to the opponent the Panthers have someone to bring it back. In every district game this season they rise to the occasion. The aggressive hustle they display always gets the needed rebound, or the diving pass.

Lufkin may not be the best team in the league, but before they're convinced otherwise somebody's going to have to beat them. Easier said than done.

From my corner....

by Jim Daher

I just finished reading the one millionth word written on the officiating this year in the N.F.L. and of course being somewhat opinionated I have some comments of my own.

Most of what has been printed regards some of the calls made late in the season, and in the playoffs. According to the reports, the Denver Bronco's made it to the Super Bowl because of a quick whistle on a fumble. This play occurred in the Oakland game and Ray Davis hasn't quieted down yet. My opinion is that the whole idea of criticizing the officials is hogwash.

This year, in the N.F.L., there were approximately 33,940 calls made by the officials and not very many of them were questioned. A great deal of those calls were made under very pressure-packed situations, and even those were

HOW WOULD A GRANDMOTHER WITH $225,000.00 INVEST HER MONEY, IF SHE IS PRUDENT?

Grandmother's investment total $225,000, some of it representing proceeds from her husband's life insurance. This gives her an investment income of approximately $10,000 per year, which is supplemented by social security payments. After many years of a full, active life she is reluctant to reduce her scale of living any more than necessary. She likes to do a little traveling -- as much as her income and savings will allow -- and she delights in giving grandchildren some of the things that are beyond the reach of young parents' budgets. Hence, grandmother, in the autumn of life, feels that income and conservative use of principal are more important to them than long-term growth.

With such investment objectives, and with her income subject to one of the lower tax rates, grandmother holds between sixty and seventy per cent of her investments in good quality, fixed-income securities -- mostly corporate bonds. A few preferred stocks were also bought. The remainder is held in high quality common stocks, two of which appear to have superior growth prospects to provide some further possibility of protecting the purchasing power of her income in case of rising costs.

ON BUSINESS TERMS

Preferred Stock

A class of stock with a claim onthe company's earnings before payment may be made on the common stock and usually entitled to priority over common stock if company liquidates. Usually entitled to dividends at a specified rate--when declared by the Board of Directors and before payment of a dividend on the common stock--depending upon the terms of the issue.

DO YOURSELF A BIG FAVOR, AND WE'LL GIVE SOMEONE YOUR VALENTINE...

February 14 is Valentine's Day. So what? So, it's also the last day you can take advantage of a $1,500 tax deduction for last year with IRA. That's right...you can open an IRA account with us, deposit up to $1,500, and deduct the whole amount from your 1977 income taxes! If you are now not covered by a qualified pension or profit-sharing plan, then a First Bank IRA (Individual Retirement Account) is the best investment for your future.

Saving for your future and getting a tax break at the same time...that's a good deal! But there's more. Your First Bank IRA account earns 7 3/4% interest ! (And that's the most interest any financial institution gives.)*

Call First Bank & Trust Vice President Dwight Thrash at 632-5511 - He'll answer all your questions, and show you how IRA can work for you.

* A substantial penalty for early withdrawal is required by law.

FIRST BANK IRA... HOW IT WORKS FOR YOU

Under IRA, you can deposit as much as 15% of your yearly income (up to $1,500 for individuals; up to $1,750 for married couples) and claim your total yearly deposit as a deduction on your Federal income tax. You pay no taxes on your IRA account until you retire and begin to withdraw your money. And by that time, you'll probably be in a much lower tax bracket because of your retirement.

WHAT ABOUT THE VALENTINE OFFER?

We want you to get that 1977 tax deduction, and to do it, you have to act before Valentine's Day. So, as a reminder, First Bank is offering a box of Valentine Chocolates when you open you IRA account with us before February 14, 1978. It's a nice way for you to sweeten up someone's Valentine while you sweeten up your own future.

accurate. Now a few of those calls are under fire and we're ready to hang all the officials.

Many of the people who are making the accusations are noting that the instant replay should become part of the game. Now that's a brilliant idea. Let's have our athletics played by people and regulated by machines. If the game is to become so predictable and controlled, it should not be played on a field of grass, but rather in a computer room at some university.

Somehow over the years the whole idea of athletics has grown to become a mountain of complexity, we're losing touch with the competitors. Now there are those who will even more disturb the situation by bringing the cameras down on the field to judge the contest.

More than antything else, the most important part of athletics is people. The more re remove them from the game, the ' ore we take away. Instead of running a bad call, or better yet a mistaken call, a dozen times on relpay, forget it. It's done. Give the game back to the people and let the technicians find another source of controversy for their entertainment.

Besides, if the officiating was so terrible how come the two best teams in the world still made it through the jumble and into the Super Bowl?

