(d) All the lumber of SELLERS on hand and on the yard at East Mayfield, Texas, and the entire stock of goods, wares and merchandise of SELLERS in their commissary and warehouses at said place.

(e) The entire capital stock of the Lufkin, Hemphill and Gulf Railway Company, a railroad corporation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, and running from Bronson to Hemphill in Sabine County, Texas. And the SELLERS obligate themselves to convey to the PURCHASER or to the Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railway Company, as the PURCHASER may direct any rights of way now in use by the said Railway for its main, switch and spur tracks as well as ample terminal facilities at Hemphill and Bronson and ample depot grounds at Hemphill and all other stations on the line of said Railway where the lands so used are owned by the SELLERS.

The intention of the parties is to include in the above description all real and personal properties owned by the SELLERS and located in Sabine and San Augustine Counties, Texas, save such as are herein specially excepted.

ARTICLE II

The consideration to be paid to the SELLERS for said hereinafter described properties shall be ascertained and determined in the following manner.

(a) Lemleux Brothers & Company of New Orleans, La., in the months of March and April 1921, made for the SELLERS a certain estimate of their pine timber ten inches and upwards in diameter at the stump in Sabine and San Augustine Counties, Texas, amounting to 100,000,000 feet, log scale. There shall be deducted from said estimate of the pine (1) one-half of 2,225,000 feet log scale, representing dead and down timber (2) the quantity of timber, log scale, cut by SELLERS since said estimate was started, and (3) all timber included in said estimated not owned by SELLERS and the remainder shall be computed at the rate of $7.50 per thousand feet, log scale.

(b) And at the same time of estimating the pine, Lemieux Brothers & Company estimated the hardwood of SELLERS, and after deducting the hardwood included in said estimate which is not owned by SELLERS 21/34 of the remainder shall be computed at $7.50 per thousand feet, log scale, and added to the total purchase price of the pine as computed in this paragraph.

(c) Any timber owned by SELLERS in Sabine & San Augustine Counties, and which is not included in the estimate of Lemieux Brothers & Company, in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this Article, shall be estimated within 15 days after date of this contract, and each of the parties hereto shall select an estimator, the two of whom shall go upon the ground and estimate the merchantable pine and hardwood thereon, and in the event of a disagreement as to the amount of said timber a third competent estimator shall be agreed upon and a decision of the majority shall be final and the amount so found shall be computed at $7.50 per thousand feet, log scale, and added to the total amount computed in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this article. The tracts to be so estimated under this item being James Gaines 85 acres, James Gaines 20 acres and James Mason 50 acres unless final examination by PURCHASERS Attorney's shows same to have been in the estimate of Lemieux Brothers & Company.

(d) To the sum ascertained in the manner provided for in the next preceding subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) there shall be added (1) the market wholesale cost price, onthe date of delivery of possession by SELLERS under this agreement, plus freight and drayage on same to East Mayfield, Texas, of all goods, wares, merchandise and fixtures, including drugs and drug fixtures, then located and situated in the commissary, warehouses and drug store of SELLERS at East Mayfield, Texas, (2) the total amount of lumber then on hand at East Mayfield computed at $15.00 per thousand feet (3) the market price on the date of delivery of possession by SELLERS of all unbroken barrels of oil, unbroken kegs of nails, spikes and tracks bolts, unbroken packages of packing, full rolls of belting and fuel oil then belonging to SELLERS and on hand for use by them in connection with their sawmilling business.

(e) The total amount of item (1) in the next preceding subdivision (d) shall be arrived at by each of the parties hereto selecting within the next ten days a representative each, and these representatives shall proceed at once to take an inventory of said goods, wares, merchandise, drugs and fixtures and fixing the price upon same as provided in said subdivision (d) and in the event of disagreement between them as to said prices or quantities they shall agree upon a third man, and the decision of a majority shall be final, and the quantity, but not prices of lumber shall be determined upon the same basis.

