My Dear mother,

I recd the clock yesterday Feb. 25, '44 Thanks a lot.

I guess I'd better do a little explaining. I really hate that I wrote for the clock, or I mean I hate that you sent yours. Mine is still good real good, Ralph & I knocked it off my table last nite & bent it so that it wouldn't alarm, so I took it apart to-day & fixed it & it's better now than before, only it's getting old & I gave $1.98 for it nearly two yrs. ago.

I thought you could get clocks O.K. & I wanted to get a new one & let Mrs. Bowerman keep it until I needed it, if ever he needs one & doesn't have an alarm clock you c. I'm sorry that it's happened. tell me if you need it & I'll return at once.

I sent Dovie two watches to get repaired & return to me, has she gotten them yet? I mailed em Jan. 25, I think. This finds us O.K. & I hope you all the same; love.

your Bro. & Son. Pie