Transportation Club installs new 1978 officers

The Pineywoods Transportation Club, an association for Traffic Management and Transportation executives in Angelina and Nacogdoches counties, met Jan. 12 at the Overland Express restaurant in Lufkin. New 1978 officers were installed by Traffic Club International President, Ernie Henson, from Houston.

New officers and the companies they represent are: Charles Foster, Texas South-Eastern Railroad, President; James Rhone, Temple Industries, Vice-President and Milford Ruby, Temple Industries, Secretary-Treasurer.

Doyle Chandler, past President of the organization, has been named Chairman of the Board. Other new Board of Directors members are: Buddy Hamilton, Central Freight; Ray Russell, Lufkin Industries; Gabe Baldree, Temple Industries; Wayne Bell, Lufkin Industries' Trailer Division; Glen Tate, Texas Foundries and Dale Thurston, Leeway Motor Freight.

Committee Chairmen were also announced at the meeting. They are: Milford Ruby, Social; Ivis Teer, Membership; Wayne Bell, Program; Fred Courtney, Publicity; James Rhone, Poster Contest; Doyle Chandler, Miss. Transportation and Golf Outing; Glen Tate, Family Outing and Ronny Robinson, Christmas Party.

The Pineywood Transportation Club was organized in 1973 and the organization's goals include: promoting better understanding of methods of traffic management and transportation, promoting personal acquaintance and friendly relations among its members, education in legislation and working toward the establishment of a two-year accredited education program in Traffic Management at Angelina College.

Pineywood Transportation Club draws its membership from Angelina, Nacogdoches, Polk, Trinity, San Augustine, Tyler and Houston counties. Membership is open to anyone "engaged in any various activities which can be related to or involves the physical distribution of goods and/or carriage of the same - intrastate, interstate and/or import and export cartage."

Students seeking careers in these or related fields are invited to visit the club meetings. Pineywood Transportation Club meets on the second Thursday night of each month, alternating its meeting sites between Nacogdoches and Lufkin.

scene, Central suffered a crushing setback, losing to Broaddus, 91-67. Dr. Terry Teagle was the star in this one scoring 37 points and contributing an amazing 23 rebounds. Teagle suffered an ankle sprain in the previous contest and was a doubtful starter on Thursday. The 6'4" All-Stater is the best ballplayer in the area and a treat to watch.

Both the men and the women at Angelina lost over the weekend to the Navarro Bulldogs. The men fell 95-93 to a powerful, 12th ranked Navarro team, but played exceptional ball in the close contest. The Roadrunners suffered from too many turnovers but quite a few of the miscues were caused by aggressive play. It's hard to fault an aggressive team. The leading scorer was Sherman Spikes with 23 points, followed by Ben Scarborough who nabbed 20 points.

The women fell to the lady Bulldogs, 81-66, in a physical hard fought contest. The Dogs took an early, commanding lead, but the Runners hung on. In the second half the game played even but the win went to Navarro. The girls were led by Janet Chancellor who tallied 22 points.

WHAT GOES WITH HOUSE?

Real estate is usually defined as the land and everything attached to it, such as: buildings, trees, shrubs, etc. The buyer normally gets all of the real estate, but none of the owner's personal property. The problem arises when personal property has become a part of the real estate. This is called a fixture and does pass with the real estate.

There are three usual tests which must be satisfied. Has the personal property been permanently annexed to the real estate? Is it intended to become part of the real estate? And finally, what is the local custom? Usual fixtures might include: shades, heaters, ranges, screens, storm windows, lighting fixtures, etc.

It is important that the seller spell out specifically in his sales agreement exactly what he intends to give to the buyer as part of real estate. This will save misunderstanding at the closing, and sometimes save a sale.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at LUFKIN REALTY, 1001 Lee, Lufkin. Phone: 639-2227. We're here to help.

Joyous New Year

Off-season savings.
That's one reason why. When we're not so busy, we can give you a better buy. And more attention.
Miss the price increase.
Inflation seems never to stop, and normally a new season brings higher prices. Right now you can get next year's pool for last year's prices.
We'll tell you the truth about Fiberglass.
And that's for free. We'll tell you about the best and let you decide we can give you the whole truth and let you make your own decision.
Don't tear your yard up during growing season.
It seems to hurt more when the grass is green and growing. Call us now and we'll be through before then.
Have your pool for a full season.
You'll be able to enjoy your pool from spring through fall. Ask anyone who gets a pool in the summer and they will tell you it is hard to wait for when it is 100 degrees in the shade. So, give us a call. We'll build you a pool while it's too cold to use it so you won't miss a minute when it gets hot. Plus you'll save money.