(f) From the total sum ascertained as provided for in the next preceding subdivisions (a), (b), (c) and (d) there shall be deducted (1) the principal amount, it being $700,000.00 of the bonds issued under that certain mortgage (hereinafter for convenience referred to as the first mortgage), executed by the SELLERS to the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, Illinois, and Calvin Fentress, Trustees, of date November 15, 1920, and of record in the deed of trust records of Sabine County, Texas, in Vol 5, page 598 to 629, and (2) the amount of interest accrued and unpaid upon said bonds up to the date of delivery of possession by SELLERS under this agreement of the properties agreed to be sold except residence property which is to be reserved for a period. The amount remaining after making such deductions, shall be paid by the CORPORATION to the SELLERS $75,000.00, in cash and the balance in promissory notes as hereinafter provided for, and in addition the CORPORATION shall assume the payment of the bonds amounting to $700,000.00, issued under the First Mortgage , and all interest accrued and to accrue thereon.

ARTICLE 111

Upon the execution of this contract the PURCHASER shall pay to the SELLERS the $75,000.00 cash mentioned in item (f) of Article 2, and SELLERS shall deliver possession of all the properties herein described except such as are reserved for a period of time in other portions of this contract the PURCHASER and final invantory of properties described in items (1), (2) and (3) of subdivision (d) Article 2 shall be made within fifteen (15) days from date of this contract, and within thirty (30) days from date of this contract the SELLERS shall (1) make, execute acknowledge and deliver to the CORPORATION their deed conveying a good and sufficient title with clause of general warranty of title, all the properties herein agreed to be sold (2) deliver to E. J. Mantooth, as Trustee, certificates issued in his favor as Trustee representing the entire Capital Stock of the Lufkin,Hemphill and Gulf Railway Company, within thirty (30) days from the date of the execution of this contract the CORPORATION shall execute promissory notes to the order of SELLERS for the remainder of the consideration for the properties to be paid in notes as provided in Article (2) hereof and make execute and deliver to E. J. Mantooth, Trustee, for the purpose of securing the payment of said notes a deed of trust upon the properties conveyed, but not including the lumber nor the goods, wares and merchandise conveyed. The PURCHASER shall also make, execute and deliver or cause to be made, executed and deliver to E. J. Mantooth, as Trustee, an instrument pledging all of the capital stock of the L.H& G.Ry Co., to the said E.J.Mantooth as Trustee aforesaid until all of the notes provided for by this instrument have been paid off and discharged. Said instrument shall contain provision requiring the Trustee to vote the stock of the Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railway Company as may be directed from time to time by the PURCHASER, so long as the latter is not in default under said deed of trust. And, in this connection the SELLERS agree to cause the present directors and officers of said Railway Company to resign and directors and officers to be named by the PURCHASER to be chosen in their stead, whereupon the Trustee shall cause to be issued to such directors the necessary qualifying shares.

ARTICLE IV

It is understood and agreed that the SELLERS may continue to occupy and use as tenants of the PURCHASER or CORPORATION their residence and grounds and outhouses, but without charge for a period of two months after the delivery of the deed herein provided for.

ARTICLE V

The CORPORATION also agrees to pay SELLERS $7.50 per thousand feet log scale for all logs on hand in woods and in pond plus cost of same to SELLERS to the place where found, and this sum shall be added to the total purchase price of the properties as computed in Article 2 hereof.

ARTICLE VI

Upon the consumation of this agreement of sale, as herein before provided for, the parties covenant and agree:

(a) That the SELLERS do not guarantee or warrant any estimate or inventory herein provided for, and this agreement shall never be so construed, but this sale when consummated shall be considered and held to be a sale in bulk, but nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of the warranty of title against adverse claimants by SELLERS as elsewhere herein provided for.

(b) That the PURCHASER shall agree to fill such lumber orders of SELLERS on hand up to date of taking possession of said properties as SELLERS may desire the PURCHASER to fill without extra charge or cost to SELLERS.

(c) That neither the SELLERS nor the PURCHASE will request, nor will either cause, to be issued, under the first mortgage any bonds in excess of the $700,000.00, now issued thereunder.

(d) That the SELLERS shall pay such proportion of the taxes for the year 1921, against the properties conveyed, as the portion of the year prior to the actual delivery of the properties to the PURCHASER bears to the whole year, and that the remainder of said taxes shall be paid by PURCHASER.

(e) That the SELLERS shall assume and shall remain responsible for, and agree to pay and discharge, all claims and obligations against the Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railway Company, Knox Lumber Company, and Hiram Knox and Lillian M. Knox, and agree to save and hold the PURCHASER harmless against the same.

(f) That the SELLERS reserve to themselves all sums of money due said Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railway Company, and all claims in its favor accrued up to the time of delivery of the stock of said Company hereunder, and the SELLERS shall have free access to the books and papers of said company at reasonable times for such period of time thereafter as may benecessary for them to procure such data and information as they desire to enable them to secure and collect the money due on said claims, and if necessary, suit may be brought by SELLERS in the name of said Railway Company for the enforcement and collection of said claims, provided that the SELLERS shall in any and every such event protect the Railway Company against all liability for cost and expense to it of such suit or suits.

(g) That the SELLERS retain to themselves all claims and sums of money and obligations which may be due to the Knox Lumber Company, and the SELLERS shall enjoy the co-operation of the PURCHASER in fair and reasonable ways in the collection of same.

(h) That during the period of two months allowed the SELLERS to remain in occupancy of their residence, the PURCHASER shall furnish the SELLERS, without cost to the latter, electricity from the light plant and water from the water works when same are running.

(i) That in no event shall the SELLERS in any way interfere with the PURCHASERS employes, or with the operation of the properties conveyed, except in so far as they may be given such rights by express provisions of this agreement.

(j) That certain turpentine contract now in existence between the SELLERS and the Sabine Naval Stores Company shall be, and the same is hereby transferred to the PURCHASER, and the latter shall be in all things fully subrogaged to all of the rights and privileges of the SELLERS under said contract and shall assume all of the liabilities of the SELLERS thereunder, all interest of SELLERS in and to the capital stock of said Naval Stores Company shall be, and the same is hereby, transferred to the PURCHASER and the liability of SELLERS thereon in all things terminated.

(k) That the PURCHASER shall use reasonable efforts to assist the SELLERS in collecting overdrafts from such SELLERS employes as may be retained by the PURCHASER in its service, the latter to retain ten per cent (10%) of all money so collected for SELLERS. This provision, however, shall not be construed to require any affirmative steps upon the part of the PURCHASER to enforce any such collection, nor shall it entail any liability on the PURCHASER for failure to collect any such overdrafts.

(l) That the PURCHASER SHALL REDEEM for the SELLERS all metal checks on Knox Lumber Company outstanding at the date of this agreement by allowing the holders of same to make purchases in the store at the customary and usual prices, and the sellers shall pay to the PURCHASER the amount of all check so redeemed.

(m) That in the event of the failure of title because of adverse claims, to any of the lands or timber conveyed the liability of the SELLERS upon their covenant of warranty shall be, and the same is hereby fixed at $5.00 per thousand feet, log scale, for merchantable pine timber based on Lemieux Brothers & Company estimate mentioned in Article 2 hereof, exclusive of land and $5.00 per thousand feet, log scale for 21/34 of Lemieux Brothers & Company estimate as mentioned in Article 2 for merchantable hardwood, exclusive of land and $3.50 per acre for land exclusive of timber.

(n) That the SELLERS shall assign all insurance policies on the properties hereby contracted to be conveyed to PURCHASERS and PURCHASERS shall pay SELLERS the unearned premium on same.

(o) That the SELLERS shall at their own cost and expense furnish the PURCHASERS, within thirty (30) days from the date of this instrument full and complete abstracts of title brought down to date to all of the lands and timber agreed to be conveyed herein and that the PURCHASER'S attorneys shall have thirty (30) days after final abstracts shall havebeen furnished to the PURCHASER in whic to examine them, and the SELLERS shall at their own cost and expense, and with reasonable dispatch, perfect all defects in titles to the properties conveyed, pointed out in the written opinion of the PURCHASERS attorneys; and in the event the SELLERS fail to perfect all such defects in said titles, PURCHASE may proceed to do so, and the cost and expense of so doing shall be paid by the SELLERS to the PURCHASER, but the examination of titles and perfecting the defects shall not in any way hinder or delay the taking possession of the property, execution of final deeds, notes and deeds of trust payment of cash and carrying out all other terms of this contract. But in the event title to any tract of land or title to any tract of timber only shall be disapproved by the PURCHASER'S attorneys as worthless before delivery of final deed, the value of such tract, or tracts, on the basis of $5.00 per thousand feet, log scale, for pine and 21/34 of the hardwood and $3.50 per acre for land, (Lemieux Brothers & Company estimate mentioned in Article 2 hereof to govern) shall be deducted from the consideration evidenced by the notes mentioned herein and off the last maturing ones until the SELLERS are able to convey a superior title to same.

ARTICLE VII

The promissory notes to be made, executed and delivered by the PURCHASER hereunder shall be in the usual and customary form of promissory notes. They shall refer to the deed of trust by which their payment is to be secured for all of the terms, conditions and liabilities thereof affecting such notes. They shall bear the same date as the deed executed to the PURCHASER which shall be dated as of the date of delivery of the properties herein to the PURCHASER, and shall be drawn payable to the order of Hiram Knox and Lillian M. Knox, at the South Texas Commercial National Bank of Houston, Texas. The first $480,000.00 of said notes shall be in sums of $500.00 and $1000.00 so that $200,000.00 of said sum shall be in $500.00 notes and the remainder in $1000.00 notes. against Hiram Knox. Lillian M, Knox, Knox Lumber Company, or Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railroad Company, or either or any of them, but all of such debts, obligations, liens, and encumbrances shall be paid and discharged by the SELLERS, and the SELLERS shall indemnify and hold harmless the PURCHASERS and the CORPORATION against the same. To this end, and in order to insure the full protection of the PURCHASERS and the CORPORATION and said properties against such debts, obligations, liens, and encumbrances, and to insure the payment by SELLERS of all sums which under this agreement they are, or may be, required to pay, the instrument in writing to be executed and delivered by SELLERS to C. B. Collins and E. J. Mantooth, as Trustees shall authorize and require said Trustees to collect and hold the cash and notes to be paid and given by the CORPORATION hereunder in part payment for said properties, and in connection therewith the SELLERS shall execute and deliver such assignments and other instruments in writing as may be necessary to enable said trustees to collect the same. Said trustees shall be authorized and required to use the said cash and notes to pay all legal and enforceable sums which under this agreement SELLERS are, or may be required to pay, and to pay and discharge all legal and enforceable claims and obligations against said Lufkin, Hemphill & Gulf Railway Company for which SELLERS are responsible and to pay and discharge all debts, obligations, liens, and encumbrances which might be or become a lien against any of the properties conveyed of for which the PURCHASERS or CORPORATION might be held personally responsible and to hold said cash & notes so long as necessary for said purposes, not to exceed ninety days from date of delivery of said notes to said Trustees. The Trustees shall be authorized to give such notice by publication or otherwise to creditors of SELLERS as may in the judgment of E. J. Mantooth and C. B. Collins be necessary or advisable. Provision shall be made for exemption of the Trustee from personal liability except for bad faith. Provisions shall also be made for full and free access upon the part of the Trustees to the books, papers and records of SELLERS for such data and information as the Trustees may desire, and the SELLERS shall furnish to the Trustees a verified supplemental list of indebtedness supplementing to the date of delivery of the properties, the list of indebtedness to be furnished hereunder. The Trustees shall be constituted agents and attorneys in fact of SELLERS to do any and all things necessary in order to carry out the trust. Provision shall be made for the substitution of Trustees in the event of death or the refusal or inability of either of them to act by mutual consent of the PURCHASER and SELLER. Said Trustees shall be required to act jointly in all matters, and the Lufkin National Bank of Lufkin, Texas, shall be named as depository for all moneys, stock, notes and other securities coming into the hands of said Trustees.

It is hereby understood and agreed that the SELLERS will be given a reasonable time with their creditors in which to adjust them with the assets mentioned in this article without any action or interference on the part of the Trustees unless requested to do so by the SELLERS, and that upon the verified statement of any creditors approved by the SELLERS the Trustees will release to the Creditor so much of the assets as is necessary to adjust his claim. It is further understood that $25,000.00 of the cash herein and $150,000.00 of the notes equally distributed to the second, third, fourth and sixth years are to be delivered direct to the SELLERS to handle and dispose of as they see proper upon the execution of final deed herein.

ARTICLE XII

As to any hardwood on lands reserved in "EXHIBIT A" hereof which was included in the estimate of Lemieux Brothers and Company described in the Article 2 hereof PURCHASER shall have a period of ten years in which to cut and remove the same from and after date of final deed thereon, and in the event same is not cut within that time PURCHASER shall have an extension of five years upon the payment of a reasonable sum therefor.
